The News of Orange County

KIDD BREWER'S

he the scene of important developments within the will concern the athletic ion and the presidency. . oll produce a raised eyebrow

W RESIDENCE?. . . While a w president of the Greater succeed Gordon nother group is said to be creating sentiment for the residence of the University from Chapel to Raleigh rsince N. C. State, the Uni ty, and Woman's College at ro have been lumped to as the Greater University has been talk of requiring wesident to live in Raleigh igh there is no evidence sich is the case, you will hear complaints that the nt is showing partiality to Chapel Hill unit of the Greatersity if his home is in establishing the residence at "neutral" spot, trustees hope to rid the University and for all of this headache.

EATHER CHANGES. . . You tget the weather people to ich about it for publication they are watching with interatic and weather changes

County area is internationknown for duck-hunting and at wildlife experts say that

Then one suggests that the bombs and the hydrogen along the Atlantic Coast, the ther folks laugh at you. mevertheless, the U.S.

we into North Carolina, of the Welfare. Carolina, and on down the ie fringes to make further s into Hazel, Connie, Diane, their like.

lentime, look for Congressdevelopments before the s and representatives have in Washington for many

. Did you know that the key offices of the naoutstanding farm publicas located here in North

y. You don't have to be old to remember when it was more than a pamphlet. But a heart of purest goldwithin the part ten years in the advertising field flocked to its pages. In the il is regarded as one of hiracles of modern-day pub-about North Carolina," we never overlook - now or han whose shadow it is: Dr.

See ROUNDUP, Page 2)

Sheriff Clayton Heads March Of Dimes Drive

ODELL H. CLAYTON

Welfare Staff Gets One Vote Of Thanks

The Welfare department, its members feel, have to take more criticism from the public than they deserve for their administration of the public assistance law.

Once in a while along comes a case which brightens their day and beyond preventive techniques, and makes them feel their efforts are faith is justified.

time and this payment supplement caps. ed her wages to meet the needs of her children. Later when her case was reviewed her garden had minstance, some of the fin- produced enough to add to her inand in the world down come and her ADC payment was Hide County can be ruined reduced to $53,000 a month. This s virtually gone now because continued to supplement what she talt water, moving in from could do for herself. She is now about hunting and fish- her budget is not due for a review will tell you that the Curri- until February, she wrote the following letter this week which tells the story:

miluck Sound is just one hur- I wish to gave thanks to all of le away" from becoming a the Welfare of Orange County for water sound and our best all of their help what they have n sport, paradise would be did for my childrens and myself. Sure have meant more then a lot the other hand, down the to us all and I can never forget one hundred miles this it. I am glad to say that I have a mas they picked branges, regular job now and I would like down on Cape Hatteras this for you to stop my check which they are harvesting oran you have been so nice in helping papefruit, and tangerines. me with I think that I now have are having something to do enough to take care of us now. I h these radical weather chan- would like to say with all of my heart and soul that the Welfare sure have been a life saver for my er Bureau cannot deny that family and I cannot never gave a crew of experts ready enough thanks to the whole staff

> Many and many thank to every one belongs to the Wellare, 000 others to launch the 1956 March of Dimes on Tuesday, January 3. The campaign, continuing through January 31, is based on the theme - "Polio Isn't Licked

Sheriff O. H. Clayton will serve as chairman for the Hillsboro and northern Orange area for the Hillsboro Lions Club which is the sponsoring group for the drive

Last year's goal was $12,000 for the entire county and it is hoped this can be reached again this year. E. C. Smith of Chapel Hill is the perennial county leader in this

Millions of dollars in March of Dimes funds are needed, these officials say, "to aid thousands and thousands of polio patients for whom the Salk vaccine comes too late. Some 68,000 patients all over the National Foundation, and many more will be stricken before the Salk vaccine is administered to all.

Funds are also needed to continue the National Foundation's work 'in scientific research. That program has already produced the pages of this edition. Salk vaccine, which is 60-90 per cent effective against the three types of virus known to cause polio. Additional research may turn up still better medical weapons. March of Dimes research goes devotes a good deal of time and more wo thwhile when human money to the search for new methods of care and treatment; the polio fund also provides training A 38-year-old Negro widow, with for doctors, nurses and other specfive children applied for Aid to ialists in rehabilitation. This lat-Dependent Children and received ter phase of the program aids-not her first payment of $62,00 a month only polio patients but all those

Sheriff Gives Activity Report

250 gallons mash destroyed, 81/2 gallons non-tax whiskey destroyed, and 66 pints of tax - paid whiskey captured. (To be turned over to County.)

