The Wesley W. Roberts family... "family of the year"

Wesley Roberts Family Is Selected Burnsville Church 'Family Of The Year'

The Wesley W. Roberts family of Burnsville has been nominated by the official board of the Higgins Memorial Methodist Church of Burnsville as the "Family of the Year."

Roberts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Roberts of Hillsboro. Each year, the Methodist Church selects a "Family of the Year" from nominations sent in by churches in each district throughout the nation. A committee of the Asheville district will select the family of the district; an annual conference committee will select the family of the conference; and a national committee will choose from selections of the conference.

The qualifications on which the family was judged were as follows: "Family exemplifies inspiring Christian family living. Family applies Christian ethics in business or profession. Family takes a creative role in church and community life. Family members are known as warm, good neighbors."

The Rev. O. L. Brown, pastor of the Burnsville Church, states that the local church is proud and will continue to be proud of its own "Family of the Year," regardless of which family is selected by committees of the other areas.
