

Aycock School Junior-Senior Banquet Held

CEDAR GROVE — The Junior Class of Aycock High School entertained the Seniors at a Banquet and Dance recently in the gymnasium. Mrs. Fred S. Cates Jr., Junior Class sponsor, was in charge of the arrangements.

The Stork Club was the setting for the occasion and tables seating 4 and 6 were arranged cabaret style. The Lavender and Yellow color motif was carried out in the decorations yellow and lavender streamers formed an overhead canopy and dropped to the sides. Balloons were suspended from the center and were cut later in the evening. The individual tables were decorated with miniature arrangements of flowers and lavender and yellow candles entwined with ivy. Miniature top hats were used as nut cups. Stork Club menus, napkins, program covers and party hats were souvenirs.

Supt. G. Paul Carr gave the invocation and the following meal was served by candle light. Tomato juice, fried breast of chicken, lima beans, candied yams, tomato on lettuce, iced tea, hot biscuits, cherry cobbler ala mode, pickles and nuts.

The meal was served by the following sophomores who were dressed in service uniforms: Betty Jane Walters, Dorothy Lewis, Della Thompson, Nancy Crabtree, Larry Poole, Stanley McCulloch, Bruce Blalock, John Tolar, J. C. Sharpe was the head waiter. The meal was prepared by the Junior Class Parents.

NFA Boys Earn $200 For Camp

HILLSBORO — The N. F. A. boys at Central High School have raised $200.00 as their part of a State project to erect a permanent summer camp.

Work on the running water and bath houses is to begin immediately. They will be completed for camping this summer.

To raise their part of the goal, the N. F. A. boys sold gadgets and gave three minstrel shows entitled "The Coontown Thirteen Club", "Good Morning Judge" and "Mush and Poke Detectives." They were supervised by J. M. Murfree and assisted by McLain Whitley and Clyde E. Dungee, practice teachers from A. and T. College.

The N. F. A. Chapter has also started a pig chain sponsored by Sears Roebuck and Company. Eight purebred spotted Poland China pigs were given to eight boys in the county. Each boy will grow his pig to the best of his ability and enter her in the show next fall. The boys whose gilts win blue ribbons will receive them free, those with red ribbons will only pay $3.50 for their gilts. It is possible for all the gilts to win blue ribbons. The pigs cost from $15.00 to $18.00 when they were purchased. The purpose of the chain is to improve the quality of hogs in Orange County.

St. Mary's Club Holds Style Show

Spring is the time for flowers, new brides and dress revues, so St. Mary's Home Demonstration Club followed the usual trend at the April meeting.

The dresses were all so good that the judges felt like resigning on the spot, but they finally came up with a ruling that gave first place to Mrs. Henry Walker, second to Mrs. Charles Roberts and third to Mrs. Frederick Miller. In the children's division, Iva Ann Walker and Linda Latta tied for first place with Sherry Smith running a close second.

The demonstration, given by Mrs. Henry Walker for Food Preservation leader, Mrs. Malcolm Latta was about freezing foods. Some valuable points were given and emphasized.

Plans were made to attend the District Meeting in Durham, April 27, almost "en mass." Committees were appointed to make plans for the observance of National Home Demonstration Week and for several other important items.

This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Jesse Martin, with almost record breaking attendance. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Verta Bacon.

FAMILY NIGHT
CHAPEL HILL — Marse Grant of Charity and Children will speak Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Baptist Church at Chapel Hill following a church Family Night Dinner. Mr. Grant has done outstanding publicity work for the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville and has been cited for his progressive editing of one of the most important denominational publications in North Carolina.

The Office Belongs To You

What Do You Want In A Sheriff?

EXPERIENCE
Your sheriff should be a man well versed in the procedures and theory of law enforcement, a man with practical experience in the political office to which he aspires.

GOOD HEALTH & PHYSICAL STAMINA
The office of Sheriff requires the exercise of the highest physical and mental faculties a man may possess. It is a grueling job which must be pursued vigorously and continuously. If he is successful, your Sheriff must be on constant call making himself available for long periods on short notice if law enforcement demands are to be met.

STRONG MORAL CHARACTER
The man you want for the high office of Sheriff must be of good repute among his fellow men, must be strong morally as well as physically, and unswerving in his devotion to duty and to the trust the people place in him.

CAPACITY FOR GROWTH
Your Sheriff should be a man who has the capacity to improve the services of the office to you as needs are shown. He should be a man who can grow with the job, bringing to your Sheriff's office the latest in law enforcement techniques and practices.
