n October, Attorney Genolm Seawell made a to-some surprise. Seawell. with Edwin Gill on the oles Commission - and acting like a candidate nobody makes so many be sure he can cut down after his Attorney Gen-his first project. Only to think.

knowing for sure, we that more than 50 per s beer and wine is sold ers who visit Raleigh reguarlity-are familian the Windmill, and its name a few weeks place, situated diagonalfrom Hayes Barton Bapch on Glenwood Avenue "The Office."

naming of that tavern. o'clock. His wife waits you been?" she asks. conscience: "At The Of-dark, rainy night around he gets bored. He rises easy chair, stretches and ttle, "Honey," he says, back in a couple of ve got to run down to ver been there myself. on good authority that cular tavern has better bled its business since its name from "Hayes

N . . . The October 6 is-Sports Illustrated," the ly publication recording Fortune on the sports tures the Outer Banks Carolina.

ticle, very interestingly clips along over a total ages. The cover picture o-page spread, also in sportsmen throuhout the ut this "newly accessi-

, turn through, and othamine most of the big bulb sale, Friday, from 4:00 to 9:00 being published in p.m.

For our money, we that "Sports Illus-ROUNDUP, Page 2)

40,000 Bream Placed In 36 County Farms

large mouth bass.

Each of the ponds received the number of fish for which the pond can provide food for the maximum growth during the winter and early spring. It is important that they make the greatest possible growth during this time, the Soil Conservation Service points out, because after they spawn the available food many fish for any of the bream to grow rapidly afterwards.

In the early summer, after the ing the bream population in check. The following farmers recevied

E. J. Blackley, and M. H. Hill, St. Mary's: Andrew Burnett, Stacy and Ralph W. Morgan, Carrboro: A. B. Cates, James Hicks, and Charles Snipes, Orange Grove: R. C. Compton, M. H. Parker, Clyde Russel, and Jack Wells, Cedar Grove; J. A. Crumpler, Mebane; J. rded as one of the wet- H. Culbreth, and H. F. Latta, Hillsmany beer ter, and C. Y. Stone, Durham; A. fruck as its thirstiness might D. Hamlet, J. A. Monk, C. N. Oaks, Photo by Soil Conservation Service for stocking farm ponds were de- C. E. Atkins, Carr; Charles Rains, livered to 36 Orange County farm- Buckhorn; Cecil Riley, and Ed-The fish, from the U. S. Fish Lloyd, Rt 2, Mebane; Zeb Lynch, and Wildlife Service Hatchery at Rt. 3. Mebane; B. B. Windham and Hoffman, N. C., begin the stocking Carl Walters, Efland; J. C. Monk, of the ponds. Stocking will be com- Rt. 1, Hurdle Mills; Jesse Dixon, pleted early next summer with Hillsboro, and Albert Harris, Rt. 2, Fish for stocking Orange ponds tion, short of litigation.

boro; F. A. Jabor and Harry Gun- being delivered from hatchery

Contracts Let For New Wing At Cameron Park

Construction on a new wing for matching construction to the pres-Hillsboro's Cameron Park ele- ent wing.

were let by the Orange County the same firm which just recent- completely elective instead of Board of Education Monday, total- ly, after 18 months work, complet- subject to legislative appointment ling $220,366.58 including archi ed the new gymnasium at the as a present:

likelihood was held that it would Co. of Burlington.

be completed by then. rooms and will be of identical or of over $550,000.

mentary school is expected to get | The general contract was awarded to T. W. Poe Construction Co. lation of Di Contracts for the construction of Durham for $157,151. This is to make

Hillsboro High School. Low bid-Superintendent G. P. Carr told ders among the subcontractors the Cameron Fark PTA Tuesday were Alliance Plumbing & Heatnight school officials were asking ing of Durham for plumbing, $6, that the structure be finished by 595; Paschall Brothers Plumbing next September, but on the rec- and Heating of Durham, for heatord of past performances- little ing, $28.987; and Colwell Electric

When finally completed, the The new wing will include 13 Cameron Park, with some $20,000 classrooms, an auditorium, a spac- in equipment edded to the new lies with straight face jour library and other auxiliary wing will represent an investment

