World Against Robert Mayo In Big Court Day

Hillsboro - The Mayo family squabble broke into court here Monday and Robert, who went on a rampage on January 7, now has 18 months to decide why his family has it in for him.

On that fateful day, Robert, 31year-old local Negro, assaulted his mother-he said he was just being affectionate; assaulted his niece, Pocahuntas-he said he did not think it proper for her to be at home "by herself with three boys"; Joe Howard, Efland, has been broke his brother George's shotappointed Lecturer of the North gun (which Pocahuntas was trying Carolina State Grange, according to use on him) and window lights; had a run-in with his brother James who ran for the law when Raleigh who found it necesary to he was stopped by him on Margaret Bane; drove an automobile while drunk; and resisted three officers, who tried to arrest him.

All in all, it seemed by his testimony, the world was against Robert that day. To top it all the mean old court brought up an old case about him assaulting his his current assault on his mother drunken driving and resisting arrest cases will run concurrent with the others.
