More Time By ABC Agents Could Have Doubled Arrests, Says Sheriff

Undercover Activity Brings 23 Charges In Mass Roundup Of Bootleggers Tuesday

Twelve Orange County residents, five of them women, were arrested Tuesday on 18 charges of selling bootleg and tax-paid liquor.

The buyers were State ABC undercover agents.

Five more defendants are still to be picked up in the mass roundup, the first in this county in which ABC undercover agents were used. Sheriff O. H. Clayton said twice as many could have been picked up if more time had been allotted by State officials for the job.

Sheriff Clayton and deputies, assisted by State ABC agents made the arrests Tuesday night on the evidence of the undercover agents, who had previously made their "buys," ranging from a pint of tax-paid liquor to a half-gallon jar of white booze.

Arrested and charged with two sales were William Mack, St. Mary's area; Lonnie Denson, Murphy area; Joe and Elizabeth Lewis, Carrboro; Ruth Nicholson, Alex Bolden of the Greensboro Highway, near Antioch church; and Leola Foust, Chapel Hill; charged in one warrant only: Robert Jones, Hillsboro; Pat Andrews, West Hillsboro; Mattie Bolden; Greensboro highway; Robert and Estelle Morrow, Highway 86, north of Chapel Hill.

Board Of Education Appoints

Citizens Group For Schools

Serious Faults Noted In New School Design

Serious structural and design faults in the new $400,000 Carrboro Elementary school were reported to the Board of Education Tuesday by District Health Sanitarian H. Dobson.

Dobson cited State school building requirements which say that all school kitchens, lunchrooms and rooms in which food is stored must have smooth, hard washable walls and ceilings. In the new building designed by Croft and Hammond of Asheboro, the kitchen and lunchroom walls are of porous block construction above a few feet and ceilings are of another soft porous material.

The Orange County Board of Education Tuesday appointed a 20-member Citizens Committee for Schools.

Such committees, already organized in many other counties, are described as effective in such fields as promoting supplementary taxes and bond issues for schools, promoting internal improvements and making curriculum studies in conjunction with professional leaders.

SHERMAN N. SHELTON

The committee named Tuesday includes representatives from each school attendance area, members at large, Board of Education and Commissioners, and professional school people. They are:

Van Leslie Kenyon, Mrs. Glenn Kennedy, Harry Breeze, Sidney Green, Mrs. Doc Griffin, Mrs. M. P. Eiland Jr., Wilfred Phelps, Robert Hogan, Mrs. Griffin Lloyd, Hurdle Miller, Roosevelt Warner, Gaiter Lofton, Mrs. Corinna Vallines, Ross Porter, C. D. Jones, G. P. Carr, Mrs. Irene Pender, Ted Shoaf, Mrs. Ancey McKee and Mrs. Alpha Blake.

New Hillsboro Gym Accepted From Builders

The Board of Education accepted the new Hillsboro High School gymnasium from the builders Tuesday afternoon, subject to correction of a minor roof fault.

The new $190,000 physical education building, long needed here, has been under contract since early June 1957 and originally had a target date for completion last January 1.

Acceptance by the Board means that the dressing rooms, offices and other facilities may now be used by the students and coaches participating in pre-school football practice and by the student body after school opens next Monday.

The roof fault cited was water overflow at several points.

Shelton Named Negro County Agent Here

Sherman N. Shelton, Negro county agent of Richmond county, was confirmed Tuesday by the Board of Commissioners for the similar position in Orange County.

He will succeed retiring Moses C. Burt on October 1, when Burt will conclude a 24 year tenure as Orange County's Negro County Agent.

Regulations On Game Told By Protector

Orange County Game Protector Bob Logan today called attention of hunters to regulations concerning doves and other game for the 1958-59 season.

The first half of the split dove season begins Saturday and continues to Oct. 4, with the daily bag limit 10 a day per person and the possession limit 20 per person. The second dove season is Dec. 1 through Jan. 15.

The North Carolina season for rails begins Sept. 10 and continues through Nov. 18. Rails shall be taken from a half-hour before sunrise until sunset and the daily bag limit is 15.

For sora, the season is Sept. 10, Nov. 18, and the bag limit each day is 25.

