

KIDD BREWER'S Raleigh Roundup

YOUNG MEN . . . When along in years, you are have various and sundry ailments. The way it is with members of the North Carolina State Bar. This past week Justice R. Hunt Parker hospital recovering from an attack, while 23 miles of here Justice Jeff in Duke Hospital criticism an abdominal illness.

men on the State Supreme are young in spirit, young in years. The member is Chief Justice Vinborne, who turned 74 July. Justice Emery B. appointed to the Court prior J. M. Broughton was 50. He is now 66. D. Johnson Jr., now 58, on the Court since 1950. Being written a few hours news of his attack; and his thousands of other: wishing for Judge Jeff recovery. "He has not all for several months. Parker is 63. He has the Supreme Court bench.

of the Justices is Justice H. Bobbitt, who will October 18.

Carisle Higgins, big-ter and a Northwestern political and legal a quarter-of-a-century coming to the Bench in or will be one day be Bobbitt becomes 58. ator Clyde R. Hoey died in the summer of 1954.

William B. Umstead Justice Sam J. Ervin Jr. Hoey. He then named his campaign manager for Governor, to suc-Ervin.

ice, youngest in point of the Bench is W. B. of Washington, N. C., appointed by Governor two years ago this past is 69, but certainly look it.

the average age of our of the State Supreme a shade over 65. So, we are surprised at reading e or that one being out old-age infirmity. Jus-tone had a rather seri-ous some 18 months ago. arnhill "during his" last on the Bench was har-recurring attacks of asth-

OLDS SONS . . . Two of holds' sons are in school College here this fall. s always felt close to s a student himself there years ago, and the na-known Coliseum at State after his uncle, the late Reynolds, former treasurer National Democratic Party, an who almost single-put up the money—over million dollars—for Franklin velt to run for a third 940. At that time, he was in when, or if ever, the d be repaid. It was—but ediate.

h does not get back to Carolina—often, Dick Reys a lot of close friends keeps in close touch with interesting to note that Reynolds is the largest instockholder in the Delta. He is the largest single er of Reynolds Tobacco that's not so bad really realize that Camels are in their eighth conse-ROUNDUP, Page 2)

'FINER FARMS' IN ORANGE—Orange County entered six communities in CP&L's "Finer Farms" contest. These views illustrate conservation practices completed: (top) community farm leaders J. E. Latta, Harry Woods, Reid Roberts, Conservationist Queen in Patterson and A. B. Latta in the Schley community; (middle left) John Cates and his dairy herd; (middle right) one of many Orange County farm ponds; (center) Woods and Patterson with a year-old pine tree; (lower left) multiflora rose planted as a fence for wildlife cover; and (lower right) Hedrick Dodson with some tall Orange County corn.

In Finer Farms Contest

Four Orange Communities; Soil Conservation Chiefs Win Prizes

Grass roots efforts by Carolinians in guarding their soil and water resources were recognized by Carolina Power & Light Company this week at the conclusion of its sixth annual "Finer Farms" contest and Orange County was among the top winners.

Winners of $2,800 cash awards were announced in the two-state competition. Prize money goes to local sponsoring groups, county boards of soil conservation district supervisors and individual district supervisors who have guided their people toward more effective care and use of soil and water on the farm.

First-place prize of $350 goes to the Brush Creek community of Yancey County in Western North Carolina where 40 farm families turned out 100 per cent to set a phenomenal record of conservation on 3,000 acres.

Second-prize winner is the Zion Church community of Chesterfield County, South Carolina. It won $250 for practices established by 38 families on 4,560 acres of farm and woodland.

Third-place winner is the Schley community of Orange County, North Carolina, long the scene of outstanding community cooperation and past winner of national development awards. Here 50 families joined forces to set an outstanding conservation record in competition with five other "Fine Farms" communities in the same county. Their prize is $150.

Superior results awards of $50 each go to 21 other communities in the two states: Among them Buckhorn, Jordan Grove, Midway-New Hope and Orange Grove in Orange County.

Prize-winning county boards of district supervisors are: Orange County, N. C. ($250); Yancey County, N. C. ($150); and Kershaw County, S. C. ($100).

Ten individual district supervisors conducted the "Finer Farms" program on the local level to win $50 cash each. They included: Reid Roberts, H. S. Hogan and C. W. Stanford of Orange County.

Communities introduced conservation practices on 193,000 acres of farm and woodland in the 1957-58 contest. Prize money will be used to further develop winning communities.

