range County The News of Orange County with the news the county by NEWS of HILLSBORD AND CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1957 Hundreds Attend First County Soil Supervisors Win DD BREWER'S Raleiqh Roundup Health Fair In County First In Finer Farms Contest

BOARDS .... North ially got a new reguast week with the apthe Real Estate est pieces of lobbying anybody anywhere by one Hathaway ng this one through ion of the Legislature. time the real estate pted to set up a lito protect the publick real estate 'tradble she-bang collapsed s. Let's hope this one week indeed around me licensing board or n't walk the headlines airlanes. We have a se bodies now- and the making to Pro-

KUS . . The recent foreign doctors in our itals threw the pubht on the State Board Examiners. The Sanbelieves we may need shall we say-regulate rth Carolina needs to tral authority over all licensing boards. The niners, until they backmonstrated a failure their responsibility to as to profession. We nt that the licensing some of the other prod other trades are row in outlook."

DTEL .... ... Charlotte, ar-old Barringer Hotel ngest-and one of the the Carolinas is slated with a three-millionultra hotel-motel build-promoters was in Raweek interesting local the enterprise. It will ng room facilities for people: a landing port ters. Cost is expected

Boy Scouts, Efland Troop, apply emergency first aid to an accident "victim"

Chief J. S. Boone, Chapel Hill Fire Department, explains the control of the three classes of fires likely to be encountered in the home and on the farm.

Dale Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wifey Perry, Orange Grove,

and Cynthia Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker,

St. Mary's, 4-H King and Queen.

of Health.

Noah R. Swainey, 54, of Hillsboro tied in Duke Hospital Wednesday

And Queen Crowning Are Program Features

Several hundred people turned out for the Buckhorn Health Fair Saturday afternoon to see nearly half a hundred exhibits of personal and public health and safety measures in the first health, fair ever held in this part of the state. Even the weatherman cooperated the fair visitors watched an after- uled to arrive on October_1. noon of demonstrations on the Miss Geraldine Fossum, a native Grange grounds.

North Carolina.

tivities

fire control. Nancy Roberts, 4-H Hanover and Moore Counties. Club District winner, presented lege, demonstrated some of the hazards of careless tractor operation. The Efland Boy Scouts gave a demonstration of emergency first aid, and John Ballard, Hillsboro Fire Department, explained the ise of the department's resuscita-

Gate prizes were denated by the geliable Furplture Fore, Melanes Dairy Bar, Chapel Hill.

Deputy Roberts Finds,

Two New Staff Town-Wide Sale Members Join To Open Today Welfare Dept.

Two new workers have joined the with comfortable temperatures and staff of the Orange County Welfare grounds neither wet or dusty as Department and another is sched-of Miami, Fla., who has been em-The Fair was sponsored by the ployed by the State of Florida Wel-Buckhorn Grange and the Com- fare Department, assumed her dumunity Advisory Board of the ties with the department as a case Orange County Blue Ribbon Farm worker assistant, specializing in and Home Program, with the as- child welfare work, Monday. She sistance of the School of Public received her training at Mars Hill Health Education, University of College in North Carolina and Southwestern College at Houston, Texas.

The crowning of Dale Perry and Her professional experience also in-Cynthia Walker as 4-H Health cludes a year of work in Louisiana. King and Queen by Dr. J. T. Mrs. Rachet Athas Selim, who Hughes, N. C. State Board of resides on old Highway 86, between Health opened the afternoon's ac. Hillsboro and Chapel Hill, joined the staff as a case worker assistant,

Chapel Hill Fire Department specializing in general welfare work, Chief J. S. Boone followed with a on July 1. She is a graduate of discussion and demonstration of UNC and has had experience in New her winning Dairy Food demon- ployed by the Randolph County Welstration. J. S. Ferguson, of the fare Department, will become a Official Dies Agricultural Engineering Depart- case worker assistant with the loment, North Carolina State Col. cal department on October 1.

> Rifle Firing Just Misses

> > f of the fine and costs.

Being Serious Store. Mebane; Long Meadow Court here Monday after a bul- Pope of Cedar Grove. Dairies; Southern Dairies; and the let from their rifle barely missed most a mile away.

Three County Communities Also Winners Orange County's Supervisors of he Neuse River Soil Conservation

For Quick, proven resu sell, buy, rent or get a in

on Page 11 of The NEW

of Orange County.

