

OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Andrews of Route One observed their 50th wedding anniversary yesterday afternoon at the home of their son, J. B. Andrews, in the Antioch Community. Several hundred persons attended the reception and cake-cutting.

Mr., Mrs. W. R. Andrews Have Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Reldue Andrews of the Antioch Community (Route One) celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Sunday afternoon with a reception and cake-cutting, given by their sons, James, Clyde, and Exie Andrews. The receiving line for the New Year's Day celebration was composed of members of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews' wedding at the nearby Antioch Baptist Church on Decem-

Miss Crawford And Mr. Strowd Are Married In Orange Chapel

The Orange Chapel Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding at 4 p.m. Christmas Day of Miss Shipley Ann Crawford of Chapel Hill and John Wayne Strowd of Pittsboro. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dameron Crawford of Route 1, Chapel Hill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sidney Strowd of Route 1, Pittsboro.

The Rev. Daniel D'Sain of Graham officiated using the double-ring ceremony. Music was presented by Miss Rebecca Crawford, pianist, of Chapel Hill, and Miss Viola Perry, soloist, of Graham.

The church was decorated with woodwardia fern and palms, white flowers in floor baskets and white candles in wrought iron candelabra. White ribbons and flowers marked the family pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon tulle and lace made with a fitted bodice of lace, high neckline and long fitted sleeves ending in calla points over the wrists. The full skirt of nylon tulle featured a lace peplum extending in a full court train. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a coronet of matching lace and seed pearl. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white ribbons and white roses. She wore white pearl earrings, a gift of the bride-

James Andrews also held the guest register.

The dining room table was decorated with a centerpiece of bronze magnolia leaves and a twin-branch candelabra. A miniature bride and groom graced the top of the three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Andrews, the former Fannie Jo Ann Smith, is the daughter of James and DeLilah Andrews Smith. Mr. Andrews' parents were Berry and Martha Morris Andrews. Both are natives of the Antioch Community and their three children now live nearby on Route One, Chapel Hill.

MRS. JOHN WAYNE STROWD, brother of the bride, of Chapel Hill; Jack W. Crawford, uncle of Pittsboro, and Tommy Glosson, cousin of the groom, was the bride, of Graham; Jimmy Poe, of Pittsboro. Teddy Lingerfelt, a bearer.

Hillsboro Hi Notes

By Hilda Strayhorn

School opened Monday morning after seven days of Christmas vacation. Everyone had an enjoyable vacation, some going out of town for a few days.

Margaret Wagner visited relatives in Florida, Joy Carr visited her grandmother in Cherryville, Knox Jones spent Christmas Day in Greensboro, and Garland Spangler attended a dance in Charlotte.

Thursday night the Beta Club had a party honoring Beta members who have graduated. Several of the college members attended, and those present enjoyed dancing and talking together since most of them hadn't see each other since school started.

The Beta Club held its January meeting at Merle Mitchell's home with Cynthia Smith as co-hostess. Sonny Williams also served as host. Nine members were present.

Monday, two television sets were placed in our school. During the sixth period, the seventh through the twelfth grades watched the Orange Bowl game.