Total of 12 years and 10 months given defendants that were given suspended sentences or placed on $160.34 collected by Sheriff's Dept. for serving civil papers.

County Polio Chapter Gets $6,500 Check From National

As a stopgap measure to meet and usefulness of polio patients this community's acute need for everywhere in the country can be funds to continue care of polio saved.

F. C. Shepard, Chapter Chairman, many of these patients will con-"is an advance supplied by chap-timue to need help, the chapter 1,200 chapters would exhaust the the Progressive Farmer and no state or county lines. Col. quarters to meet patient care bills Shepard said, chapters with funds which the Chapters could not meet have willingly answered the dist themselves. in reliably informed that the tress signals of those operating in hoped that the money we have reof the nation in ad he continued, is one way the March (See POLIO, Page 8) of Dinies assures that the lives in February, 1954. See worked part who suffer from crippling handi-

The report of Sheriff O. H. Clayton to the Board of Commisslowing activities for December: Sixty arrests, 47 civil papers, 9 investigations, 125 subpoenas served on witnessess for Court, one low Caapel Hill around Cariboro still destroyed, 4 raids conducted, to the proposed intersection with Fines and costs given by courts during December, 1955 to defendandts in cases originating from the Sheriff's Dept: $796.75.

Sentences given during December to defendants in cases origregular work and I am earning inating from the Sheriff's Dept. Nine Months.

> Total fees for December, 1955criminal cases cleared and tried $795.75 and civil fees $160.34.

patients a check for $6,500 from . The check received by the March of Dimes headquarters Orange County Chapter will help in New York was received last meet long overdee bills for prowill observe its seventieth week by the Orange County Chap viding treatment and equipment ter of the National Foundation for the eleven polio patients in this area who received assistance. Infantile Paralysis. "This money," explained Col. Col. Shepard predicted that because fers operating in the black. When would be forced to ask for addiit was realized that more than tional funds in the near future. "The financial burden our chap-March of Dimes funds available to ter has had to assume is unfortthem, National Foundation head, unately shared with others," Col. we think of "what is quarters called in funds from chap- Shepard said. "Destitute National Recognizing that polio respects an estimated $6,000,000 from headters which had surpluses.

"Our present situation may be November in January the red to insure the necessary the lot of other comunities next November this year was care of polio patients. Encouraging year", he went on to say. "It is

MARSHALL CATES JR.

Cates, Mauroner Buy Furniture Firm Here

Marshall Cates Jr., a local cil. dealer, and Dr. Norman L. Mauronthe country are now on the rolls of er, physician, have formed a partnership and purchased the Bivins Furniture Company, according to the announcement made yesterday by them and Claude A. Bivins.

Details of the purchase are contained in advertisements on other

Dr. Mauroner will continue his practice and will not be actively associated with the business. Cates will serve as manager while continuing to operate the oil business.

Mrs. Odell Dawkins of Efland will continue to serve the new firm, to be known as C. & M. Furn iture Co., in the capacity of book keeper and salesman, and Lone Mincey has joined the firm as Mr. Bivins has been in semi-retirement from active association with the firm for some time with active management handled by his son, Harold Biyins.

The building, owned by Mr. Bivins, was also involved in the purchase, according to a spokesman for the new firm.

TALK OF BY-PASS

The Board of Commissioners Monday offered to lend some asioners on Tuesday listed the fol- sistance to citizens interested in getting the State to build its projected by-pass_from 15-501 intersection on the Pittsboro road, be Highway 54 near the Old Dr. Lloyd

> The board heard a report that the State had abandoned its efforts to get a 250-foot limited access right-of-way for the project because of opposition of property owners and would now settle for 100-foot right-of-way.

