

HILLSBORO HAPPENINGS

Social And Personal—Telephone 4191

Engagement Of Miss Nell Beard Carston Wagner Is Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Earle Beard announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Carston Rochelle Wagner, to Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Carston Wagner of Hillsboro.

Miss Nell is a 1955 graduate of Hillsboro High School and is a member of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill where she is majoring in English and French. She is a member of the A. B. degree in Hillsboro.

Mr. Wagner is a graduate of Hillsboro High School and a veteran of the United States Army. Before entering the service he attended Duke University and is now a rising senior at the University of North Carolina where he is majoring in mathematics and science. Mr. Wagner is associated with Retail Company in Burlington.

The wedding is planned for the first of the month in the Hillsboro Presbyterian Church. The Rev. John E. Hines, pastor of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina, will officiate at the ceremony.

MISS DOROTHY NELL BEARD

MISS DOROTHY NELL BEARD

The wedding will be held from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Reception will be held at the home of the bride. The ceremony will be held at the Hillsboro Presbyterian Church next week. The reception will be held at the home of the bride on Friday each morning from 11 o'clock to 12 o'clock. Mrs. M. will be principal. The girls between the ages of 10 and 12 are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served each day.

LEAVES

Mrs. N. B. Armstrong left Sunday for Alpine, Texas, after visiting here with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Sharpe and Mr. Sharpe from Friday noon. This was the first time Mrs. Sharpe had seen her sister in over 10 years, she having just returned from spending over two years in Europe.

IN HOSPITAL

Keith Rosemond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rosemond, is a patient in Watts Hospital following an operation Tuesday.

Many Thanks

ALL THE GOOD CITIZENS OF ORANGE COUNTY WHO EXPRESSED THEIR CONFIDENCE IN ME BY GIVING ME A SUBSTANTIAL MAJORITY IN LAST SATURDAY'S DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

I AM INDEED GRATEFUL FOR THIS SUPPORT.

SINCERELY,
HENRY S. WALKER

Thank You, Voters of Orange

The Vote Of Confidence You Displayed In Each And Every Precinct Shows That You Realize That The Present Sheriff's Department Is Dedicated To Providing ORANGE COUNTY With The Caliber Of Law Enforcement It Justly Deserves.

Thanks Again,
Sheriff Odell Clayton

Miss Johnston, Mr. Wilson Wed In Church Here

In an afternoon ceremony Saturday at the Presbyterian Church in Hillsboro, Miss Minnie Johnston became the bride of Clarence Parker Wilson. The Rev. William Andes, pastor of the Congregational Christian Church of Elon College, where the bride holds her membership, officiated.

The ceremony was witnessed only by members of the two immediate families.

The bride is the daughter of the late Ada Smith Johnston and Charles David Johnston, who for more than 30 years was superintendent of the Christian Orphanage and treasurer of Elon College. She was graduated from Elon College and the University of North Carolina. For the past nine years she has been a member of the Elizabeth City High School faculty.

The bridegroom, son of the late Clara Griffen Wilson and Cady Wilson of Omaha, Nebraska, is a graduate of the University of Arizona and Harvard University, where he was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He is associate project engineer for Allied Chemical and Dye Corporation of Morris-town, N. J.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Robert F. Warren, organist, and Mrs. Fred S. Cates, soloist, both of Hillsboro.

The couple entered the church unattended. The bride wore a Kay Selig original sheath dress of Lombardy lace and tulle in sea-blue over taffeta. Her hat was of matching lace trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, fleur d'amour and stephanotis.

Ushers were Dr. James William Johnston of Burlington and Robert E. Johnston of Charlotte, brothers of the bride.

Following the ceremony, Mayor and Mrs. Ben Johnston, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, entertained at a reception at their home.

The couple left later for a wedding trip through western North Carolina and the New England states.

For traveling, the bride wore a two-piece black sheath dress with white accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside in Madison, N. J.

RECEIVES PIN — Pictured above are Mrs. Louise Clayton, new president of the Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's Club, presenting outgoing president, Mrs. Iris Cates the emblem and guard of past president. New officers were installed at the Colonial Inn on May 21. Other officers not pictured are Mrs. Eleanor Knight, vice-president; Mrs. Natalie Cates, recording secretary; Miss Mary B. Forrest, treasurer and Mrs. Lucille Ray, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Willie Lee Lynch was installing officer.

RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crabtree of Hillsboro and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Crabtree of Durham, returned home Monday after spending last week in Texas. They went there to attend the wedding of their daughter, Miss Belle Crabtree, and Dr. George Ellis Granville which took place last Saturday in Houston.

HERE

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Conklin of Orlando, Fla. are visiting here this week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. B. Lowndes of W. King St. Mrs. Conklin is the former Sue Fryer.

GENTRY REUNION

The B. J. Gentry family reunion will be held Sunday at the home of Clarence J. Gentry on Highway 86 three miles north of Hillsboro. All relatives and friends are invited to attend and take a picnic lunch.

Mrs. Raymond W. Beneville
Photo by Tudor

Bialock-Beneville Nuptials Solemnized Sunday At Mt. Zion

The wedding of Miss Patricia Anne Bialock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bialock and Raymond Walter Beneville took place June 1 at 4 o'clock at Mt. Zion Christian Church. The Reverend Thomas G. Sutton of Greensboro performed the double-ring ceremony.

A program of wedding selections was given by Mrs. Fred Cates, Jr., soloist of Hillsboro, and Ralph Compton, pianist, of Durham.

The vows were spoken before an altar of white gladiolus and fern.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length dress of lace over taffeta with a fitted tulle bodice and long sleeves.

Her elbow-length veil of tulle was attached to a Juliet cap topped with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid and Baby's Breath.

