

Shelley's wife's work is published here

For the first time the complete text of a novelette written by the wife of one of the world's foremost poets has been printed, along with the original rough draft of the story.

"Mathilde," by Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley, wife of Percy Bysshe Shelley, has just been published by the University Press, released last Saturday.

Edited by Dr. Elizabeth Nitchie, professor emeritus of English at Goucher College, the volume also includes the opening pages of the rough draft, "The Fields of Fancy," as the novelette was originally to be titled.

'Singh' equals 'Smith' says Indian visitor

"Singh" is a rather uncommon name in North Carolina. But in India it is something like Jones and Smith. "Every other taxi driver in India is named Singh," said Dr. Jaipan Singh, a member of the Indian Parliament who was a visitor in Chapel Hill last week. He lectured to classes in political science.

Dr. Singh saw the Carolina-State football game and was reminded of his own days at Oxford University in England. "I was a member of the Oxford Blues," he said.

He headed a field hockey team which won at the Olympics of 1928.

Two courses offered over Station WUNC-TV

Credit courses for year-long instruction by means of television are being offered beginning yesterday, through Channel 4, WUNC-TV.

German I is taught Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Social Science I is taught at 8 p.m. the same nights.

University credit is given. Applications should be made to the UNC Extension Division, Abernethy Hall, Chapel Hill.

It is the first time the University has offered a full year of courses via TV.

SARTIN HD CLUB NEWS

Members of the Sartin Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Lillie M. Beasley for their September meeting.

Mrs. Eva Roger presided. The group sang "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands," after which they repeated together the Club Collect.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved as was the treasurer's report.

The demonstration, "Better Lighting in the Home For Better Vision," was given by Mrs. B. B. Davis, Home Agent. After this informative demonstration, everyone agreed that it was wise to invest in better lighting.

Mrs. Flossie R. Wells, Sec.
