Dwight M. Ray, Carrboro hard-

were written in by their friends

Joseph L. Dixon, Chapel Hill accountant, moved out of the State

after filing for election, but re a faculty member, 1 vote.

commanding leads.

as a display of humor.

KIDD BREWER'S

Umstead died last Sunning, my first thoughts years I had watched as was forced into the by his strong-willed work in behalf of all rificed more than his life William B. Umstead sacwhile he was living the it of evenings with his d little daughter.

URAL MESSAGE ... For just prior to his first tack and a week before to become Governor, Mrs. and I dropped in on him esidence in Durham. d completed writing his l message and was read-he had started the reading, his mother-in-law, Mrs. nd his daugater, Me.18. stead had dropped offsto the couch, little Merle ndered off upstairs. Mrs.

had been able to hold the of only one-third of his at home.

ED HOUSE ... William B lived in a rented house am when he became Gov-North Carolina.

me that now it is not vioconfidence to say that stead furnture has been for the past two years in the big upstairs rooms of 9:00 .P. M. sion here on Blount Street.

e had been connected for and twelve-year-old Merle, fudent at Ravenscroft here eigh, will live now that ust move without great de-

and daughter will return Mr. and Mrs. Umstead,

EGATING AUTHORITY.

overnor, he did not follow Gov. W. Kerr Scott's poli-visit on this occasion. having both an administrassistantand a private esecre-

EE ABLE ASSISTANTS. W. Kerr Scott has again intelligence in selecting able assistants to go with Washington, along with clerks and secretaries.

Roney has the experience id to Senator Scott in take of the departmental work ublic relations and service Chapel Hill No. 3 people back home.

Whitley is equipped to do Chapel Hill No. 5 ellent job as press relations arv, having had much newsexperience and having gone White Cross h two political campaigns Cole Store ead for Gov. and Scott for Tolars within the past two years. Carn William M. Cochrane, now strative director of the Inof Government, Scott has Efland ble person to do the legisla- Rock Spring esearch for an efficient ope- University ther words, Senator W. Kerr will be able to render his Cedar Grove uents a better and longer St. Marys through having able as Cheeks e in various fields of en-Hillsboro

ALEIGH ROUND-UP, page 2

Orange County Mystery Farm - No. 12

Who Owns This Mystery Farm?

IDENTIFY THIS "MYSTERY FARM" first and you will receive a free subscription to The News of Orange County. Considerable inferest has been shown in this feature series and a number of people are calling each weak with their identifications. Often they are right, sometimes they are wrong. So, join the game. Read page 4 of today's issue for the ide itification of last week's "Mystery Farm." The owner of the farm pictured above is asked to come by The News as soon as possible and receive a beauiting to hear the inaugural tiful mounted photo of the picture above, courtesy of the Durham Bank and Trust Company and this

Lions Broom Sale Begins Tomorrow

conduct its annual Broom and Door Mat sale Friday from 4:00

A house-to-house canvass will be made by the members of the Lions Club and public support is 19 Joseph Ka Huff of Chapel Hill work with the blind.

netary interest in the pro- Joyner, will be assisted by Co- for the past two years health eduentire Lions Membership.

This sale, originally scheduled HOME? ... A lot of peofor September 15th, was postponed already asking where Mrs. as a result of Hurricane "Hazel."

Lodge Plans

therford County to make unique and unusual degree will be North Carolina, and received he Scouts and Dr. Rose B. Browne ome with Mrs. Umstead's staged at Eagle Lodge No. 19, master's degree in public health Council member will visit with Mrs. Davis, who has spent when the Third Degree will be education from the School of Pub- Miss Edna Dooley weeks of each year recen - put on with Past Masters filling lic Health here in 1952. During the degree. Past-District Deputy three and a half years, of which undoubtedly a great deal Grand Master Chas. M. Waiker, two and a half years was spent in in the statement that Sr. will fill the Master's Station the European theater. B. Umstead's inability to and Past District Deputy Grand e authority and responsi- Master Grady A. Brown will gice

