Circles Pay Farewell Courtesy To Mrs. Shue

The three Circles of the Women of the Methodist Church honored Mrs. Thomas Shue at a farewell party last Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5:30 o'clock in the Taylor Bivins home.

Mrs. Shue was presented a corsage on arrival.
Guests were invited into the dining room where the table was covered with a lace table cloth and centered with an arrangement of American Beauty Roses and gardenias. Other beautiful floral arrangements were placed throughout the house.

The guest of honor was presented a book entitled "Day by Day."

Mrs. H. W. Moore served pound cake and others assisting with the serving of homemade ice cream were: Mrs. Van Kenion, Mrs. Bivins, Mrs. Bob Forrest, Mrs. H. S. Baucom and Mrs. Garland Miller.

There were approximately 30 guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Shue are planning to move to Adel, Ga., around the first of July.

VISITING

Mrs. W. M. Mitchell and daughter, Dorothy, left last Thursday for New Orleans, La. and from there will go to Houston and San Antonio, Texas to visit with Mrs. Mitchell's three daughters and families. While on this trip they will visit points of interest in the west and Mexico and plan on returning to their home here the first of August.

Pre-Nuptial Parties For Rosemond-Hunt Couple Are Held

A cake cutting Friday evening and a wedding breakfast Saturday brought to a close the round of parties that preceded the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Mary Frances Rosemond and Dr. Richard Frederick Hunt Jr.

Cake Cutting

The cake cutting followed the wedding rehearsal and was given by Mrs. Ben Johnston.

A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out. Miss Rosemond was presented a corsage of white carnations upon arrival and members of the wedding party pulled the charms from a miniature wedding cake.

Miss Rosemond was presented a gift of crystal by the hostess.

Mrs. Sam Gattis poured punch and Mrs. Jack Snipes, Mrs. Kay Winecoff and Mrs. Doris Eskridge assisted in serving.

A program of music was presented by Mr. Bill Warren and Jim Rogers.

Miss Rosemond's gifts were displayed in the den.

Wedding Breakfast

Mrs. W. M. Baldwin Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Rosemond and Mrs. Bob Rosemond entertained at a wedding breakfast Saturday morning at the Colonial Inn for Miss Rosemond and Dr. Hunt.

A color scheme of lavender and white was carried out with place cards and flower arrangements.

The bride and groom's place was marked by miniature bridal slippers. The bride-elect was presented a corsage of pink carnations.

There were 34 people attending, which included members of the party, relatives of the immediate families and the following out-of-town guests: Mrs. T. I. Bryant and daughter, Gloria of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Louie R. Kersh of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. R. Leon Jenkins of Rocky Mount.

Miss Rosemond and Dr. Hunt were married Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the First Baptist Church of Hillsboro.

ON TOUR

MRS. RICHARD FREDERICK HUNT JR.

Miss Rosemond Weds Air Force Dentist; Will Live In Alaska

The First Baptist Church here was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Frances Rosemond and Dr. Richard Frederick Hunt Jr., last Saturday.

The Rev. A. K. Cheek, assisted by Dr. Charles E. Maddy, officiated.

Nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Robert F. Warren, organist, and Jim Rogers of Tabor City, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with a sheer yoke, featuring a fitted bodice of French lace, bouffant tiered skirt of pleated tulle and lace extending into a circular train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a handmade cap of Belgium lace, which was brought from Belgium by the bridegroom's mother. She carried a prayer book topped with white orchid and sprays of white ivy.

Mrs. W. M. Baldwin of Kingsport, Tenn., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of petal pink with an old rose cummerbund. She carried a nosegay of white carnations, pink angel feathers and net, tied with ribbon to match her gown.

Bridemaids were Miss Joyce Rosemond, sister of the bride, Mrs. Terry Beasley of Durham, Mrs. Kenneth W. Rosemond, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Oliver Watkins of Chapel Hill. They wore ballerina length dresses of ice blue nylon organdy cummerbunds of royal blue. They carried nosegays of white carnations.

Miss Debora Jo Rosemond, niece of the bride of Clinton, was flower girl.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Douglas Hunt, brother of the bridegroom, Alvin Hooks of Rocky Mount, Dr. John W. Girard and Kenneth Rosemond, brother of the bride of Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Rosemond wore for her daughter's wedding a street-length sheath dress of ice-blue lace over taffeta, matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in an ensemble of navy lace and chiffon and wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. The guests were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Sam

Gattis III and were directed to tables by Mrs. Jack Snipes, Mrs. T. I. Bryant, aunt of the groom, cut the cake and punch was poured by Mrs. Ben Johnston and Mrs. Marvin Phelps, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Robert L. Rosemond presided at the bride's book and the good-byes were said to Mrs. Kay Winecoff. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Herman Strayhorn, Mrs. Curtis Scott, Mrs. Marian Hicks, Miss Ruth Privette and Miss Lois Privette.

For traveling the bride wore a blue sheath dress with a matching duster and accessories and a white orchid, which was lifted from her prayer book.

After a wedding trip to Nags Head, the couple will go to Anchorage, Alaska, for one year.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. T. I. Bryant and daughter, Gloria, and Mrs. Louie R. Kersh of Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Leon Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sides, Mrs. C. L. Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. G. Edgar Joyner, Miss Lenore Ann Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Cable, Mr.

and Mrs. Lyman Melvin and Jim Leggett of Rocky Mount.

Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Evans, Dr. and Mrs. Tom LaSalle, Dr. and Mrs. Walt Linville, Dr. E. P. Williams, Dr. John Dixon, Dr. Kermit Knudtson and David Hinkle of Chapel Hill.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Poindexter, Mrs. L. L. Pettite and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snipes of Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Babcock of North Wilkesboro and Miss Virginia Bonney of New York City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard Rosemond of Hillsboro. She is a graduate of the Watts Hospital School of Nursing, and was employed for two years at N. C. Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill and in the state of Washington.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. R. Frederick Hunt of Rocky Mount. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina Dental School and is now a captain in the Dental Corps of the U. S. Air Force, stationed in Anchorage, Alaska.

RETURN

Miss Henrietta Brown, Joyce Carr and Renaldia Beattie spent last week at Camp New Hope attending the Senior Presbyterian Camp.

RICHARD F. MAURONER

Dr. and Mrs. N. L. Mauroner of W. Union Street announce the birth of a son, Richard Franklin, born at Watts Hospital on Tuesday. Baby Richard weighed 8 lbs. and 11 ozs. at birth. The Mauroners have two other sons and one daughter.

Homecoming At Damascus Set July 8

The annual Homecoming Day will be observed at Damascus Congregational Church on Sunday, July 8, with the dedication of the recently completed Sunday school addition to the church being the main feature of the morning service.

The Rev. J. E. McCauley will bring the dedicatory address. The Rev. O. D. Poythress dedicatory solo, and the Rev. Leary Poythress the dedicatory prayer. Damascus feels proud to claim these three men as it's boys who have gone out and proclaimed God's Word through the years. The Rev. E. M. Powell, pastor, will also have a part in the morning service.

Lunch will be served at the noon hour and every one is cordially invited to come and share the great day of fellowship.

The afternoon service will feature special music and short talks from former pastors.

The following is a list of former pastors dating back to 1920. The list is in order of their service.

The Rev. B. J. Howard; John Carden, deceased; Guy H. Veasey; Carl Bradey; B. J. Howard, (second time); W. J. Andes; R. T. Grisson; W. A. Grisson; E. M. Carter; R. G. Ritchie; G. C. Crutchfield; J. D. Halley; William Rich and E. M. Powell.

The Rev. J. E. McCauley will be the evangelist the following week for the annual revival.