Mrs. Jerry Hall, classmate of the bride, attended as Matron of Honor, wearing a pink taffeta, street-length dress with matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

Blake W. Wilson, uncle of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Jerry Bialock, brother of the bride, and Tommy Freund, cousin of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bialock wore an orchid lined dress and a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the church hut. Cake and punch were served to friends and relatives by Miss Lib Strayhorn, Mrs. Jerry Bialock, Mrs. Bruce Bialock, Mrs. Bill Rolland, and Miss Gena Harris.

AT CONVENTION

Delegates of the Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's Club plan to attend the State Business and Professional Women's Club Convention in Asheville this weekend, Friday through Sunday. They are: Mrs. Louise Clayton, Mrs. Iris Cates, Mrs. Mabel Gordon, Mrs. Willie Lee Lynch and Miss Maude McCauley.

WEDDING PHOTOS

Your satisfaction guaranteed on informal wedding photos. Competitive prices. Inquire at News of Orange County office, Phone 4191, or write

Press Photo Service
Box 44
Chapel Hill, N. C.
Phone 9-3161

Miss Crabtree Weds Doctor In Texas Last Saturday

Miss Mary Belle Crabtree became the bride of Dr. George Ellis Granville of Houston, Texas last Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the Weiss Memorial Chapel Methodist Hospital in Houston. The Rev. A. A. Leifste officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Arch Crabtree of Hillsboro. Dr. Granville is the son of Mrs. J. B. Granville and the late Dr. Granville of Brady, Texas.

Traditional wedding music preceding the ritual was presented by Mrs. Jo Lynn Clark, organist, and Skipper Fry, soloist. The vows were spoken before a background of palms, seven branch candelabra holding lighted cathedral candles and baskets filled with white bridal flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Pointe d'Venice lace, fashioned along princess lines with scalloped portrait neckline, sculptured bodice, and bracelet length sleeves complemented by white gloves. The gored skirt was waltz length. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was held in place by a lace cap embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids and showered with white bridal flowers and satin streamers.

Mrs. William B. Crabtree of Durham, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a waltz length pastel blue dress designed with a fitted bodice and full skirted. She carried a bouquet of matching spring flowers.

Dr. H. D. Kilmer served Dr. Granville as best man. Ushers were Dr. John J. Martin Jr. and Dr. J. D. Edwards Jr., all of Houston.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Crabtree wore a pale pink dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of feathered white carnations. Mrs. Granville wore a pastel blue dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white feathered carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Banerman, Assisting were Mrs. William Granville, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Douglas Offutt, aunt of the bridegroom, Miss Janie Featherston and Miss Frances Young, former roommates of the bride, and Georganna Granville, niece of the groom.

The couple left later for a two week wedding trip to southern points, the bride wearing a pastel blue original imported linen sheath fashioned with a matching closely

PIANO RECITAL GIVEN BY STUDENTS OF MARJORIE STILL FARRELL

On May 27 at 8 p.m. the students of Marjorie Still Farrell were presented in a recital at her home on Tryon St. The families and close friends of the students were invited.

The following students appeared on the program: Betsy Cates, Patricia Cates, Cheeta Smith, Ann Hollingsworth and Joy Carr.

Following the program a social was held for those in attendance.

woven embroidered line jacket, with white accessories and an orchid corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of the Watts Hospital School of Nursing, Durham and until her marriage was a member of the nursing staff at St. Luke's Hospital, Houston. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Texas School of Medicine and is on the medical staff of Veterans Administration Hospital, Houston.

Miss Peggy Berry, Bride-Elect, Honored At Luncheon Here

Miss Nell Beard honored Miss Peggy Berry, bride-elect of June 3, at a 1 o'clock luncheon, May 30, in the Colonial Inn dining room.

Miss Berry will marry Ernest Frederick Neuman III from Winston-Salem. Miss Beard will be a bridesmaid.

An orchid corsage marked the bride-elect's place at the table which was centered with mixed summer flowers. The honoree was presented a silver creamer and sugar set.

The guest list included the bride-elect, Peggy Berry, Judy Berry, Mrs. Ed Murray, grandmother of the bride, Alice Hunt, Jean Cates, Betty Jo Clark, Mrs. Douglas Willis, and Mrs. L. E. Beard.

LEAVE

Mary Ellen Wilder and Ann Barker returned to Washington, D. C. after spending the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilder and Mr. and Mrs. William Barker.

QUALITY always SHOWS UP in the SHOWDOWN and you don't have to settle for less when you buy National Shops for your family. You get genuine satisfaction and savings every step of the way. Compare!

SUMMEY SHOE SHOP
Churton St. Hillsboro

Special Sale

17-Inch Outdoor CHARCOAL GRILL

$5.95

Cash & Carry

- Bottom Ventilated
- Sturdy Construction

SMITH FURNITURE CO.
Tel. 2695 Hillsboro

Get More For Your Work Clothes Dollar

With Anvil Brand

Overalls may LOOK much alike. But only long use and laundering show you how they WEAR! Anvil men and boys who have tried them all keep coming back for ANVIL BRAND. You DO get your money's worth and a premium in long wear. Try them and see.

12-Star Utility Pants With Shirts To Match

Pants 3.95-4.95
Shirts 2.95-4.25

YOU'RE DRESSED FOR WORK IN ANVIL-ALLS — Here's the coverall men acclaim for comfort, sturdiness, style. Two-way front zipper, dressy lapels, snugly buttoning for neck to heels protection. Come examine Anvil-Alls. Built right. Look right. Wear right. And so economical at $6.85

J. L. BROWN & SONS

"Hillsboro's Family Store"