- although attend and participate in this de Cross Grange on Monday night, gree and ally members are requested to attend. Master Masons This will be an important meet will have charge of the devotional handle my duties in office in acquested to attend. Master Masons This will be an important meet will have charge of the devotional handle my duties in office in acquested to attend. Master Masons This will be an important meet part of the program. All parents cordance with the best interests. was $7,200 available avail-gree and ally members are re. November 15 at 8 o'clock. quested to attend. Master Masons and all members are urged to part of the program. All parents cordance with the best interests reague, business manager of the of other lodges are also invited to ing and all members are urged to attend.

Precinct

Huff Joins Heart Staff

has joined the state staff of the All brooms and mats are made North Carolina Heart Association formally withdraw his by blind people, and the proceeds as health education consultant, acfrom the sale will go to further cording to an announcement today by William W. Wood, executive Chairman of the sale, Lion P. S. director. Mr. Huff, who has been Captains R. O. Forrest, Ted Smith, cater for the District Health Deand H. W. Moore, along with the partment covering Orange, Person, Chatham and Lee counties, will al educaton programs through out but has lived the greater part of Scout Council. There will be two candidates for cal Corps of the U.S. Air Force for

POMONA GRANGE TO MEET

County Commissioner

Guess What?

The News had many calls from curious readers last week. They all wanted to know who lived on the Mystery Farm. None of them chances. And if you can guess either the owner of the above Orange County Mystery Farm or the owner of last week's Mystery Farm first, you will win a subscription to the News.

The owner of the Mystery ed copy of his farm photo.

This weekly series of farms in the county is brought to you by this newspaper, and The Durham Bank and Trust Co., of Hillsboro.

Scout Program

work out of the Heart Associa- WTVD, Durham, will broadcast Thomts E. Lynch, and a nephew, ballot. These men will all be cersupervising its lay and profession- 4.15 "Tea" Time," with the discussion of the day, "The Formation Mr. Huff was born in Georgia, of the Five County Area Girl of Hillsboro.

Degree Work his life in North Carolina. He is . Mrs. E. C. Bolmeier, president On Friday night, November 12, 3 a graduate of the University of of Durham County Council of Girl-

Safety Program

Clerk Of Congress

Orange County Voting Box Score

119 53

151

3175 699

137

Register

ACTORS WANTED

Miss Ruth Thompson and Quentin Patterson have issued a call throughout the county for all farm men and women, both oung and old, who would like take part in the little Rural Progress play. They could use many as twenty (20) people d urge everybody who is inprested in trying out for this play to meet at the Hillsboro High School auditorium this Friday night, November 12 at 7:30

"Miss Mary" Crawford Dies Here At 81

Cemetery in Greensboro.

G. Crawford of Hillsboro and Commissioners was increased from daughter of the late Monroe A. hree members to five and under and Ella Jones Whittington of its provisions in order to have Greensboro, died at her home staggered terms hereafter, three Tuesday night after a short illness, members of this first board under was, a former resident of the new law were elected for four Greensboro and had lived in Hills- years and two for two years.

"Miss Mary," as she was affect ware and furniture dealer, who in tionalely known, was one of Hills- the primary received only a bare. boro's best known citizens. Al- majority in fifth place in a field though 81, she remained one of of .12, was top man in the Comthe town's most active citizens missioner race. He was followed until the morning of her death closely by Edwin S. Lanier of when she was stricken with para- Chapel Hill and Henry S, Walker lysis and sank into a coma. She of St. Mary's community. These was never too busy to help others three comprise the 4-year memand daily made the rounds of sev- bership, with the two incumbents, eral homes in the community to R. J. M. Hobbs of Chapel Hill and lend help or bring a word of en- Sim Effand of Effand, being left couragement. She was a familiar with the 2-year terms. The vote figure on the Hillsboro streets, for the five was as follows: Ray greeting store keepers and clerks 3100, Lanier 3098, Walker 3090, and purveying accounts of latest Hobbs 3018, Efland 3004. happenings to a host of acquain- The significance of the standing tances. She was a loyal member of candidates in connection with of the Hillsboro Presbyterian the four and two year terms was Church and was always active in discussed widely immediately after ings. In earlier years she became it really counted. the State's first woman member In Chapel Hill township six men wearing the regalia of this distinct votes, since only one man, and he