Judges of entries were Bryce Younis, administrative officer of the N. C. State Soil Conservation Committee, and Lewis Hendricks, executive secretary of the S. C. Soil Conservation Committee.

ASC Township's Voting Set For Next Thursday

Next Thursday, October 2, ASC Committees will be elected in each of Orange County's seven agricultural townships.

In each of these townships a chairman, vice chairman, regular member, and two alternates to the local ASC Committee will be elected. A nominating committee in the community composed of three farmers residing in the community, has already chosen from among their neighbors a slate of ten farmers, the names of these 10 farmers will appear on the ballot on election day.

In each agricultural township every farmer who is participating, or who is eligible to participate, in any program administered by the County ASC Committee is eligible to vote. This includes any owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper on a farm which is eligible to participate in the Agricultural Conservation Program, the Soil Bank Program, the various price support programs, or who is affected by acreage allotments and marketing quotas in any of the basic commodities.

Below is a list of the nominees and voting places for this election on October 2, 1958 between 7:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

Bingham Township: Voting Place, W. M. Snipes store; Charles Snipes, Curtis Whitfield, Walter Lloyd, Vernon Sykes, G. T. Durham, H. B. Dodson, R. L. Kirk, C. C. Crawford, Earl Lloyd, C. E. Teer.

Cedar Grove Township: Voting Place, G. M. Long's Store; Merritt Dixon, Tom Roundtree, Knox Woods, George Wright, Jessie Porterfield, Howard Pope, Oscar Compton, Franklin Kirby, Russell Roberts, Ormand Woods.

Chapel Hill Township: Voting Place, Farmers Exchange, Inc.; W. D. Neville, Robert C. Hogan, Aubrey McLennan, Clyde Hogan, Glenn Whitfield, Bob Strayhorn, Roland Womble, John H. Cate, Jr., Homer Tapp, Jeff Atwater.

Cheeks Township: Voting Place, Forrest's Farm Implement Store; Robert G. Jones, Glenn Pender, L. D. Moore, Harvey Ray, Howard Neese, William Dorsett, F. W. Scott, Arnold Kirk, Ben Lloyd, Joe Rice.

Eno Township: Voting Place, Jessie Martin's home; W. A. Crabtree. (See ASC ELECTION, Page 8)

Integration Appeal Plans Are Undecided

Attorney C. O. Pierson of Durham, who has represented 2 Carrboro Negro couples in their attempts to have children integrated into Carrboro's new all-white elementary school, said today that he "doesn't know at this time" about any further action.

The Orange County Board of Education recently denied the appeals of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vickers and Mr. and Mrs. Darnell Walden, who sought to reverse a previous decision assigning their children to Chapel Hill's Northside elementary school.

The next step by the appellants, if any, would presumably be an appeal to the courts.

16 Go To Hospital As Truck Rams School Bus On H'wy 70

Bullard Gets Busted Ankle In Legion Fray

Night Policeman Leon Bullard of Hillsboro has suffered a fractured ankle as result of an altercation occurring during a social occasion Saturday night at the American Legion Hut in Hillsboro.

Bullard, who is commander of the Hillsboro Post 85, was off duty and attending the function when he became involved in a dispute over the admittance of two couples, one of whom had come as his guests. Involved in the affair with Bullard were Obie Davis and E. W. Godfrey Jr., both of Hillsboro.

Bullard is now recuperating and his police duties are being handled by Chief George Hunt and Substitute Officer Will Gilmore.

According to reports of the affair, Bullard had invited Mr. and Mrs. Davis as his guests for the social. When they appeared in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey, Bullard would not admit Godfrey, an argument and scuffle ensued and Bullard fractured the ankle in the fall from the porch.

MODELS OF FASHION — These four well-known Hillsboro ladies seem to be enjoying the prospect of their forthcoming modeling experience in the Business & Professional Womens Club show set for tomorrow night. Left to right, they are Mrs. Marion B. Roberts, Mrs. R. O. Forrest, Mrs. Glenn Auman and Mrs. Burch Compton. For a description of their clothes turn to page three.

Carrboro Boy's Arrest Solves Wave Of Thefts

Arrest of a 16-year-old Carrboro boy by Sheriff's Deputies Earl Bush and Paul Cook Saturday afternoon cleaned up a long series of robberies extending over a period of time.

He is Earl Brewer, who admitted entering locker rooms of Woollen Gymnasium several times stealing clothes, watches, billfolds and other personal belongings, as well as numerous thefts from parked cars on Chapel Hill streets, clothes from a Burlington store and an auto in Burlington. A juvenile from Burlington was also involved in some of the thefts.

