

Mystery Farm Of The Week

Who Owns This Mystery Farm?

Last week's Mystery farm only brought one phone call. William C. Dorsett of Efland called on Friday and identified it as belonging to Joseph Rice. His home is located in the western part of the county in Cheeks Township. The owner has not come by the office to claim his picture. Is the farm above yours? The first to identify it will receive a free year's subscription to The News of Orange County. The owner will receive a beautifully mounted photo of the picture above, courtesy of this news paper.

Lanier, Efland Call Runoffs For 2 Posts

A second primary run-off to select Democratic nominees for the State Senate and one seat on the Board of County Commissioners was assured this week. Edwin S. Lanier filed his notice with the Board of Elections Saturday night that he would oppose John T. Manning on June 23. Both live in Chapel Hill.

Sim L. Efland of Efland exercised his right on Monday to challenge Donald M. Stanford of Chapel Hill to a second runoff. Manning led Lanier in the first primary by 257 votes; Stanford led Efland by 320 votes.

Good Vote Seen
The prospect of a good turnout in the second vote is thus likely. Traditionally northern rural Orange votes heavier in run-off elections than does Chapel Hill. Carrboro, which can generally equate the ballots of the remainder of the County. However with both of the Senate candidates being from Chapel Hill, and one of the Commissioner post seekers being both a city and rural man (Stanford), the overall interest in the vote should be heavier than in the past.

The balloting on May 26 gave Manning 2,025, Lanier with 1,773, and Edwin J. Hamlin with 1,362. Mr. Lanier was high man in eight precincts, Hamlin led in five, and Manning led in six. In the CH-Carrboro precincts the vote was as follows: Lanier—1,468; Manning 1,316; and Hamlin—280. However, Mr. Manning's greater totals in the heavier voting precincts of the County put him in the lead for his race.

None of the candidates eliminated in the commissioner and Senate races have given their backing publicly to those remaining. Mr. Stanford was 97 votes shy of the necessary 2,283 in his race to win nomination. He got 2,199 votes to 1,879 for Efland, and 1,869 for Hugh Wilson.

Following are statements issued this week by three of the candidates in connection with the runoff:
Lanier's statement
"In the Orange County Democratic Primary on May 26 no nomination for State Senator was made. The high candidate received 39.2 percent of the total votes cast.

"As the second high candidate with 34.3 percent of the votes cast, it is my privilege and duty to consider the advisability of calling for a second primary election. This I have tried to do thoroughly and objectively.

"Whoever serves as a representative of the people should feel and know that he is the choice of the majority who express themselves at the ballot box. That's what I'm here for. (See SECOND PRIMARY, page 8)

Commissioners Act To Limit Members To Two Per Township

School Board Gives Approval To New Budget

The Board of Education gave approval at its meeting on Monday to its budget for the next fiscal year to be presented to the Commissioners at an early meeting. The new budget calling for expenditures of $277,373.50 represents a proposed increase of $27,413 over last year's.

Broken down, current expenses would total $98,171, capital outlay $115,855 and debt service $63,347.50.

The board authorized the purchase of venetian blinds for the Cameron Park School and approved contracts with the W. M. Russ Company for the annual audit of the accounts of the Board and the individual schools.

A policy statement conforming closely to the county government conditions of employment relative to vacations, leaves, hours, etc. was adopted by the board to apply to secretarial help in the board's offices.

Additional fees for Architect Archie R. Davis in connection with the Cameron Park School were approved: 5% of $8,608.20 representing contract purchase of lunchroom equipment and $159 actual cost of redesign work on the school heating system as approved by the board.

Senter Named Governor Of Lions District

Lloyd Senter, Carrboro druggist and present deputy district Governor of Lions District 31-G, was elected unanimously as Lions District Governor at the State Convention Tuesday at Carolina Beach.

Senter has been one of the area's most active Lions and has held virtually all club, zone and district offices during his active experience in Lionism.

His work and enthusiasm is given a large share of credit toward making the Carrboro club one of the most active in the State and winner of the top activity award at the convention.

Bernard Whitfield, immediate past president of the Carrboro club, will be Senter's cabinet secretary during his tenure as the district's top Lion.

W.E. Thompson, Others Appear On Proposal

The Board of County Commissioners, voting 4 to 0 with the chairman abstaining, passed a resolution Monday approving a legislative act to limit the board membership to two from any one township serving at the same time.

The resolution was introduced near the close of the meeting by Commissioner Sim Efland, who pressed for action at that time. Commissioner Henry S. Walker provided a second and Commissioners Dwight Ray and Edwin S. Lanier added affirmative votes.

Chairman R. J. M. Hobbs sought unsuccessfully to delay action in order to have a public hearing on the question, but all of his colleagues were ready to act at that time and over-rode his objection to speedy action.

The board's action followed the appearance of a number of Chapel Hill and Hillsboro leaders earlier in the day recommending such action on the part of the Commissioners.

