Hester Caldwell Class Observes 8th Anniversary

The Hester Caldwell Sunday School of the First Baptist Church held its eighth anniversary party last Friday night at the Colonial Inn.

Upon entering the lobby the name of a distinguished person was pinned on the back of each lady. The conversation was kept going by the asking of questions with an answer of yes or no. This kept going until all arrived for the meal at 7 o'clock.

The honored guest of the evening was Mrs. Hester Caldwell, for whom the class was named.

Upon entering the dining room Mrs. Frank Ray pinned a beautiful corsage of white asters on Mrs. Caldwell, a gift from the class.

Mrs. B. S. Carr, class teacher, aid grace and the ladies were then served a meal of fried chicken, candied yams, string beans, pineapple salad, coffee, rolls and ice cream by Miss Margaret Riley and Mrs. Bertha Crawford.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Ray presented Mrs. Caldwell a beautiful milk glass bowl that can be used in many ways, another gift of the class.

Mrs. Earl Byrd and Mrs. James Rippe were in charge of the games for the evening and the ladies enjoyed every minute of the evening. The party ended by singing one verse of the class song, "Blest Be the Tie."

The following were present: Mesdames, C. A. Caldwell, B. S. Carr, Bruce Cresson, Earl Byrd, James Rippe, Bill Brewer, Frank Ray, Dwight Walters, Carl Swainey and Bill Kennedy.