Miss Hattie Brown Named BPW Club 'Woman Of Year'

fessional Women's Club, as a part a program undertaken by the of its participation in National Bus- Roosevelt Administration to help

1, 1920, and continued clerking for others until March 3, 1933, at which time she opened "The Orange Specialty Shop," a dress shop of her own. Her advent into business was marked by the closing of all banks in the United

Lions' Bulb, Candy Sale This Friday

The Hillsboro Lions Club will conduct its candy and electric made by the members of the Lions more good publicity than Joyner, will be assisted by co- week.

tains in promoting this sale, Home style candy and special everybody in North Careverybody in North Carteept the State itself is will go to the Lions Club better for this year's levy

The Hillsboro Business and Pro- States two days later on March 5, "Miss Hattie" began clerking in money in the bank. The hoped for year, when she sold the dress shop

> When interviewed, "Miss Hattie" for their loyalty and faithfulness to me through these years." Such tribute is justly hers. She was an esteemed and respected member of our business community. It is desirable that her talents now be di-Hillsboro's community life.

Pupil Dispute 'Status Quo' Is Maintained

being prepared by Person County seems to be that the "status quo

The matter came up for cor siderable discussion at Monday's neeting of the Board in Hillsboro with these results:

County Attorney A. H. Graham. through the Superintendent, let it be known he had no heart for defending a suit in which the county was obviously wrong.

Chairman Charles W. Stanford liver the first of six messages on said he had no interest in sticking the theme of the week, "The by a decision in which they were Church." An informal welcoming obviously wrong, but concluded no action could be taken at a twoman meeting with Jones still re-

o work out a satisfactory solu

Final conclusion: let the matter being included

Totin' Tax Man Resigns

collector in the Orange County tax department for the past two years, has submitted his resignation effective November 1 in as deputy sheriff in order to of the law if such services position at Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill next month and he carries with him a resolution of the County Commissioners, passed at last Monday's meeting, commending him for "excellent service" in his tax collection duties.

County Tax Bills Being Mailed Pledmont Packing Co, will explain This Week Following Settlement

Illustrated" is one of Oliver Clayton. The entire Lions taxes on Monday following ap. collected balance of $73,547.84 of htliest magazines pub- Club will work with the above cap- proval of the tax collector's settle- which $61,118.20 is included in ment on the 1957 levy by the land sales and $12,408.67 is class-County Commissioners and the

Commissioners Consider New County Meat Inspection Plan

Board Member Clarence Jones. who instigated the rebellion agains! advisedly clear reading of the assignment act of 1957, remained adament in his stand on accepting the 13 Person students at Ay-

Board Member John Hawkins. who joined with Jones in the action accepting the students, was

Board Member-Elect Ross Port er entered the discussion by urging continued negotiation by superintendents and board members ride as it is, while trying to get the Person Board to hold off on its suit until the legislature can meet and possibly amend the law to provide administrative remedy when counties disagree as is the case in the three county argument between Orange, Person and Cas-

In formal action the board went on record as favoring this county

> Is Wednesday A public meeting to discuss road the rapidly closing plant in Carrservice in the Seventh Highway Di- boro.

Orange's Gun

Frank Maddry, delinquent tax

A gentle, kindly man, Maddry was possibly the only tax collector in the world who went about his duties wearing a.gun and blackjack. Maddry, a police officer and deputy sheriff for over two decades, was sworn be abie to serve as an officer were needed.

There is no record that his weapons were ever needed in he tax collection their availability on the hip of he collector often brought amused conversation.

Maddry will take a security

Odds are his successor, who s likely to be selected at the meeting of the Board set for October 20, will not be hired as a "gun totin" collector.

Chairman of the sale, Lion F. E. ting the bad news, tax-wise, this for collection amounted to $685,

Orange County citizens are get- The total 1957 levy turned over 038.66 and gross collections and captains Ed Hamlin, C. B. Parris. The office of the tax supervisor credits allowed during the year Ben Johnston. John Ballard and began mailing out bills for 1958 totalled $611,490.82, leaving an un. Dpartment of Hillsboro High School. ed as insolvent and $20.97 is un-

The total of the 1958 levy given on her grocery list and that we are type are feasible.

dinner will honor Dr. Blackburn as he is greeted by the officers of the sponsoring churches Sunday evening at 6:00 o'clock at th Colonial A Noonday Prayer Service will be conducted daily Monday through Erdiay at the host church by min-the Orange County economy, may

Road Meeting

vision will be held on October 15 tend and discuss road matters. In matter.

