Miss Sydna Fryer - Charles L. B. Lowndes Jr. Married In Afternoon Ceremony

In a semi-formal ceremony June 21st at four thirty in the afternoon, Miss Sydna Ann Fryer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Fryer of Hillsboro, N. C., became the bride of Charles Lucian Baker Lowndes, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. B. Lowndes of 2016 Club Blvd., Durham, N. C.

The single ring vows were spoken at the Immaculate Conception Church of Durham. The Father Francis Smith was officiating minister.

The chancel decorations were highlighted by floor vases of white bridal flowers banked with woodwardia fern highlighted by tall cathedral candles in seven branched candleabra.

Prior to the exchange of vows Miss Phoebe Bernhardt of Concord, N. C., organist, presented program of nuptial music including selections from Bach, Schubert, Handel, Lovelace. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina length dress of nylon tulle and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice of lace had a halter neckline over which was worn a close fitting lace jacket, small peter pan collar, was opened down back with small self covered buttons. The long fitted sleeves came to points over the hands. The full bouffant skirt of nylon tulle was worn over a crinolin. The bride's shoulder length veil of imported French illusion fell from a cloche of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and phalaenopsis orchids.

Miss Sue Fryer was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore white imported lace over dawn blue taffeta. The dress was designed with strapless bodice over which was worn a lace bolero. The full bouffant ballerina length skirt was worn over a flowers and baby breath and her crinolin skirt. She carried a colonial nosegay of pink roses, corn heads and a bandeau of matching flowers.

John Foy Lowndes was best man for his brother. Groomsmen were William S. Fryer, brother of bride, William Lowndes, brother of groom, Wriston H. Locklair, and James B. Richmond.

Mrs. Fryer chose for her daughter's wedding French blue lace and nylon tulle with black accessories and corsage of pink carnations and baby breath. Mrs. Lowndes, mother of the groom, chose mauve pink pure silk shantung with matching accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Fryer entertained at their home in Hillsboro for wedding guests. The home was decorated throughout with arrangements of mixed summer flowers. The bride's table was covered with Irish linen, cloth and held the tiered wedding cake. The floral arrangement was an antique silver tureen filled with white bridal flowers flanked by tall white tapers in silver candleabra.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. O. G. Parsley who greeted the guest, Mrs. R. O. Forrest introduced the guest to the receiving line composed of the parents of the bride and groom and the wedding party. Mrs. H. F. Latta directed guest into the dining room where Mrs. H. H. Brown presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Joe P. Hughes cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Lucius Cheshire, Misses Phyllis Forrest and Joyce Brown assisted in serving - Miss Jenette Miller directed guests to the gift room. Miss Mary Barker Lowndes was in charge of the brides book, and Mrs. Eiland Forrest accepted good byes.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Lowndes left for a wedding trip to Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. After July, they will be at home in Charlotte, N. C.

For going away the bride chose an apricot two piece dressmaker suit with navy accessories and a corsage of orchids completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Lowndes graduated from Cahome Visitation Academy, Georgetown, Ky., and attended Salem College.

Mr. Lowndes graduated from Belmont Abbey, Belmont, N. C., and received his B. S. Degree in Agricultural Economics at State College in Raleigh, N. C.

You get

MORE TRUCK FOR THE MONEY

when you buy on the plain hard facts!

Fact No. 1

Model for model—costs less Stack up a Chevrolet truck against any other truck with comparable specifications; capable of handling the same payloads. You'll find the Chevrolet truck lists for less and brings you great features.

Fact No. 2

Mile after mile at rock bottom cost Truck users everywhere have proved that Chevrolet costs the least of all to own and maintain. Valve-in-Head economy, in the Loadmaster or Thriftmaster engines, saves on gas.

Fact No. 3

Right truck for the job saves money Chevrolet trucks are factory-matched to your payload requirements. You don't waste money by buying "too much truck"—you don't risk work interruption by buying "too little truck."

Fact No. 4

Lower, slower depreciation Records show that Chevrolet trucks traditionally bring more at resale than any other make which costs about the same new. The market value of Chevrolet trucks stays up because the value stays in.
