American flag is presented at Estes Hills

The Estes Hills School in Chapel Hill has been conducting a study on flag etiquette. Each class has had a unit on the correct use of the flag and proper respect for the National Anthem and every child in school has learned the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the words to the "Star Spangled Banner," according to Principal Mildred Mooneyhan.

The American Legion presented the school with a flag yesterday at 10 a.m. via a flag raising ceremony in front of the building. Officials from the local chapter of the Legion, two Marines from Durham, and the entire student body took part in the exercise.

The principal accepted the flag in behalf of the school. Fred Conner and Tim Merritt, sixth grade students, were chosen by their classmates to raise and lower the flag on the pole in front of the building each school day during the present term.

LOYALTY SUNDAY SET

More than 300 persons are expected to participate in Loyalty Sunday at the Church to the Holy Family this Sunday as the climax of a two week long program in which every family in the parish has been visited by a trained layman. Dr. John Sowler of the University Dental School has directed the training program for 35 laymen of the Church.

Each member of the parish will pledge anew his loyalty to his Church during the services at 8:45, and 11:15 a.m.

TO PRESENT HAIR STYLES

Evelyn Hinnant of the Carolina Beauty Shop in Chapel Hill will be one of six guest artists participating in a one-day educational clinic in hair styling at the Alamance Hotel in Burlington tomorrow. The meeting is being sponsored by the Hair Fashion Committee of the N.C. Cosmetologist Guild, Inc.

CHAPEL HILLIAN WINNER—A Chapel Hill coed at the University—Maxine Greenfield—was chosen winner of the annual Yackety-Yack beauty contest over 96 other entrants in live competition at Memorial Hall on Monday night. She is Maxine Greenfield, sophomore, a member of ADPi sorority. It's the first such win for Chapel Hill in over a decade—the last local yearbook queen having been Pat Hole in 1946.

FOUR-M COUNTY COUNCIL OFFICERS—Newly-installed officers of the county Four-M Council, seen at last week's Achievement Night ceremonies, are (left to right) Kenneth and Cynthia Walker, reporters; Virginia Ivey and Jane Dickey, song leaders; Ellen Bacon, treasurer; Nancy Roberts, vice-president; and Michael Walker, president.