Suspicion was directed to the boy when Chapel Hill police made a routine driver's license check on the Brewer boy and noted that the billfold and license presented carried the name of a Jamerson boy whose billfold and license had been reported stolen earlier. When Brewer was later identified and questioned by the Sheriff's deputies he admitted the series of thefts.

Presbyterians Plan Rally Day Services

Sunday will be observed as Rally Day at Hillsboro Presbyterian Church.

The program will feature promotion and awarding of certifications among the children's classes of Sunday School and the 11 o'clock morning worship service will include special rites of consecration and dedication for the Sunday School teachers, who will be assuming new responsibilities for the forthcoming year.

Fashion Show Tomorrow Planned By BPW Club

The Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's Club will sponsor its first Fall Fashion Show tomorrow at 8:00 p.m. at the Hillsboro High School Auditorium.

Mrs. Peggy Mann, of WTVD Television Station, Durham, will direct and narrate the program. Fashions will be furnished by the following Hillsboro Merchants:

J. L. Brown and Sons, Family Shoe Store, Forrest Fashion's, Little Shop, Mary's Shop, Smith's Ready-To-Wear, and Sis's Shoe Store. Hair styles will be done by Colonial Beauty Salon and Tena's and Wynne's Beauty Shops. Fashions will include woolen suits, dresses, coats, sportswear, hats, jewelry, shoes and accessories.

The following will be models for the Fashion Show: Mrs. Glenn Auman, Miss Barbara Brown, Mrs. W. M. Chance, Mrs. Odell Clayton, Mrs. Clady Coley, Miss Elizabeth "Boo" Collins, Mrs. Burch Compton, Mrs. R. O. Forrest, Miss Jill Gilmore, Miss Priscilla Lloyd, Mrs. Annie Lockhart, Mrs. Marion B. Roberts, Mrs. Dwight Walters, Mrs. John G. Webb, and Mrs. W. W. Whittington.

A few of the models will appear on The Peggy Mann Show over WTVD Television Station, Durham, at 1:45 p.m. Friday, September 26 (tomorrow).

Stage decorations will be done by Gilmore Flower Shop. There will be special music and door prizes. Individual favors will be furnished by Lily Mills of Shelby, N. C.

Tickets for the Fashion Show may be purchased from any member of the BPW Club or at the door on the night of the show.

Four Raids Net Three Stills, Large Booze Cache

White moonshine whiskey flowed freely in Cedar Grove township this week and Sheriff's Deputies were on hand to stem the flow.

At least four raids netted large quantities of booze and mash, led to the arrest of four men, and the destruction of three stills.

Last Thursday Deputies found 426 gallons of white whiskey in a trap under the floor of a garage at the home of Ira Byrd, Cedar Grove farmer, who lives north of Highway 49 near the Alamance line. He was released under $300 bond for illegal possession for sale.

He was not believed to have had any previous record with whiskey.

The next day, they found a 180-gallon capacity still in operation in the same neighborhood in the northwest corner of the county and apprehended the two operators at the illegal plant.

They were Victor Bryant Whitted, 28, Route 2, Durham, and John Thomas Clayton, 26, Route 1, Hillsboro, both Negroes, released under the bonds of $500 and $300 respectively for manufacturing whiskey.

2,400 gallons of mash and 60 gallons of liquor were destroyed.

Tuesday of this week two more outfits were found and destroyed.

Deputies Compton, Cook and Clark raided a still just north of the High Rock road, going before daylight and lying in wait until a supply truck loaded with coke, sugar and fruit jars arrived, being driven by Colin P. Monk, 28, Mebane white man. Monk ran and made good his escape but was arrested Tuesday night at his home. He was released under $500 bond. The still was destroyed and about 2,000 gallons of mash were poured out.

The three deputies, then accompanied by Deputy W. R. Roberts, proceeded to the south side of the High Rock road in the same vicinity and captured another outfit in which 2,300 gallons of mash were in process. There were no arrests here.

Two Children Hurt Seriously In Smash Up

Orange County parents and school officials counted their blessings today in the wake of one of the worst school bus accidents in local record, in point of numbers involved.

Fifteen children were injured, only two of them seriously. Tuesday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock on Highway 70 in front of Doc Griffin's service station when an empty flat-bed tractor truck rammed into the rear of a Hillsboro-Murphy school bus which had stopped on the highway unloading passengers.

