Anyone Can Join Six Weeks Drive

The News of Orange County will give $600.00 as first prize in its subscription campaign which starts this week and continues until March 18. Cash awards in this campaign total over $1,000.00 and at the same time those who are not prize winners will receive a 5% commission on all the subscriptions they sell.

This big subscription campaign is being carried out by the News of Orange County with the help of Orange County merchants to get people to subscribe to The News of Orange County by giving shoppers better service and better prices.

To make the contest a success, the News of Orange County wants subscription workers in every community and will pay them for all they do in their spare time in the next few weeks.

The one who does the most—

The one who gets the most new subscriptions (either new or renewal) will receive The Grand Award of $600.00 in cash.

The one who does next best will receive $300.00 in cash. A Grand Award will be paid one more time also, and every person who does not qualify for a Grand Award will be paid well for their work done—paid 20 per cent of all subscription money collected.

All this is explained in the coupon which are published on another page of this issue.

It is an interesting, pleasant occupation, putting the workers in friendly contact with people in the community and elsewhere. For a worker is privileged to get subscriptions anywhere) and most people visited will be grateful for the opportunity presented. No resident of Orange County or adjacent territory should be without this family newspaper. Anyone can do this work in such spare time as he or she may have, and earn good pay.

The housewife who has each week a few hours free from household work can make, in those few hours money that will enable her to buy herself or her family many things which otherwise they would have to do without. The minister, the professional man or woman, the business man or woman, would find this an interesting, profitable spare time activity. Knowing many people, seeing many people, they would find it easy to obtain subscriptions (without interfering with their regular work) and in that way pile up votes for the top award.

The worker who gets the first award is going to get $100.00 a week for the time spent in this work in the next few weeks: The one who gets the second award will receive $50.00 a week. Every worker will be paid well.

It isn't something new and unknown that the workers will offer to the people they see: The News of Orange County is well and favorably known in this part of the country, the only newspaper offering county-wide coverage of news and events, recently selected as one of the nation's "Greater Weeklies."

Charles Haskett of Elizabeth City has been appointed campaign manager by Publisher Edwin J. Hamlin and he will handle all said phases of the campaign. In a statement yesterday, Mr. Haskett said "The more people you see and sell, the easier you will find it to sell. You will discover too, that as soon as your friends learn that you are in this interesting campaign they will help you in various ways.

"So send the NOMINATION COUPON in right away. You can do this and find out all about this money-making opportunity; then you can decide your course—and you will have, if you continue the advantage of the extra 100,000 votes, and the very great advantage of an early start.

"Remember, you can work anywhere you wish. You of course have friends in many different communities in the county and elsewhere. It will be easy for you to present this matter to friends you can see and also those whom you may not be able to call on personally. The News of Orange will give you (without charge) printed letters which you can mail to them.

"It will surprise you to find that a large number of these will send their subscriptions through you—not only to befriend you but because of the widely known high character and excellence of the Orange County News.

