GWENDOLYN ROSE WOODARD WEDS MARVIN WYATT CATES

In a ceremony at Christ Episcopal Church of Raleigh, Miss Gwendolyn Rose Woodard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Earl Woodard of Raleigh became the bride of Marvin Wyatt Cates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. Cates.

The vows were spoken at 5:30 p.m. Saturday with the Rev. Stephen C. Walke officiating.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial selections was presented by Frederick Stanley Smith, organist, who also accompanied the church choir in two selections including: O Savior Sweet by Bach and O Perfect Love by Barnby.

The church was decorated with vases of gladioli and chrysanthemums and tiered candelabra holding tall white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of antique ivory satin and imported chantilly lace fashioned along princess lines with nylon tulle yoke collared with lace and seed pearls that dipped down in the back to the waistline, long lace sleeves trimmed with a tiny tulle fold, and a princess skirt of lace contrasted with satin folds at the sides fell into a court train. Her full length veil of French illusion was attached to a pearl-studded Juliet cap and her bouquet was of valley lilies and white roses, centered with an orchid.

Miss Jane Dalrymple cousin of the bride attended as maid of honor. Her gown of gold nylon net over taffeta was designed with strapless bodice worn with demi-jacket a tiny corselet midriff, and a nylon net skirt of double ruffle. She wore a Juliet cap, matching gold mitts and carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums tied with contrasting ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Woodard and Miss Peggy Dalrymple, and junior bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Lynn and Miss Kay Franklin. Miss Suzanne Cates, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Their gowns of green nylon net and satin were made identical in style to that of the honor attendant. They wore matching mitts and Juliet caps, and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and roses tied with contrasting ribbon.

Marshall L. Cates Jr. of Hillsboro was best man for his brother. Ushers were Jay Woodard of Raleigh, brother of the bride, John W. Pass of Raleigh, David R. Moore of Fuquay Springs, Owen Allison of Hillsboro, Lawrence Rogers of Mebane and Kenneth Rosemond of Hillsboro.

Honorary attendants were Mrs. Milton Dixon, Mrs. David R. Moore, Mrs. George H. Repass, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Eleanor Johnson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Woodard wore a gown of toast Chantilly lace over blush satin with toast accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of flesh chiffon with a matching Juliet cap and an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the wedding the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Woman's Club.

From New York the couple left by plane for a three-weeks wedding trip to Europe including France, Switzerland, Holland, and England.

For traveling the bride wore a beige gabardine suit trimmed in bronze beads, brown accessories, and used cobra shoes and bag. They will reside in the Raleigh Apartments in Raleigh upon their return.

Mrs. Cates is a graduate of Meredith College where she received an A.B. in history and at the present time she is manager of the World Travel Service of the Carolina Motor Club in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of North Carolina with a B.S. in Business Administration, and at present is employed as a research analyst with the Division of Statistics and Planning of the North Carolina State Highway and Public Works Commission.

GARDEN CLUB PLANTS CROCUS

The Hillsboro Garden Club has one thousand crocus bulbs which they plan to use along the entrances to the business district, making gay drifts, especially in the mown lawn areas. Persons living on King Street between the triangle and the business district and on the St. Mary's road between highway 70 and the business district or just off either of these streets are asked to cooperate with the Garden Club by planting some of these bulbs on their property.

Interested Persons are requested to call Maude Brown this week and engage as many of these bulbs as will be needed.