The woodcock season is Nov. 27, Jan. 5, with the birds to be taken from 30 minutes before sunrise until sunset. The daily bag limit on woodcock is four per person.

Mr. Logan noted that migratory birds may not be taken with traps, snares, nets, rifles, swivel guns or machine guns nor with a motor-driven conveyance.

Carrboro School's Open House Friday

An Open House to give school patrons and friends opportunity to inspect their new building will be held tomorrow night at the new Carrboro Elementary School.

The PTA and the School Advisory Committee invite the public to call during the hours of 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. Hostesses and teachers will be stationed in the various rooms to greet the guests and point out salient features of the new school.

Pre-Game Favorites At Northern Durham

High Gridders Open Season Friday

By HARRY W. LLOYD
Tomorrow night at eight o'clock, the Hillsboro High School football team will face its first test of the 1958 season when they travel to Northern High to oppose the Knights in the initial District Three game.

The Wildcats might be considered pre-game favorites on the basis of comparative experience. Northern has only three returning starters and six seniors whereas the locals have back six regulars and eleven four-year men. Last year Hillsboro defeated the Knights by one touchdown, 13-5.

The Hillsboro team has been further strengthened by the addition of some players who have come out since the season started. Gary Bateman, a 170 pound guard-linebacker, returned to the team Monday from Military Camp. Bateman will probably pull down a starting position at right guard, where junior Odas White has been filling in during practice sessions. Other new faces on the field are Tommy "Mouse" Sprouse, a 225 pound sophomore guard; Sammy Ray, 170 pound end; Earl Davis, 190 pound junior guard; John Dickey, 155 pound soph; and Pat Clayton, 135 pound junior quarterback.

Veteran Quarterbacks
Football-hungry fans should have a fine treat in store for them under the Clements Field lights. Directing both forces will be experienced senior quarterbacks who have at their disposal fine backfieldmen. For the home standers, it will be 170 pound Lewis Kendrick calling the signals. For Hillsboro, Harvey Reinhardt will direct the straight T attack. Although junior Richard Blackwell is listed as the number two field general, don't be surprised to see him running at occasions from the right halfback slot. Kenneth Cook will open at right half and play end on defense. Fullback Ray Barnes will handle the plunging duties, while Sophomore Walter Swainey

ABC Store Election Called For February 7

Commissioners Get Petitions Signed By 1049

Orange County's first referendum on the establishment of ABC stores in the past 25 years will be held on February 7 on a county-wide basis.

Formal action calling for the election came at Tuesday's meeting of the Board of County Commissioners when the members voted 4 to 0 to give the voters an opportunity to express themselves on the question.

Alamance County has already called a similar election to be held on the same day.

Commissioner Donald M. Stanford of Chapel Hill, who has pushed hard for the referendum and the subsequent establishment of the stores as a measure to provide the county a broader revenue base for providing additional monies for schools and other county needs, made the motion to call the election following presentation of informal petitions distributed by the newspapers of the county and bearing the names of 1,049 citizens, most of them from the Hillsboro and northern Orange areas. The petitions had been made available as a public service on a request basis after the Commissioners at their last meeting had indicated a desire for an expression of sentiment on the question by the people. Commissioner Donald McDade seconded the motion and they, along with Chairman R. J. M. Hobbs and Commissioner Henry Walker voted in the affirmative. Commissioner Dwight M. Ray abstained from voting.

In its formal resolution calling for the referendum, the Commissioners noted the following points:

"It has been many years since the citizens of Orange County had an opportunity to vote on this vital issue. It is in the best interests of Democratic government to call another such referendum.

"The revenue to be derived from the profits of the ABC System in Orange County would greatly aid the County's needs for increased funds.

"Citizens of Orange County are now contributing heavily to the revenue of adjoining counties, and thus providing them with funds by their patronizing of ABC Stores in these counties.

"Orange County desperately needs new sources of revenue to meet its constantly mounting budget expenses. This is a logical and very profitable source of revenue.

"To install the ABC system of sales of alcoholic beverages will improve the potentialities of the County's law enforcement officers in controlling illegal liquor traffic."

CATES REUNION

The descendants of Thomas S. and Adeline Perry Cates will have their annual reunion on Sunday, Sept. 14, at the home of Hight M. Perry of Orange Grove, Route 3, Hillsboro.