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. duly nominated and placed on the and Miss Ruth A. Crawford, and boro and take office, despite the a stepson, Herman Crawford, all fact that some of them possibly

Sheriff To Attend

School In Chapel Hill Odell H. Ciayton, recently elect- ceived 1,451 votes by virtue of his ed Democratic Sheriff, will attend name being on the ballot, The the Sheriff's School at the Insti- write-ins, all of whom were electtute of Government in Chapel Hill ed because of North Carolina sta-for the encour- ion of one Justice of the Peace There will be a speaker from agement and support which Orhe Safety Division of Highway ange County citizens gave to me, Patrol of Raleigh at the regular and I will do my best to uphold The Orange County Pomona meeting of the Hillsboro School their feeling of confidence I hope candidate for Sheriff last Spring, he lecture. Grange will meet with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words to Grange will meet with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words with the White Parents and teachers meeting on that as Sheriff of this county I govern words with the White Parents and teachers meeting on the parents with the White Parents and teachers meeting on the parents with the White Parents and teachers meeting on the parents with the White Parents and teachers meeting on the parents with the White Parents with Mrs. McCauley's fourth gradd you people. I shall do my best to ) votes: Paul Robertson, already

N. C.

Rep.

Senate

N. C. Cor.

129

281

245

94

57

70

60

47

56

32

144

245 | 240

222 - 215

291

262

97

57

47

32

134

Ray, Lanier, Walker Win Election For Four Years; Incumbents Two Years; Several New J. P.'s Are Elected By Write-In Vote Voting in Orange County's General Election of November 2 produced some significant results, particularly as it affected the Board of County Commissioners and the selection of a number of Justices of the Peace by write-in votes. The Board of Elections complet. ed its canvass of the election results Saturday, after all reports ad been submitted by the Regis rars of the county's 19 precincts. Later this week those elected will receive formal certification of their election from Elections Board Chairman E. J. Hamlin. In the race for County Commis-Funeral services will be held sioner, the significance of the votfor Mrs. Mary Whittington Craw- ing lay in the selection of memford, 81, this afternoon at 1 o'clock bers for 4-year and 2-year terms. in the Presbyterian Church. Inter- Under terms of a local legislative ment will be in the Green Hill act passed by the last General Assembly and going into effect at Mrs. Crawford, widow of Oliver this time, the Orange Board of

Election Shakes Up

Board's Term Lineup

Eddie Hines, local lumber dealer, displays his new shotgun, probably the fanciest and most expensive in America. Also in the picture is Truitt Bennett of Chapel Hill

Golden Birds Make The Difference

Hines Buys U. S.'s Fanciest Shotgun

Eddie Hines, well-known Hills- Hines added a gold Miller trigger, the country.

of a volunteer fire company, later were elected as Justices of the enjoyed appearing in parades Peace, five of them by write in wearing the regalia of this distinct votes since only one man and he has moved out of the State, was for sale with elaborate carving on all of its affairs and throughout last Spring's primary but appar- boro lumber dealer, is proud of the best made, to the basic weapon, Farm, uson calling the News, the years could be counted upon ently was lost as a conversation his latest acquisition, a fancy a Model 21 Winchester, which he will receive a handsomety mount- to lend a helping hand at wed- piece, both by candidates and vot. carved and engraved shotgun believes is the finest gun in Amerdings, funerals and other gather- ers, in the General Election when which he believes is the finest in ica even without the engraving.

