Government Is Subject Of St. Mary's Program

On Thursday, February 17, at 2 p. m., the St. Mary's Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Roberta Ferrell, with 21 members, one visitor, and the assistant home demonstration agent present.

Two suggestions for the "Family Life Project" were a club recreation scrapbook and individual first aid kits. Each member was requested to bring magazine clippings for ideas for the scrapbook to the next regular meeting.

The president, Mrs. Henry Walker, turned the meeting over to Miss Virginia Cathey for the demonstration, "Government." She introduced Mrs. J. E. Adams from Chapel Hill, who gave the club a quiz on "Orange County's Government and Citizenship." She also showed two interesting charts: "Estimated County Budget for '48 and '49" and "The Distribution of Your $85 for $100 of Property Assessed."

The recreation chairman, Mrs. Mildred Walker, called on various members for entertainment.

Dimes were collected for the lucky number which Kate Browning received. Her gift was a lovely-gresser scarf.

Book reports were made by Mary Lena Bacon, Billie Walker, Doris Rhew, and Exia Jones, while delicious refreshments were served.