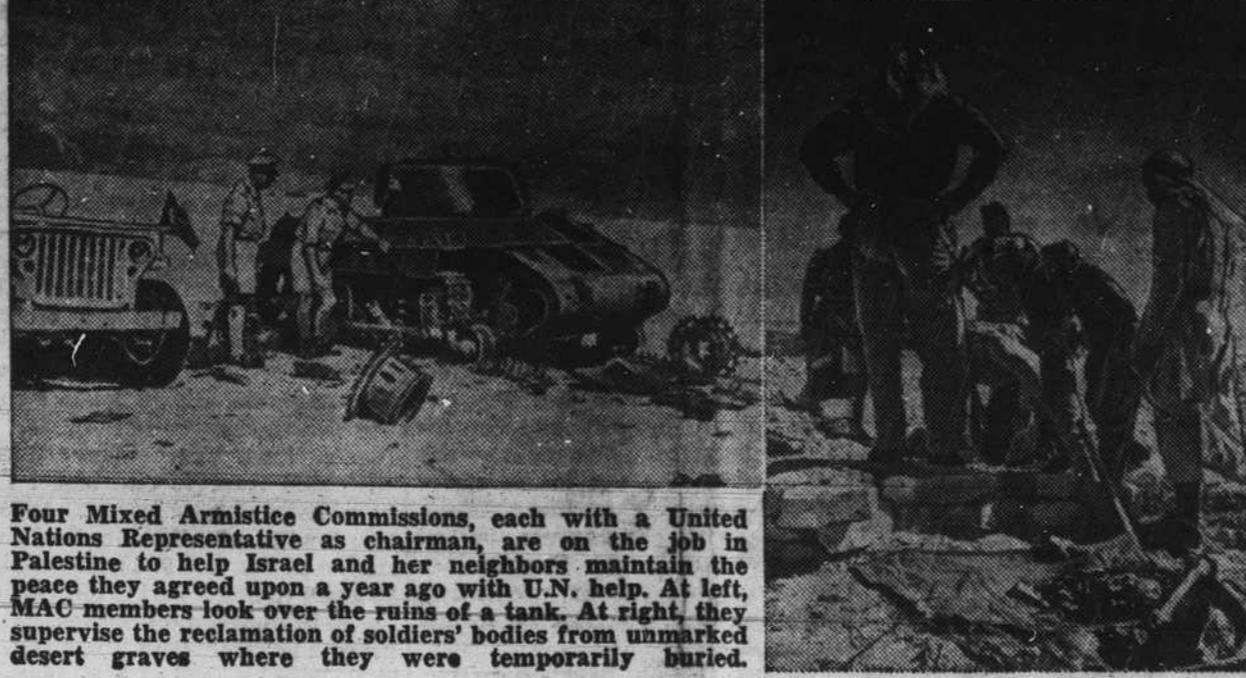

"Send your nomination Coupon now—immediately. Don't wait. Suggest someone who wants to win $600.00 and will work with you.

"Perhaps you who are now reading this cannot yourself go after the big first prize much as you would like to have the money; but know some neighbor or friend who would do so if they knew about it. Tell that friend.

"Or, nominate that friend—or write a postcard or letter to Campaign Manager, at the office, and suggest that he call on your friend and explain the entire proposition. (Your friend would be grateful if he or she should win the grand prize due to your suggestion.)

"Enter now, or get a friend to do so."

Continuous Job for U.N. in Holy Land

Four Mixed Armistice Commissions, each with a United Nations Representative as chairman, are on the job in Palestine to help Israel and her neighbors maintain the peace they agreed upon a year ago with U.N. help. At left, MAC members look over the ruins of a tank. At right, they supervise the reclamation of soldiers' bodies from unmarked desert graves where they were temporarily buried.

Groups Spur Dimes Drive

Fund Being Taken For Negro Couple Who Lose Their Home

Chapel Hill—When Dee and Selina McCauley returned from their work in Chapel Hill late Saturday afternoon, they found that their home and all their possessions had been destroyed by fire.

Dee and Selina, Negroes, own a small farm adjoining the Hogan Brothers Dairy near Chapel Hill. Their two sons, ages 16 and 14, attend Lincoln High School.

Citizens of the community have made arrangements for donations to be made possible for the McCauley family. Anyone wishing to contribute money, clothes, or household furnishings may leave them at The Bank of Chapel Hill in Chapel Hill or Carrboro, or contact Mrs. Jack Hogan at her home telephone F-5823.

Hillsboro—A number of civic organizations and community leaders are uniting to assure success for the annual March of Dimes appeal in Hillsboro and Northern Orange County.

Next public event on the schedule is a benefit movie being sponsored by the Young Adult group of the Hillsboro Presbyterian Church Saturday morning at the Gem Theater. An advance sale of tickets is underway through members of the group and a movie especially suited to children, Walt Disney's new "Dumbo and Saludos Amigos," will be shown at 10 a.m. Buy a ticket and send a child when approached by some member of the sponsoring organization.

The Hillsboro Exchange Club has scheduled another basketball extravaganza for February 6 when a group of town big-wigs in comic attire will play the club's well known girl's team and a strong outside team will meet the Exchange boys. Other events by the American Legion and other civic organizations are planned.

Sidney Green at Eno, J. W. Dickson at Belle Vue and Mrs. Curtis Nickles at Cedar Grove have been named assistant chairmen for this area by Chairman E. J. Hamlin.

"Orange County has never yet failed to achieve its quota, Hamlin said yesterday in pointing out the vital need. "This community is very much a debtor community to the National Association, inasmuch as considerably more has been spent here than has been raised on previous drives, however," he said. "Over $5,000 has been spent in Hillsboro on just one patient alone."

Fifty per cent of the money raised remains in the county and is administered by the local committee.

Donations from individuals and firms are urgently requested and may be mailed or given to the chairman prior to the end of the campaign.

Community PMA Committees to Meet Monday

Hillsboro—The general meeting of the Orange County and community committees is slated at the Legion Building in Hillsboro on Monday, January 30, it was announced this week by A. K. McAdams, Orange county P. M. A. secretary.

E. W. Avent, district fieldman for the P. M. A. will lead the discussion on the organization of P. M. A., duties and responsibilities of county and community committees, and to explain the cotton, and tobacco allotments and the price support program. All interested in the P. M. A. program are invited.