Mystery Farm Of The Week

66 PINTS

The tile on the trap door fitted almost perfectly into the rubber tile squares covering the kitthen floor at Charlie Long's house near Fairview, Hillsboro, last Friday

tially covered by the table and brought up the trap and into which the Sheriff's office charg-

The last time liquor was found at Long's house, his Negro helper who failed to recognize the deputy had to face the charges,

Police Hire Three Women At Chapel Hill

Three women have been hired as school crossing guards and will begin their part-time duties as soon as their uniforms are receiv-

Chapel Hill Police Chief W. T. Sloan said they were Mrs. Bruce B. Martindale, Mrs. Amos Horne. and Mrs. Lattice Vickers. They will & direct traffic before and after school and at the lunch hour each week day during the school year at the crossings by the Elementary Committee for Education has of-School on Cameron Avenue and fered its services in promoting the West Franklin Street and at a forthcoming bond issue election West Franklin Street corner for schools to be held on March 20. the Lincoln and Northside Schools.

quired for this duty.

Sharp-eyed deputies, however, noticed a slight alteration para lift with the sharp knife blade view 66 pints of ABC store liquor ed Long had for the purpose of getting off with a fine and costs.

police patrolmen on the day shift, except the desk sergeant, are re- of the group.

Who Owns This Mystery Farm?

Last week's mystery farm remained a mystery to this office until Friday. Mrs. Robert Earl Hughes of Cedar Grove called and identified it as belonging to them. So for the first time the owner will receive the free year's subscription and also a mounted aerial photo of the place. Several people had told them it was their place but no one called this off ce. The farm is located between Cedar Grove and Carr community 10 miles north vest of Hillsboro. It consists of 36 acres. The original house was built over 100 years ago and is known as the Hughes H meplace. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have two children

Bobby who is 16 years old and Caroline 12 years old. Permament pasture is sowed, some tobacco and small grains grown and beef cattle. We hope you will join many of your friends and neighbors and try to identify this week's mystery farm show above. The first to call our office will receive a free year's subscription to the News and the own will receive a beautiful mounted photograph of

County's 12th Fatal

Accident On Last Day

8-Year-Old Boy Hit Saturday On 70-A; 56 Injured In Area

1955 Accident Toll Is High

A fatal automobile accident on the last day of the year, which the county, brought Orange Coun-Hillsboro yesterday. ty's fatal acoddent record to an even dozen for 1955.

behind a parked car near Shambley's service station. The child, son of Charles Edward Davis Sr. and Mrs. Marian Wright King, died enroute to the hospital.

Atkinson told investigating officers he did not see the child until he was five feet from him. A preliminary hearing on a charge of manslaughter will be held in Recorder's Court at Hillsboro next

The child lived with his grandof Rt. 1, Mebane, ther survivors include his parents, Charles Edward Davis Sr., and Mrs. Marian Wright King; two half-sisters, Mary Lynn Davis and Sandra K. King, license had been revoked both of Burlington; one half-brother, Sammy King, of Burlington: a maternal great-grandfather, J. R. Davis of Swepsonville; a maternal great-grandfather, S. C. Price of

Funeral prvices were held Monday from the Mebane Tabernacle Baptist Church, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. Clyde Darnell. Interment was in Oakwood Ceme

OFFER ELECTION HELP

The Orange County Citizens

The Commissioners were noti-At the present time all of the fied of this in a letter Monday signed by Mrs. Iris Cates, secretary

Northern Orange's Traffic Toll Cost

Commissioners Name

Hobbs For New Term

$63,520 In Property Orange County tallied 12 fatal accidents during the year 1955, acbrought the death of a child pe- cording to a tabulation from the destrian in the western edge of office of the Highway Patrol in began for the five present mem-

by the three members of Hillsboro Charles Edward Davis Jr., 8, of patrol office, injuries occurred to Route 1, Mebane, was struck by a 56 persons in 28 of the accidents. bid of the Melville Insurance 1955 Chevrolet driven by Cary At. The remainder of the 84 miskinson of Route 1, Wendell, on haps were injury-free but a total bidders for the bond which gives Highway 70-A about 10 a.m. Satur- of $63,520 in estimated property day morning when he darted from damage was recorded on the 124 on each employee. Bonds on many reports.

ident near Mebane in Orange County on the final day and the ing under the influence after he about the change of policy. left the scene without giving notiparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis High Point man was driver of the chairman and members upon his

In another traffic case on Mon-

Hillsboro Boys Lose But Girls Top Chapel Hill

Chapel Hill High boys scored night, turning back-Hillsboro High guard, Clyde Campbell, may have County administrative units. suffered a wrist fracture in a spill He collieded with Pet Oakley of Hillsboro, falling on his wrist, Cambpell sustained a fracture. Oakley was jarred up. high for the Chapel Hill boys.

while Campbell had 10 when he was injured. Garland Spangler tallied 11 for the Hillsboro five. Hillsboro's girls won 61-40 with Jane Forrest dropping in 43 points.