The New Jersey gunsmith who Hines, who is near the top among fixed it up for sale valued it at Bird Shot at Maysville, Ky. Its trophies with his shooting prowess. original owner, a gun handler in a He has participated in the Grand New Jersey city, had it fixed up American shoot at Vandalia for tion's state headquarters here, on Monday afternoon, Nov. 15, at Edwin-M. Lynch, of Hillsboro; two tified as elected and can qualify the stock and other wood portions the past three years and belongs stepdaughters, Mrs. A. W. Kenion before the Clerk of Court at Hills- of the gun and engraved with 14 to the Southern Indiana Gun Club gold birds on the lock and barrel. where he also won trophies.

Dramatic Skit, Prizes Feature Rural Progress Night, Nov. 22

All agricultural workers in Or . ange County have been busy this Miss Ruth Thompson, Home De-

A number of persons got writein vites for other offices, but of year and a serious presentation of Camp New Hope. course these votes had no signifi- the outlook for next year. cance because only a single office

Orange County voters voted prizes. heavily in favor of all proposed Farm families all over the coun-

CEDAR GROVE RURITAN AUCTION SALE

55

62 elsewhere on this page.

268 in Orange County.

The Cedar Grove Ruritan Club 124 will hold its annual Auction sale 96 on Saturday, November 20, on the Parish Guild will hold a bazaar 97 Aycock School Grounds at 10 Saturday afternoon at the Colonial Barbecue plates, barbecue sand-714 fee will be on sale in the school Elephants". There will also be a tickets will be available at the week completing plans for Rural tutes which permti one the elec-Progress Night to be held in Hillsfor each 1,000 resdents of the boro, Monday night, November 22. cownship, and their votes were as oilows: Charles W. Johnston, a monstration Agent and Quentin Patterson, Soil Conservationist, have been working with the University of North Carolina Department of Drama on a skit to be put Night" for parents of Boy Scouts, on by local farm men and women Scout leaders and their wives, and at Rural Progress Night. This play friends of Scouting in Orange will be a humorous take-off on the hard times experienced by all farmers in Orange County this was at stake in each case, and the Night will consist of only two Gaskin of Raleigh, Scout execuduly nominated candidates held things. They are, the play and the drawing for 50 or more valuable 125 constitutional amendments, except ty are turning their completed Ru-ly. 245 No. 3, for which the "no" vote ral Progress circulars to the Ru-3)8 was 1445 and the affirmative vote ral Progress Leaders and are re- by the group of individuals who ceiving a ticket for each point have made outstanding contribu-All Democratic candidates for which they have completed on 217 State offices received a large vote their farm during the year. From the number of completed circulars ing in the county during the past A tabulation of the vote for already turned in to the County year, county officers and State and Dis- Agents office, the success of the trict posts of greater local inter- program seems assured. There is will show films made of the recent 75 est by precincts may be found yet time to receive tickets by "Gold Rush" in which Boy Scouts contacting any of the Rural Progress leaders.

BAZAAR SATURDAY

The ladies of St. Matthew's Inn, beginning at 2 o'clock.

"Fish Pond."

Scouters Hold 'Ladies Night' Event Tonight

This evening will be "Ladies County who will hold their annual dinner meeting at 7 o'clock at

New officers of the Orange dis-The program for Rural Progress trict will be installed by Spurgeon tive for the Occoneechee Council. W. D. Campbell of Southern Pines, Council president, will speak brief-tions to the advancement of Scout-

Charles Milner of Chapel Hill. of the county participated.

Paul G. Carr of Hillsboro, district chairman, will preside. James E. Wadsworth of Chapel Hill, district vice chairman, is in charge of arrangements

Tickets for the dinner may be secured from Mr. Wadsworth or from local Scout leaders. Accord-Christmas gifts and food will be ing to Mr. Wadsworth, reservations wiches, pie, soft drinks and cof- on sale, along with some "White must be made in advance, as no