The afternoon session will be taken up with instruction of the measurement of the 1950 wheat acreage and reminded farmers that acreage would be checked on all wheat of ten acres or more.

Club Celebrates 35th Kiwanis Anniversary

Chapel Hill—The Kiwanis International's 35th anniversary was celebrated Tuesday evening, January 17, at the Carolina Inn by the Chapel Hill Kiwanis Club.

The dining table was centered with a large cake with 35 burning candles symbolic of the 35 years of Kiwanis International.

The program was highlighted by a message from Dr. Hugh Jackson, President of Kiwanis International, read by R. M. Grumman, Chapel Hill Chairman of Kiwanis Education.

Also on the program was Judge John Manning who made an interesting talk on the problems and functions of Chapel Hill Recorders Court.

Visitors present were S. M. Crowder, Lt. Gov. of the 5th District and Barnard Winfield of the School of Journalism at the University of N. C.

Business Zone Is Extended By Aldermen

Chapel Hill—The business zone in Chapel Hill has been enlarged to include an additional depth of 150 feet extending the length of two blocks from the Merritt Mill Road to Roberson Street, which runs between Hazzard Motor Company and Farmers' Dairy Cooperative. This will make possible the establishment of new places of business behind the Colonial Stores, Hazzard Motor Company, and other buildings in the affected area.

Any business house constructed in this area must have rear access to a public service alley.

This decision was reached by the Chapel Hill Board of Aldermen at their regular meeting Monday night.

The Board also gave the go-ahead signal to the Junior Chamber of Commerce to post street markers in the town.

Wood Thinning Event Held

Hillsboro—Forty-three veterans and farmers participated in a wood thinning demonstration on the farm of Mebane Ross, of the Jordan Grove neighborhood, Tuesday, January 17, 1950.

One of 47 bushels of wood and cord was cut on 1/10 of an acre or 14 cords per-acre, 39 trees on 1/7-0 of an acre or 390 trees per-acre.

It was estimated that a cord of wood would sell for $6.00. This would mean that 14 cords would be $84.00, leaving 390 trees for the future use.

Assisting with the demonstration was J. L. Gray, In Charge of Extension Forestry; R. H. Mobler, and V. J. Furgerson, County Soil Conservationists, V. G. Watkins, Forestry Specialist and Milton Latta, who rendered the services of Latta Bros. Tractor.

Exchange Basketball Hillsboro—The Exchange Club teams will see action tomorrow night at the High School gym at 7:30, the boys team meeting the capable Young Men's Shop team.

Tobacco Farmers Will Receive Acreage Allotments For 1950 in Mails Friday

Hillsboro—Tobacco farmers of Orange County will receive a total tobacco allotment of 4,575.2 acres for 1950, it was announced yesterday by A. K. McAdams of the local AA office.

This is a decrease of 54 acres but 569.3 acres more than was planted last year in this county. Last year's acreage generally over the state was less than allotted, by reason of the shortage of plants and other factors.

Individual notices to farmers will go out in the mails today.

Purebred Swine Show To Attract Big Crowd Here Feb. 2

Hillsboro—The purebred Spotted Poland China show and sale to be held at the live stock market in Hillsboro February 2nd is expected to attract hundreds of farmers and breeders throughout North Carolina.

The program will get under way at 10 o'clock with brief words of welcome from Dr. E. P. Hiatt, chairman of the public relations committee of the local breeders association, Dr. W. W. Pierson, president of the Chapel Hill Rotary Club, and Don S. Matheson, County Farm Agent. Other notable expected to attend are Jack Kelly, Extension Swine Specialist from Raleigh, John Winfield, Chief of Marketing Division of N. C. Department of Agriculture, Professor E. H. Hostleter, head of Animal Husbandry Department of N. C. State College, and Mr. Cutlar Ballance, president of the N. C. Spotted Poland China Breeders Association of St. Pauls, N. C. The last two gentlemen will act as judges for the show. It is expected a new system of judging will be used which should prove very interesting and educational both to the breeders and to the spectators. It will require about an hour for judging the entries.

Immediately after the show, Remus Smith of Smith Furniture Company will award the following prizes to the five best animals entered in the show: Grand Champ-

Gray Selection Pleases Village

Widely Known Garden Expert To Speak Here

Hillsboro—Miss Cora A. Harris, widely known garden consultant from Charlotte, will be guest speaker at the meeting of the Hillsboro Garden Club next Thursday, February 2, at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. H. W. Moore.