TWELVE PAGES THIS ISSUE

Today, tomorrow and Saturday District won first place and $250 will be town-wide sale days in in the Carolina Power and Light Company's Finer Farms Contest, it Merchants are joining in spon-was learned today. soring the special sales event. St. Mary's Community, Jordan which has been designated as a Grove Community, and Buckhorn Town-Wide End of Summer Sale. Community won Superior Results Many merchants are featuring Awards and cash prizes of $50 each. both summer clearance merchan-Supervisors of Orange County are dise and newly arrived Fall items Henry S. Hogan, Calvander; C. W. and officials of the Merchants As-Stanford, White Cross, and Reid sociation report there will be a Roberts, St. Mary's. large variety of bargains in all cat-

For outstanding work in the conegories to interest the buying test Henry S. Hogan, Chairman, was awarded $50 in the Supervisors They urge citizens throughout classification.

the area to take advantage of this This is the third year the Carolina special event to get ready for Fall Power and Light Company has sponand the back-to-school movement, sored the Finer Farms contest. The and to trade at home in progresscontest area includes sixty-one counties in North and South Caro> lina This is the second year Orange County communities have participated in the contest. Jordan Grove last year won a Superior Results award. .The contest is based on the con servation established and maintain-

16 In Calaboose ed in the participating communi-

"We are interested in Finer Farms." officials of the Carolina Power and Light Company an-He was the son of the late Bunn tion last weekend at High Rock nounce, "because we believe that Church in Cedar Grove township, our future is the future of the area we serve. As the farmer prospers Each participating community's (See FINER FARMS, Page 6)

CLAUDE T. POPE . . . passes at 57 Claude Pope, Miss Caroline Nicholson, now em- Popular County

Claude T. Pope, 57, Cedar Grove tobacco farmer and a member of the Board of Orange County Com-Religion and booze apparently missioners, died at Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill Sunday night proved a potent mixture at the Negro Primitive Baptist Associaafter a short illness.

T. and Annie Smith Pope. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. The Sheriff's department, aug-

Pauline Pope; two sons, Claude mented, by two Negro police of through better farming; so do we." Jr. and Franklin Pope; two daugh- ficers from Chapel Hill on Specters. Susan and Polly Ann Pope, ial Duty and members of the a Durham collège boys were all of the home: two brothers. J. State. Highway Patrol. arrested no The Mebane Company: Rexall Drug fined $10 and costs in County Hal Pope of Durham and Dewey Jess than 16 attenders Saturday night during the height of the Funeral services were held Tues- festivities. hitting Mrs. Bobby Hornbuckle day afternoon at 3 o'clock from Charges ranged from illegal and her daughter in their home al the Cedar Grove Methodist Church possession to public drunkenness. by the Rev. O. V. Elkins and the driving while drunk and carrying public.

Hillsboro.

ive local stores.

Church Event

In Area Puts

neighborhood of

hear more about it ect develops.

RSHIPS .... The Travel North Carolina, chosen uther Hodges as sponncy for the Anti-Litterign launched in July is nemberships aign-began August 15 lividual. $10; business. ry or small-association. rger industries and as $100 per year. more of Southern Pines , with Ray Galloway of membership chairman. et. Raleigh newspapercretary-treasurer.

TO DUKE . . . We good authority this past hat Duke University has and aggressively pleade editorials and other the late Santford Mareir entirety.

regarded as quite a coup University library offi- every other North Carolina county. lew of the fact that Maralumnus of Wake For-place at the following places: e. Our information is Farmers Exchange, Hillsboro; asked first-and hardest. Walker Milling Co., Hillsboro; A.S.C. editor of the Winston-Office, - Hillsboro, County Agents urnal for more than 40 at the age of 70 last Office Hilfsboro; Forrest & Forand the late J. M. rest, Efland; Graham's Filling Sfaand retiring Federal tion, Efland; High Rock Service on J. Hayes were class- Station, Efland; Bradshaw's Filling Wake Forest 50 years ago. Station. Buckhorn; Dorsett's Store, Fairfield; Compton's Store, Carr;

SHOW . . . You older Burton's Store, Carr: Giles Long's ddle-aged and up, and Store, Cedar Grove; Villines' Sertoo, for that matter, will vice Station. Rt. 2, Hillsboro; Murmovie now making the ray's Store, Caldwell; R. M. Hill's Store, St. Mary's; Watkins' Store,

e: "An Affair to Remem- | St. Mary's; Whitfield's Service Stayers are Cary Grant and tion, White Cross; Tapp's Store, New Hope: Snipes's Kerr, no kin to the Haw Store, Orange Grove; Hawkins's Durham Kerr's, but a Service Station, Kennedys; Coy ess . . Just the same. Long's Station, Cedar Grove; Farmof sentiment in the show. ers Exchange. Carrboro; Andrewsen will leave it dabbing Riggsbee, Carrboro; Schley Comeyes a little with their munity Store. Schley; Hawkins lefs. Some good tunes. Store, Hurdle Mills; Cole's Service of which, "Tomorrowtop-drawer stuff. You Station, Hurdle Mill; Negro County Agents, Hillsboro; Jack Long's Service Station, Carrboro, ROUNDUP, Page 7).