The lineups: GIRLS' GAME

Chapel Hill (40) . Hillsboro (61) F Hackney, 13 Forrest, 43 F Fitch, 12 Beck F Royster, 4 Williams, 6 G Vaugnap Blake G Shepard Swainey G Yeager Miller Subs : Chapel Hill-Greenwood 9. Proctor 2. Evans. Hillsboro-Strayhorn 4, Brown 3, Carr, Graham. Jones, Latta, Davis, Kenyon. "Score at half: Hillsboro (40);

Chapel Hill (17)

BOYS GAME Hillsboro (28) Chapel Hill (52) F Spangler, 11 Clark, 4 F Roberts, 4 Swinker, 3 C Forrest, 3 Neville. C Forrest, 3 Neville, 12 G Gattis, 2 Blackwell.5 G Oakley, 4 Campbell, 10 Subs.: Chapel Hill - Goodrich, Weaver 8, Cheek, Poe 2, Dosher 6, Smith 2. Teague. Hillsboro-Barnes 2. William, Dickey 2, Shambley. Kennedy, Knight, Reinhardt, Craw-

Score at half: Chapel Hill (23); & o'clock. Hillsboro (15).

Edwin Latta, "Ogedanke Farm", Schley, had surveys made recently for broad base terraces for better protection of some of his fields from soil and water loss.

Blanket Bond Is Bought For All Employees

The Orange County board of strength after a five months absence by one member, reelected its chairman for another year Monday and bought a blanket bond to cover all of the 34 county em-chairman's election was made retroactive to December 5th, when the second year in office hers. The matter failed to come up Of the 124 accidents investigated at the December meeting because all hands just plain forgot it.

The commissioners accepted the Agency of Mebane, one of three $5,000 protection for the county employees have been allowed to The year ended with a fatal ac lapse during the past year when only bonds on the elected officials as required by law were continued first day of the New Year brought under the theory that these offiat least one minor accident when cers were responsible for their astwo cars collided on Highway 70 sistants and additional bonds were north of Hillsboro about 11 a.m. only duplications and an unnecess-Roy Brooks of Route 2 was ary expense. Recent pressure from charged with hit and run and driv- some elected officials brought Commissioner Sim Effand's refication as required by law. A turn drew a handshake from the arrival from a near 5-months absence in Texas which never was day, Lloyd Oakley of Cedar Grove explained officially to the board. was charged with driving after his Except for one or two sidelight references by Efland; his long absence was not alluded to by the membership.

The condition of the jail continued to traw the attention of the Commissioners. The board looked over estimates of plumbing improvements, $98, and screens, $18, and called for more estimates on converting two rooms to meet State specifications for temporary care of mental cases an juveniles.

A formal resolution calling for their second straight Eastern the sale of $34,000 in school bonds Class AA District Three victory of was approved. This is the amount the young season here Tuesday which the board may issue this year without a vote of the people and was included in the budget But it might have been a costly last year, giving an even split be victory since Chapel Hill's starting tween the Chapel Hill and Orange

Reports of several county officials, the white and Negro Home Demonstration Agents and the Negro County Agent, were heard, and early, indications were that a request that citizens list their taxes at their township listing places instead of the Tax Supervis-Gordon Neville's 12 points were or5s office was voted, and several road petitions were received to round out the meeting.

re-elected chairman

VFW Election Set Tonight

Officers for the Hillsboro Veterans of Foreign War for the new year will be elected when it meets in the Old Courthouse tonight at

All members are urged to attend and bring as many new mem-

Ralph Riddick, commander of the sixth district will be present. The Post will be instituted at its