Miss Harris will speak in "Informal Gardens," using kodachrome slides to show continuity of bloom in the borders and woods from early Spring until November. She will also use slide on herb gardens to show how an herb garden provides color and interest twelve months of the year.

Miss Harris is a Charlotte newspaper columnist as well as a landscape architect. She has had charge of the Charles Cannon Gardens and the restoration of the D. A. R. Project Grounds which are now nearing completion in Charlotte.

Orange Quota For Big Party Dinner Is Five

Hillsboro—Orange County has a quota of five tickets—$250—for the annual Jackson-Jefferson dinner to be held in Raleigh on Saturday night, it was learned this week from County Democratic Chairman Robert O. Forrest.

This quota has been achieved and the money forwarded to Democratic Headquarters. Orange County's delegation, however, has not been ascertained but it will include representatives from both Chapel Hill and Hillsboro.

In past years, the dinner has been a state affair only. This year the party rally includes a large array of Southern and Southeastern Democratic big-wigs and leaders from Washington, headed by Vice-President Barkley, top cabinet and administrative officials.

Marooned Hazzards Of Chapel Hill Find More Hazards at Virginia Beach

Chapel Hill—The Hazzards of Chapel Hill who found another sort of hazard on the shores below Virginia Beach are still there—aboard their vessel—the Gee Gee.

Press reports quote the well known Chapel Hill man:

"I'm staying aboard until the schooner goes down or off."

John P. Hazzard of Chapel Hill, who bought the 103-foot schooner Dec. 1 and had the bad luck to have his vessel go aground just a few weeks after his insurance had lapsed, gave his account of the grounding early Friday.

"We left Sandy Hook Wednesday and on Thursday our direction finder went out about 11 p.m. We thought we took a bearing on Hog Island off Eastern Shore, but as it turned out we took in the Chesapeake light ship. Our sails were up and our power was on when we struck the beach at about 12 knots.

"My brother, W. B. Hazzard, was on lookout and the crewman, Jack Ward of Daytona Beach, Fla.,

Chapel Hill—"The prayers of the faithful have been answered," said acting president W. D. Carmichael, Jr. "It's a great day for the University."

Thus the man who has guided the affairs of the Greater University as Acting President since Frank Graham went off to Washington as Governor Scott's surprise appointee to the United States Senate set the tone for the acceptance of the nomination of Gordon Gray, now Secretary of the Army, as President of the University of North Carolina and Chapel Hill's first citizen.

It was an announcement long awaited by the citizens of this community whose interest in the University doubtless transcends that of all others. It ended a 10 months search which had covered approximately 100 persons.

The announcement was made by Governor Scott who said Gray had given permission for his name to be presented to the full board for their final action on February 6.

Gray is the 41-year-old tobacco heir of Winston-Salem who has been publisher of the Winston-Sentinel, a State Senator, practicing attorney, Army officer, and currently Secretary of the Army. He is an alumnus of the University.

He has made no comment upon the announcement of his selection.

Religious Film At Presbyterian

Hillsboro—The latest production of the Japanese Film Commission, "Kenji Comes Home," will be shown at the Presbyterian Church Sunday night, at 7:30 P.M.

The film was made in Japan and tells the story of a Japanese soldier who returns after the war to find his home destroyed and his family gone. Different from the usual mission film this one deals with the conflicts as democracy and Communism come to grips with each other in the life of the community and this man. Everyone welcome.

Winter Quarter Registration Down From '49

Chapel Hill—A total of 6895 students are enrolled in the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill this quarter, as compared to 7105 enrolled during the fall, it was revealed this week. There were 7105 registered during the corresponding period last year.

Of this year's total, 5339 are from North Carolina.

The official registration figures were announced by Chancellor Robert B. House and were based on a report of all schools and departments made by Edwin S. Lanier, director of the Central records Office.

Best Citizens Are Selected

Hillsboro—Best citizens for the first semester of the school year were elected in the home rooms of the first through the 12th grades at Hillsboro school this week.

Joan Freeland, Betty Davis, and Cynthia Walker were chosen in their respective first grade home rooms; Anne Lloyd and Johnny Mickey in the second grade; Edna Mae Dean and Sally Scott, third grade; Kately Webb and Jane Leems, fourth grade; Ella Joyce Clayton and Alice Faye Thompson, fifth grade; Nell Beard, Mary Latta and James Keck, sixth grade; Shirley Byrd and Billy Jean Parker, seventh grade; William McKee and Venie Cole, eighth grade.

In the high school those chosen were Dicky Barbour, Bettie Lou Reinhardt, Kenneth Brown, Tom Jeffner, Polly Roberts, and Dorothy Halthcock.
