Thanks From Club

Members of the Carrboro Civic Club wish to sincerely thank every one who contributed in any way to the supper sponsored by the club on last Saturday in the school lunch room at the Carrboro School and the Amateur Hour and Talent Show which followed the supper in the school auditorium including games and contests. The occasion was quite a successful venture for the club and the members as a body wish to thank every one who helped in any way, and to express their appreciation in this way.

Back From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. William Clark of Oak Ave. in Carrboro recently returned from a vacation trip. They were accompanied by their children, Roger, Barbara, Billy, Patricia and Raymond. They visited relatives in Pennsylvania and Rochester, N. Y., staying most of the time with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan of Hornell, N. Y., who are Mrs. Clark's parents and with Mrs. Laura Clark, of Rochester, who is Mr. Clark's mother. They were near the scene of the disastrous gas explosion in Rochester when 40 expensive homes were greatly damaged by the explosion. Sixteen homes were completely destroyed and blown away. Eight persons were killed and sixty injured by the gas explosion. None of them however were relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

Revival

Revival Services will begin next Sunday October 14, at the Carrboro Baptist Church, and will continue each evening all next week with services beginning at 7:30 each evening. The pastor, the Rev. Troy E. Jones will be assisted in these services by the Rev. Charles Smith, pastor of the Yates Baptist Church of Durham. The Rev. Smith comes to this community highly recommended by all who know him as an excellent speaker and church worker. Every one is given a most cordial invitation to attend all these services.

Shower For Mrs. Wrenn

Mrs. Troy Wrenn was honored at a miscellaneous shower on last Friday evening at the Methodist Church Hut, in Carrboro. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Kelly Davis and Mrs. J. E. Tripp. Many useful and lovely gifts were showered upon the honoree and at the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served the large number of friends and neighbors present.

Attend Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McFarling and their son, Rodney, of Carrboro attended the birthday celebration of Mrs. Blannie Butner, last Sunday held at her home in Pittsboro. A large number of relatives and friends were present.

Church Meetings

Important meetings of societies of the Carrboro Baptist Church this week have included the following: The Junior R. A.'s of which the Rev. Troy E. Jones is leader met on Monday afternoon at the church. On Monday evening the Minnie Durham Circle of the Missionary met with Mrs. Edna Pendergraft at her home near Carrboro. Also on Monday evening the Florence Lide Circle met with Mrs. Bob Ray at her home on Weaver Road. On Tuesday afternoon the Ann McDade Circle met with Mrs. Nellie Williams on Greensboro Street in Carrboro with Mrs. W. E. Williams in charge of the program. On Tuesday evening the Young Woman's Auxiliary met with Mrs. H. C. Riggsbee on Lindsay Street in Carrboro.

W. S. C. S. Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Carrboro Methodist Church, met at the home of Misses Frances and Eugenia Hearne on Greensboro St. in Carrboro. Mrs. Bob Watson was in charge of the program. A large number were present for the meeting.

Attend OES Event

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mann of Carrboro attended the Tenth District School of Instruction of O. E. S., held in the Trinity Methodist Church in Durham last Saturday. Many leaders in Eastern Star work were present from many cities throughout North Carolina. The school was under the direction of Mrs. Frances Bartlett, of Chapel Hill and Harvey C. Byrd Jr., of Durham.
