METHODIST CIRCLES NEW YEAR THEME

Circles of the Society of Christian Service of the Carrboro Methodist Church met Monday with the president Mrs. Garland Whitfield, presiding. The program had a new year theme, under the direction of Mrs. Willis Knight, vice-president, and program chairman of the Society. The devotional was given by Mrs. Herbert Watson, using as her topic "A New Years Meditation." Mrs. Whitfield gave a report of accomplishments of the society last year and plans were discussed for the future. She later served punch with cake spelling "Happy New Year," nuts and mints.

CHURCH OF GOD REVIVAL

Revival Services began Sunday at the Church of God. Assisting in the services each evening at 7 o'clock is the Rev. Mitchel Edwards, of Creswell, soloist, who plays the guitar. Mr. Edwards has just returned from attending a pastors school in Panama. The pastor of the Carrboro Church of God is the Rev. A. A. Hannah.

FIRE AT WOMBLES'

A fire causing much damage was discovered early last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. W. C. Womble on Route Three, Chapel Hill. The fire in the Essel Womble apartment of the home was caused by a shortage in a drop cord. Mr. Womble returning home after a short absence, found the fire burning a chair, curtains and other furniture in the room. Calling in help, the men were able to confine the fire to this one room. But for a time it was a hard fight with the flames.

BAPTIST W.M.U. HONORS MRS. STOKES

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Carrboro Baptist Church met Tuesday evening. Mrs. W. E. Williams, president of the society, presided. A program on Cuba was given by the Florence Lide Circle, with Mrs. Frances Latta as chairman.

The meeting in the church basement was followed by a reception honoring Mrs. Henry B. Stokes, wife of the pastor of the church here for the past five years. Mrs. Stokes, a loyal worker in the society, was presented a lovely lace table cloth. The Stokes family will leave soon for their new home in Tryon, where the Rev. Mr. Stokes has accepted a call to become the Pastor of the First Baptist Church there.