It is the policy of the Highway to time, special public meetings

Demonstration

On Meats Set

the various cuts of meat and how will demonstrate the correct cook-teacher, says she has long 'felt and cook it properly?

to buy them,

For District

Tax Reduction Sought

From County By Pacific

which pose a continuing threat to ty government revenue.

Sagging textile industry values, put an additional crimp in coun in the District Highway Office in by the Commissioners, meeting as Graham, T. A. Burton - Division a Board of Equalization and Re-

The conference will be held on Barrell company, owners of the Wednesday between the hours of Belle Vue Manufacturing Co.

10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. and from plant at Hillsboro, has been seek

1:30 to 3:30 p.m. During this time, ing a reduction in its tax assess-county and civic officials from the ment on the basis of what it five Piedmont Counties-Alamance, claims is an "unrealistic" valua-

Caswell, Orange, Guilford and Rock- tion placed on its property, main-ingham - of the Seventh Highway ly machinery. No action has been Division have been invited to at taken by the county yet in this addition to Burton, the Highway According to the complaint of Commission will be represented by Pacific, machinery for tax assess-the Assistant Division Engineer, ment has been set up by the coun-

Paul L. Welch, and the two Dist ty on a valuation of $658,070, 70% trict Engineers, Layton H. Gunter of the actual value, when it should

Religious Emphasis Week Begins

Latest complaint of over-valuation has come from Pacific Mills division of Burlington Industries

Pacific's Tax Counselor E. R.

Zane of Greensboro has asked for a hearing by the County Commissioners on his request for a reduction of over one-third on the tax assessment on the machinery at A hearing has been scheduled on its Carrboro Mills property.

Here Sunday For Four Churches Sunday morning Worship services services will be heralded daily by time to attend during the lunch at the four Hillsboro churces will the church bell and will end by hour, mark the beginning of Hillsboro 12:30 o'clock to provide worshippers

On Wednesday night the civic organizations of Hillsboro will be honored as special guests and will sit by organizations in a body for the service. Thursday will present a similar honor for the young peo- Department and is patterned afple of the community as Youth ter a similar ordinance in Dur-ices will be provided by the choirs of the Baptist, Methodist, and Presbyterian Churches, Directors of F. Warren, and Mrs. C. D. Jones.

low the Friday night closing servthis occasion in hte new fellowship hall of the church. The people of Hillsboro and surrounding commutend this week of special services. stamp or brand of Orange County

Early Returns

Good in Scout

Finance Drive

il father of last year's reigning don, and Clarence D. Jones of Hillsboro, vice chairman of Orange

G. P. Carr, Scout Executive

Kimbrough also participated in community drive chairman, as

The Cedar Grove Methodist o'clock. Dinner will be served from

HARVEST FESTIVAL

tival Saturday afternoon

be assessed at no more than $431.- 4 to 8 o'clock consisting of barbe-

440, which is 70% of $616.343 cue, brunswick stew, hot dogs and

Expected To Attract Thousands

AT CEDAR GROVE

New Program Is Proposed By Dr. Garvin

The Orange County Commissioners have taken under advisement a proposed ordinance setting up a county meat inspection program.