Second Carrboro School Integration Bid Denied

White Cross Now Tuition-Free Also

The Chapel Hill school board Tuesday night voted to waive tuition requirement during the coming year for some 72 White and Negro pupils from the White Cross attendance area.

The action, however, was contingent upon the holding of another referendum and affirmative action merging the White Cross area into the Chapel Hill special tax district as soon as such an election can be legally and feasibly called.

220 residents of the area recently signed a petition indicating they now favor merger with Chapel Hill and requested the action.

The Orange County Board of Education on Tuesday denied the request of a Carrboro Negro couple to assign their four children to the White elementary school, and set next Monday night at 8 o'clock as the time for hearing an appeal from another couple whose request had been denied previously.

The request denied was that of Darnell and Clara Mae Walden of Carr St., Carrboro, who had asked that their foster children, Roger, Rosetta, Jessie and Scottie Lee Kincaid, be reassigned from the Northside School in the Chapel Hill system to the new Carrboro school. Walden said he had previously filed an application for 12-year-old Roger but it had never been received by the Board. He was given a new blank to be filled out. His letter transmitting the other three applications was in the language of an appeal, using similar wording and reasons as that of the Lee Vickers letter, namely the distance to Northside and the proximity to Carrboro.

Hodson Heads Orange County YDC Group

Charles B. Hodson, Chapel Hill attorney, was elected president of the Orange County Young Democratic Club last Friday evening. He succeeds Lucius Cheshire of Hillsboro.

The election which took place at the Club's annual county convention at the Chapel Hill Town Hall also named Jack Lasley, Chapel Hill attorney, as secretary and treasurer. Allen Watkins as first vice-president, and Mrs. James Taylor as second vice-president.

The Club voted to have its delegation to the annual State Convention uninstructed.

Negro Farmers Of 6 Counties Plan Pig Show

Negro farmers from Alamance, Rockingham, Caswell, Durham, Person and Orange Counties will hold their first Feeder Pig Show and Sale at the Farmers Exchange Livestock Market in Hillsboro next Monday.

The show will get underway at 10:00 a.m. with the sale to be held at 12:00 noon.

Over 200 head of feeder pigs are expected to be entered in this event. In so far as it is known this is the first show and sale of its kind to be held in the state. It is being sponsored by the Extension Service and the Vocational Agriculture departments under the leadership of J.W. Jefferies, Negro District Agent. Other officials of A & T College at Greensboro will be on hand to participate in the program. Jack Kelley, Extension Livestock Specialist from State College, will give assistance with the judging.

The board gave no reasons for denying the transfer request but will advise the couple in its formal notice of disapproval that its investigation has indicated they are entitled to free school bus transportation from where they live to Northside, along with five other children.

The setting of the time for the appeal of the Vickers couple, who were present at the meeting, as next Monday night at 8 o'clock, was for convenience of the appellants.

Both couples claim their residence is within two blocks of the White school. They were not represented by counsel. Attending the meeting with the principals in the cases, however, were the Rev. Charles M. Jones, pastor of the Chapel Hill Community Church, and Preston Weaver, Negro shoe repairman, who has filed two previous school integration requests with the Chapel Hill School board, both of which were denied.

More Pupils Denied Free School Choice

A number of this area's residents, other than those interested in integration, are having trouble attending the school of their choice.

Six Person county farmers, who reside near the Orange County line and whose children have been attending school in Orange County at Aycock, asked for help from the Orange County board Tuesday in their efforts to continue their children in this county's school. Person County's board has ruled that all pupils who live in Person must attend school in that county, or it will claim credit for all such attendance if they insist on going out of the county. Orange County cannot accept them without an assignment from Person.

The B. B. Olive family which lives near the Durham line asked that their child be released to Durham; and the H. L. Durham family on Blackwood Station road, asked that their children be transferred to Chapel Hill. No action was taken on either case, which means in effect they can go to the neighboring schools if they can get in but they have not been released by Orange County, which can claim their attendance.

CALDWELL BENEFIT

The Caldwell Home Demonstration Club and the Caldwell Educational Association are co-sponsoring a Brunswick stew and a chicken stew supper in the Caldwell community house this coming Saturday, September 6, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. On sale at the same time as the supper plates will be several choices of pie, cake, and cold drinks, and also coffee.