The condition of the truck driver Dural Croya, 34, of Athens, Ga., sole occupant of the cotton truck of Z. M. Zellner of East Point, Ga., was described as only "fair" at Watts Hospital where he was taken with multiple fractures and cuts. A wrecker had been required to pull the truck cab loose from the man's leg before he could be removed to the ambulance.

Seriously Hurt

Most seriously hurt children were Samuel F. Ray, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Coley Ray of Route 3, Hillsboro, who goes to Hillsboro

OTHER INJURED CHILDREN

- Other children who were treated at hospitals and released were:
- Susan McFayden of Rt. 1, Durham.
- Janie George Couch, 7, of Rt. 2, Hillsboro.
- Lavetio Morris, 7, of Rt. 2, Hillsboro.
- Betty Jones Sanders, 10, of Rt. 1, Durham.
- Thomas Wayne Riley, 10, of Rt. 1, Durham.
- Michael John Riley, 9, of Rt. 1, Durham.
- Nancy Riley, 7, of Rt. 1, Durham.
- Nancy Norris, 16, of Hillsboro.
- Maurice Shambley, 16, of Rt. 1, Durham, the school bus driver.
- Jean Shambley, 13, of Rt. 1, Durham.
- Tassie Lee Tilley, 16, of Orange County.
- Gene Harrell, 7, of Orange County.

High; and Robert Donald Riley, 6, Route 1, Durham, a Murphy Elementary School pupil. Ray suffered a sprained neck and back injury while Riley had a slight skull fracture. Ray's condition was said to be "satisfactory" yesterday and Riley's "good."

Judy Couch of Hillsboro Route 3, 9-years-old, sustained a head injury and was in good condition at Duke Hospital. The 12 other children were released following treatment.

Sheriff Odell H. Clayton, who with Deputy W. R. Roberts, was standing in front of Doc Griffin's service station when the crash occurred, said the truck hit the school bus with terrific force. The bus had just discharged Larry Griffin, son of the service station owner, and a Ward child, and they had just crossed the highway in front of the bus, as is the custom, when the truck struck, driving itself into the

(See WRECK, Page 8)

Ground Break At Union Grove This Sunday

Immediately following the morning service at the Union Grove Methodist Church Sunday, Sept. 28, there will be a ground-breaking ceremony on an adjacent lot for a parsonage to be built in the near future.

Union Grove was organized as a Methodist Protestant Church on September 29, 1846 in a nearby school house. In 1872 the first church was erected on the present site. On September 29, 1946 the cornerstone of the present church was laid.

Henderson Hands Favored Hillsboro First Defeat; Locals Idle Friday

By HARRY W. LLOYD

The Hillsboro High School Wildcats, who suffered their first defeat here Friday night to a strong Henderson crew, now takes 2 weeks off to prepare for a battle with Chapel Hill. The local gridders, who were brashly upset by the visiting Bulldogs, rest this Friday.

Pushing over touchdowns in the third and fourth periods to eradicate a 7-6 halftime deficit, the defending District III Champions nevertheless trailed the homestanding Wildcats in both rushing yardage and first downs.

Henderson halfback Ralph Royster took a handoff on the opening kickoff and sped down the left sideline for 45 yards to the Hillsboro thirty-five. Here the Hillsboro defense held, allowing only three yards in four plays. The Hillsboro offense began rolling as soon as they got the ball. Ray Barnes picked up six, and Kenneth Cook carried for a first down and twelve yards. Walter Swainey got five; Barnes made another first down with five. Swainey got four, Cook one, Cook three, then Richard Blackwelder six. Three more plays made it fourth down on the Henderson nine with one to go. Ray Barnes was stopped through the middle and the ball went over on downs.

From the 19 Henderson could gain only eleven yards before it was forced to kick. Hillsboro began its next series on its own 34 after Swainey returned Adams' punt five yards. Unable to gain on Reinhardt's passes, Hillsboro elected to punt. Barnes' kick was short, covering only eleven yards. From the Hillsboro 48, Henderson began the march that would gain them the first touchdown of the night.

Quarterback Jimmy Adams went three, then connected with fullback Arthur Cates on a pass covering 18 yards. On this play Cates was injured, and he saw no more action in the game. Adams tossed an incomplete pass and failed to gain on a running attempt. A blocked pass was nabbed by a Bulldog line man for but a yard accomplishment.

On fourth down, Adams flipped an aerial to end Mickey Grissom for 23 yards. This play gave Henderson a scoring opportunity on the two. (See WILDCATS, Page 8)