The ordinance was recon mended by the District Health ham County, according to Dr. O. Special music for the nightly serv- D. Garvin, who presented the proposal to the Board at Monday's

The proposed ordinance was turned over to County Attorney A. Reverend Bruce Cresson, Mrs. R. H. Graham for his study and rec

Under the ordinance, it would be unlawful to sell or process meat ice. The women of the sponsoring for human consumption unless prior thereto it has been subjected to inspection by an official veterinarian approved by the Orange County Board of Commissioner nities are cordially invite dto at- and stamped with an official

> Principal slaughterers in county now are the Piedmont Packing Company and the Farm ers Exchange Livestock Market. Robert Nichols and Henry S

Hogan, Farmers Exchange officials, told the Board the proposed ordinance met their approval. Collections of over $500 had

A Piedmont Packing Co. officia! been turned in by the end of the said his company had not been first day in Hillsboro's annual Boy consulted on the proposed ordin-Scout fund drive, which got un ance but that they were followderway following an enthusiastic ing federal regulations relative to "kickoff" breakfast Tuesday slaughtering and inspection considerably more stringent than the Over 70 persons atended the al. county proposal.

fair at Colonial Inn to receive The matter is expected to come their instructions and hear pep up for further discussion and talks on the value of Scouting by possibly decision at the next Elisha Herndon of Durham, vice meeting of the Board on October president of Occoneechee Coun- 20.

Farm Bureau Member Drive Frank Yandell and the Rev. S. T. Begins Monday

the program with E. J. Hamlin. The Orange County Farm Bureau will begin the annual membership drive on Monday night at Aycock School at 7 o'clock with all community captains and workers at tending from the seven townships.

> Robert W. Parker, Director of Information for the N. C. Farm Bureau, will address the captains and workers on the subject, "Will Farmers Meet the Challenge of County president, Will Dorsett, > announced that a county quota of 250 members has been set for Orange County which should be reached within one week Farm Bureau leaders here say that an increase in membership > will permit the farmers of the colunty to have a greater voice in the policies and activites of the State organization. "We farmers are dependent or our organization to express our needs and desires, and unless we support that organization financial ly and with ideas it can not be as effective as it should to help us hold our own in this day of organized groups," declared president

There will be a fall festival held a: Union Grove Methodist Church sandwiches, hot dogs, brunswick stew, drinks (hot and cold, jelly, for tomorrow's project. The public guest speaker in the Chapel Hill The average examination will re- from anywhere in the state is Baptist Church, where he was or-with the various Boards of County Such a reduction, if allowed, will cakes and pies will be sold. within the respective counties of effect a reduction of $1,858.12 in For tickets call Mrs. Everett the tax bill of the corporation. the Seventh can be discussed with the State's highway enginers, Bur-Vast Cancer Detection Project

Commission to arrange, from time which the company claims was the drinks, homemade ice cream and true value on the assessment date, hot coffee.

Would you like to win a steak for supper and learn how to select phrase, "Say Ah" to the first exam- and a pathology report will be Then come to the Hillsboro High School auditorium Tuesday, Oct. 14. to learn that they are free of can- receives treatment. at 7:30. Everett Kennedy of the tistry in Chapel Hill, Duke and record turn-out at Friday's clinic. Watts Hospitals in Durham, thous- "We expect to do a rushing busi-Mrs. Margaret Beatty, Home ands of people will be examined ness all day long. How can we Economist of the Duke Power Co., free at the clinics jointly sponsor- miss?" he asked. "The examinaed by the American Cancer So- tion is painless and it's free." ing methods for meats. This is ciety and the North Carolina Dentsponsored by the Home Economics al Society.

Mrs. Glenn Auman, vocational Orange and Durham Counties den- oral dental clinic of this type ever tists who are contributing their held was conducted in Minnesota that the average housewife prob- time. The project will be studied last year on a one-county basis. ably knows less about buying and by the Dental Society to learn if More than 1,900 were examined. cooking meats than any other item future statewide clinics of this No pre-registration is required Dr. Charles E. Maddry will be quire only from two to three min- welcome, it was announced.

Promptly at 11 o'clock tomorrow utes. The clinic closes at 7 p.m. morning, 50 dentists in Orange and If suspicious lesions are found, Durham counties will utter the biopsies will be immediately taken inees in a vast one-day oral can- made to the person's doctor or cer detection project expected to dentist. The ACS will follow up reattract thousands who are anxious ports to make certain the patient Dr. Marvin Evans, a spokesman

At the University School of Den- for the dental society, predicted a Guesses as to how many will be examined Friday range from two to The checkups are being done by seven thousand. The only other and farm products.

Don't Forget -- Lions' Light Bulb, Candy Canvass For Blind Tomorrow