W. E. Thompson, executive vice president of the Bank of Chapel Hill, making his first appearance before the Commissioners in his 33 year experience in Chapel Hill, urged that membership be limited to not more than two from each township "in the interest of justice and equity."

He said such an arrangement "will work for harmony in the county and in the long run give us better county government." He emphasized that he was not dissatisfied with the service of anyone on the board but thought it would be the part of wisdom to pass such legislation.

Appearing also in behalf of the proposed limitation was Representative John W. Umstead, County Democratic Chairman R. O. Forrest and Owen S. Robertson. They reiterated Mr. Thompson's endorsement of the plan, citing the desire for more equitable representation.

Efland's original resolution in addition to calling for a limitation of two per township also asked for a limitation on the length of time a commissioner might serve on the board consecutively to two full terms. Commissioner Walker seconded this move also but Commissioners Ray and Lanier declined to go along on this limitation.

An attempt was made to limit the representation per township on the board several years ago during the discussions prior to adoption of the 5-man board, but it failed at that time.

GUEST MINISTER
The Reverend Bernard Boyd, head of the Department of Religion at the University of North Carolina, will be guest minister at the Hillsboro Presbyterian Church this Sunday.

Dr. Boyd is returning to this pulpit which he has filled on numerous previous occasions. Always extraordinary in preaching power he is well known throughout the South for his teaching and preaching.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Caldwell Talk Set Saturday At St. Mary's

Harry B. Caldwell, Master of North Carolina State Grange, will be the speaker of the evening at St. Mary's Grange Hall on Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Caldwell, who is a nationally-known agricultural leader, will speak on some current aspects of agriculture. He is a dynamic speaker and never fails to interest his audience.

The occasion is the fourth Farm and Home Efficiency meeting for the St. Mary's Community and it begins with Mr. Caldwell's address. Following this, homemade ice cream and cake will be served by the St. Mary's ladies.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

James Allred Succumbs Here Tuesday Night

James P. Allred, 42, died suddenly here Tuesday night following a coronary attack. A veteran of World War II, Mr. Allred had been in poor health for several years. Death came en route to a Durham hospital following the attack.

Funeral rites will be held at the First Baptist Church at 4:30 today.

Mr. Allred came to Hillsboro 14 years ago and has made his home here since then. During World War II he was held a prisoner of war in Germany for 18 months while serving with the Army.

He was a deacon of the First Baptist Church of Hillsboro and was employed by Southern Parts Company in Durham.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Miriam Walker Allred; one son, James Perry Allred Jr. of the home.

ANTI-RACING MEET
The Anti-Racing Association will meet at the Cross Road Baptist Church located on the Orange Grove Road Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

KIDD BREWER'S
Raleigh Roundup

Next to the last weeks of the year—December 15 through December 31—period from July 23 to August 31 is, year after year, one of the quietest of the white months around Raleigh. Everybody has blown the coop on vacation, gone home to the folks, gone out of town to the mountains, to the coast.

Year after year, alas, it will be different. The Legislature in town, everybody else will be here, too, and with the temperature in the high during the latter part of the year and the first part of the year frequently around 100—no shade—and with no air conditioning in the House or the Senate, it is extremely difficult for the General Assembly to attend to its business. It has to segregate the problem as it does in education in North Carolina.

Heartily commend Governor Hodges for the date chosen for the special session. We think it conducive for speedy action.

WANTING NO SECOND
... though there wasn't too much politicking going on this year when compared with us election years—it seemed as if it was enough to suit everybody. At least, it seemed as if everybody we talked to last week there would not be a second primary on a Statewide basis. They just didn't seem to be bothered with it.

RIGHT ... And, put this down: they do have local elections or another primary, as they call it, the vote is to be extremely light. The vote will depend upon the usual, but there is never a test of a candidate's strength in the second primary there was in the first. We seen some hot ones in this year—as when Kerr Scott beat Charles Johnson and Willis defeated Dr. Frank Graham.

the Scott set-to, he got a lot of strength which had gone to Albright in the first round; in the Smith-Graham race, it was deuced wild in the end with Bob Reynolds' high swinging to Smith—and flying in all directions.

ONEY ... And, another thing consider is that second prize cost the State a lot of money—and the man who asks usually gets the blame for extra expense. In all, second primaries usually, odd, twisted things, no holds barred, with no follow, with no forms to true.

EXCEPT ABC ... Latest show that only in the of alcoholic beverages from stores is North Carolina less falling behind that of other states. April, bank debts were up than ten per cent over the month last year. Building were up about one per cent. New corporations chartered running better than 15 per cent over April of 1955—and even car registration were approximately eight per cent. Agricultural employment was up 70 per cent.

whiskey sales were down per cent—or thereabouts—ABC Chief Tom Allen, a teetotaler who apparently knows his numbers, says April of 1955 ran about 10 per cent better than the 1955 April and only a little better in the 1956 ditto. (See ROUNDUP, Page 2)
