HILLSBORO AND CHAPEL HILL, N. C. THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1960

AS SIGNIFICANT FROM A financial standpoint as the New Year's top (photo this page) was in terms of prestige, is the last baby born in the old year at Memorial Hospital. In Orange County it was David Carroll Elliot, a healthy 1959 income tax deduction who qualified for this purpose by being born on New Year's Eve to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Elliot of the Tar Heel Trailer Court. He's a UNC student from Stony Point.

'MIGHTY SLOW,' SAYS CHAP- el Hill Tax Collector Dave Roberts of the progress of tax listing at the Chapel Hill Town Hall. Only 160 local residents had made their required annual appearances as of yesterday. Things were going a bit livelier at the adjoining desk for Township Tax List Taker L. R. Cheek.

AND A COUPLE OF BLOCKS down the street at the AAA office Charlie Stancell said business was steady in the purchase of new auto license plates. Just under 1,000 had been sold yesterday. He warned that some wives were forgetting to have husbands sign the reverse sides of registration cards, however.—The AAA outlet gets $10 a sale for handling the license business. Last year they sold 10,000. Heavy traffic, but a lot of book work.

THERE'S KIND OF A TIE-IN between the annexation and Carrboro school purchase proposals in the minds of many of the objectors to the annexation. They feel the debt service cost of the $90,000 municipal building project, in addition to bonding resulting from the proposed annexations, could not fail to require a significant raise in town taxes, an official survey on this matter notwithstanding.

THE STATE COLLEGE School of Design Dean, in a full-page castigation of outmoded architecture in North Carolina as carried in last Sunday's News and Observer, took some particularly hard pokes at the Williamsburg facades of University buildings in Chapel Hill. Somehow he missed out on the latest Williamsburg building housing UNC's most modern facility—the electronic brain in Phillips Hall annex. The new three-story structure has a formally ornate front seldom seen by the public, and facing the old Building Department at the rear of the building.

CHAPEL HILL POLICE CAPT. Coy Durham won double honors at Tuesday night's Exchange Club installation program. He became President of the Club for 1960—then a few minutes later was announced as the Club's Exchange-ite of the Year. Other new officers are Roy Cole, Vice-President; John Jones, Secretary; Nello Clark, Treasurer; and Julian Caston, George Poe, and Wallace Williams, Board of Control. (More PEALINGS on back page)

Leap Year Lass...

ORANGE'S NEWEST CITIZEN— Orange County's first citizen of the '60s is a black-haired baby girl born 22 minutes after the beginning of Leap Year. Winner of the annual un-scheduled derby at Memorial Hospital is Nancy Karen Vickers, first child born to Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Kenneth Vickers Jr., of the Mt. Carmel community south of Chapel Hill. Dr. Luther Talbert spanked life into the seven pound-five ounce infant at 12:22 a.m. Jan. 1. Mrs. Vickers, the former Ruth Ellen Hundley of the Mt. Carmel neighborhood—and also an ex-employee at the Hospital—entered the maternity ward about five hours previously. Mom and baby were reported in fine fettle Tuesday as they left for home. The Vickers said the birth had been expected right around the end of the year—but they hadn't anticipated the New Year's Eve count-down.
