Clayton-Thomas Vows

Spoken Saturday, March 25

Miss Lina Doris Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moody Thomas of High Point, and David Dorich Clayton, son of Mrs. Robert Hume Clayton and the late Mr. Clayton of Hillsboro, were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian Church in High Point Saturday afternoon, March 25.

Dr. Paul Tudor Jones and the Rev. Irving E. Brdseye performed the ceremony. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore an ankle-length blue lace gown fashioned with a "V" neck and softly flared skirt. Long sleeves ended in points at the wrist. She wore a lace half-hat with an illusion bow at the back and carried baby orchids on a white prayer book.

Miss Charlene Thomas, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Clayton, sister of the bridegroom, of Hillsboro, and Miss Helen Posey of Greensboro.

Their ankle-length dresses of ecru lace over taffeta were styled with fitted bodice and bouffant skirts. They wore half-hats of matching lace and carried arm bouquets of blue carnations.

Best man of the bridegroom was his brother, Fred T. Clayton. Ushers were William Clayton, brother of the bridegroom, William F. Welborn of Lexington, William C. Brown of Greensboro, and Benjamin F. Collins of Winston-Salem.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose crepe dress with black accessories. Mrs. Clayton chose a dove gray crepe gown with matching accessories. Each wore an orchid corsage.

The bride and groom received guests in the vestibule of the church after the ceremony.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home at 115 McIver Street in Greensboro, where Mr. Clayton is associated with Crutchfield-Browning Drug Company. For traveling, the bride chose an aqua dressmaker suit of gabardine, with brown accessories. She wore the orchids from her prayer book as a corsage.

Mrs. Clayton is a graduate of High Point High School and N. C. Baptist Hospital of X-Ray in Winston-Salem. She also attended Queens College in Charlotte where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority. Until her marriage, she was employed by City Memorial Hospital in Winston-Salem.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Hillsboro High School and served for three years in the Army Air Corps during the war. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy, where he was a member of Kappa Psi, pharmaceutical fraternity.
