SCHLEY LEGION REPORT

The American Legion Post 452 and Auxiliary held an oyster supper at the September meeting.

The Post will sponsor an oyster supper October 21 at the Schley Grange Hall from 5 until 7:30 o'clock.

The Post was credited with 16 hours at the V.A. Hospital in Durham. On September 10 the following persons served refreshments to wards 9-A and B: Miss June Roland, G. A. Roland, Mrs. Parker Roland, Mrs. C. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Tommy Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hastings and Joe Compton.

The Auxiliary reports that it has received its 1958 membership quota and are entitled to the Department Citation.

Several members attended the Area meeting in Chapel Hill Oct. 7.

Local teachers are elected to NCEA jobs

At the East Carolina District of the NCEA meeting held in Durham Tuesday the following were elected as divisional officers from the locality:

Mrs. Irene Pender of Hillsboro, vice-president of Directors of Instruction; Ted Shoaf of Cameron Park School, president of Principals; Charles Langston of Aycock Hg't, secretary of Agriculture; Mrs. Helen Hardee of Chapel Hill, president of School Libraries; Dr. Samuel Holton, UNC, Chapel Hill, president of Social Studies and John Ellington of Chapel Hill secretary; Mrs. Evelyn Murdoch, Chapel Hill, vice-president of Special Education; and Jim Haymaker of Chapel Hill, vice-president of Art.

EXCELLENT TURN-OUT

Local Baptist pastors reported an excellent turn-out for the Sunday School Leadership Clinic at First Baptist Church recently. The school enrolled 233 persons, averaged 177 in attendance and had 136 people complete courses for credit in the Sunday School Training Program.

Miss Barbara Louise Forbes

Miss Barbara Louise Forbes is the daughter of Mrs. Guy Forbes of Durham and the late Mr. Forbes. Her engagement to Hugh Burch of Hillsboro is announced by her mother. The wedding is planned for Nov. 22.

UN week movies set

Next Tuesday the following movies will be shown without charge at Lincoln High School at 8 p.m. in connection with United Nations Week: "Overture", a 10 minute film (Academy Award Nominee — 1957); "What U.N. Means to Us", starring Robert Ryan; "The Answer Now", starring Robert Ryan, Tyrone Power, Raymond Massey, Henry Fonda, Vanessa Brown and Vincent Price; and, "Assignment Children", a 20-minute film, starring Danny Kaye.

Next Thursday the same movies will be shown without charge at 8 p.m. in Carroll Hall.

At 3, 8, and 10 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 24 the film, "Power Among Men," will be shown under the auspices of the Mayor's United Nations Committee and Graham Memorial Student Activities. This outstanding United Nations film will be shown without charge.

During the United Nations Week, Oct. 18-24, the U. N. Flags will be displayed on Franklin St. in Chapel Hill.

BATEMAN AT LEJEUNE

Marine Pvt. Gary G. Bateman, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Bateman of West Hillsboro, is scheduled to graduate Oct. 16 from an intensive four-week infantry training course at Camp Lejeune. This training, followed by two weeks leave, completes the basic Marine Corps training. Graduates are then assigned to specialist schools or a permanent duty assignment.

Scouts' drive reports slow for Hillsboro

Approximately $800 has been turned in thus far in the 1958 Hillsboro Boy Scout fund drive and a number of solicitors have not yet reported.

Chairman E. Wilson Cole urges all workers who have not made a complete report to finish by Monday so a complete report may be given at that time.

The drives among the citizens of Effland and the Negro citizens of Hillsboro have exceeded last year, but at the time no figures are immediately available, nor were reports of campaigns in the rural sections.

Church breakfast set for St. Luke's Day

Dr. Jerry Pickrel, Resident Pathologist at North Carolina Memorial Hospital, has announced a special breakfast to be held by those in the healing profession on Sunday after an 8 a.m. service of Holy Communion at the Church of the Holy Family. Special prayers will be offered for all those concerned with healing.

Dr. Pickrel said in announcing it, "This breakfast will commemorate St. Luke's day, Oct. 18. St. Luke was a physician, and it seems appropriate to us to especially celebrate this day in Chapel Hill where so many of us are concerned with healing." Cards of invitation have been mailed to parish members, but other persons will be welcome.

Pursuant to the public laws of North Carolina I will on Saturday, November 7, 1958, offer for sale at public auction at the Town Hall in Hillsboro the land listed below and which is described more fully in the city tax scrolls, on which 1958 taxes have not been paid. The sale in each case will be for the amount of tax shown in this advertisement plus a penalty of 5% per cent and an advertising and sales cost of $1.00.

This the 15th day of October, 1958.

Charlotte M. Cole, Tax Collector