State Highway Dept. for a number of years and a member of the West Hillsboro Baptist Church. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary, Swainey: two sons, C. M. Swainey of Aberdale and Walter of the home; three daughters, Mrs. R. C. Osborne of Ducham, Mrs. Peggy Waddell and Mrs. Ann Qakley of, Hillsboro;

his mother, Mrs. Ellen Swainey of Asheboro; four sisters, Mrs. Flonie, Anderson of New Jersey, Mrs. Yuthel Dawkins and Mrs, Etta Wishum of High Point, Mrs. Gladys

Peel of Ashboro; two brothers, Charlie and William of Asheboro. Funeral arrangements have not been completed

28 Polling Places Announced For Use

vote on this important issue on ex-

1957

Destroys Big Still Single-Handedly

Deputy Sheriff W. Rainey Roberts, veteran county officer, conducted a one-man still raid on Sunday, a week ago, capturing and destroying a large outfit single-handedly. Deputy Roberts, the department's oldest officer by a generation, said he saw no need to call for assistance in cutting down 11" boxes of mash which contained 4,400 gallons being readied to run, and the 180 gallon boiler type steam outfit.

There were no operators at the site in Little River Township, just off the Guess Road, said Roberts.

The funds collected, 5 cents per-

(See NICKLES, Page 6)

1957

The youths, David Tierney, a Duke student, and Charles R. in the church cemetery, Rain apparently dampened the Sanders Jr., a UNC student, said Mr. Pope was a member of Eagle crowd's spirits on Sunday but they were target shooting at the Lodge No. 19. AF&AM. Oasis during the two days previous, of-Orange Speedway race track, Shrine Temple of Charlotte and ficers estimated some 3,000 per-"just practicing." The charge, the Scottish Rite Consistory of sons were in attendance. disturbing the peace, for which New Bern and a member of Cedar Judge L. J. Phipps continued pray- Grove Methodist Church.

er for judgement upon payment

CHARGED IN STABBING The Hornbuckles reside on St. Roosevelt Swan, Cedar Grove Ne- The Hillsboro Merchants Asso-

Mary's road, across the Eno Rivgro, is free under bond of $200 for ciation will meet today at the Hillser, a large residential develop the Sunday night stabbing of Sonny boro Recreational Park. The meetment, Highway 70. and intervening | Wade of the same community. Wade ing was postponed last - Thursday areas from the alleged site of the is in Duke Hospital. Sheriff's de- until today. In case of bad weather shooting. partment filed charges of assault the meeting will be held in C & R with a deadly weapon against Swan, Furniture Co.

. . . winning chairman

Ensign To Speak At New Hope Homecoming Event On Sunday The annual homecoming will be Theological Seminary, Louisville, grounds-if raining in the large

MERCHANTS: MEETING

Coaches Glenn Auman and Fred held at New Hope Presbyterian Ky. Claytor put the Hillsboro High Church this coming Sunday, Aug. Dinner will be served on the and all friends are invited.

Wildcats through their first heavy ust 25. workout Tuesday as the 39 as-Light drills began a week ago.

During Monday's drills, the children who use fertilizer or feed. ton of feed or fertilizer, have been team lost for the season the services of Wallace Robinson, a promising guard, who suffered a shoulder, injury,

39 Candidates

Working Out

For Wildcats

for the 1957 edition of the Wild- building and camp activities at cats. including 11 seeking back. Camp New Hope; his inspiration field posts.

UNC Minister Speaks Here Sunday

The Reverend Harry E. Smith, at the University of North Carolina. Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Smith has held this position nations. Recently they have been at Chapel Hill for three years. The commissioned to write a Camping program there has expanded to a Guide for Leaders. He will direct size calling for the addition of build- and assist in the services.

students, Construction of these facili- Rev. William O. Smith, who suc-The topic of the message Sunday College and holds a Masters Dewill be "Church and Campus." gree from Louisville Presbyterian

The Rev. John E. Ensign. former pastor of New Hope and Efland churches who is now Director of Camps and Conferences of East Hanover Presbytery in Richmond. Virginia, will deliver the morning sermon at 11 a.m.

During the eight years of Mr. Ensign's ministry at New Hope, Thirty nine candidates are out he directed and supervised the and leadership were largely responsible for the erection of the new $85,000 modern and modernly equipped church building.

The Rev. Mr. Ensign is widelyknown in church camping, and Presbyterian Minister to Students jointly with his wife, Ruth Ensign, has written several books on are now being used in 23 denomi-

New Hope's new pastor, the ceeded Mr. Ensign in October, 1956, is a graduate of Davidson

Recreation Hall of the Church-

The Rev. John Ensign ..... homecoming speaker

26 25

"We would like to get out a large used wisely to expand research on

VOTE ON FRIDAY-If you bought even a small bag of fertilizer, or a bag of feed, you're eligible to vote in the statewide referendum Friday. The vote will decide the fate of North Carolina's "Nickels for Know-How" program, which supports agricultural research and education programs that affect North Carolina farmers directly

In 'Nickels For Know-How' Election Twenty eight polling place have | Everyone who has an research program which pleted for Duke to have been announced for voting tomorrow farming and who buys feed or fer- has come about as a result of the in the Nickels For Know-How Refer- tilizer for agricultural production Nickels For Know-How Foundation pirants for this year's team tried endum to be held in Orange and is eligible to vote in the referendum is important to the future welfare out their uniforms for the first tomorrow, according to Matheson, of farmers of Orange County." he time: According to Chairman Don Mathe- This includes landlords, tenants and added. son, county agent, voting will take sharecroppers and their wives and