

Chapel Hill annexes 48-acre area

—See story on Page 2

The News of orange county

—Chapel Hill, Hillsboro, Carrboro—Between and Beyond—

VOL. 67, NO. 4

HILLSBORO AND CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1960

24 PAGES

Orange Pealings

SEN. EVERETT JORDAN, IN his latest newsletter to his constituency, served notice that he doesn't intend to let the controversial Cape Fear River be dropped. He's prodding the Corps of Engineers and Soil Conservation Service to finish their survey. A likely proposal of this survey may be erection of the "high dam" on New Hope Creek — a dam that would back up a 30-mile lake to flood the eastern lowgrounds in Chapel Hill.

THE RANDOM TOOTS OF THE Chapel Hill fire horn during the past week didn't represent indecision — just an accident — whereby remote control wires in the telephone exchange were shorted, causing the fearful "whonks."

A WOMAN TELEPHONE caller appeals to the Parking Association and/or the Town of Chapel Hill to take action to protect pedestrians in the merchants parking lot downtown. After she was nearly run down by a driver backing into a parking space, she said, she received a severe tongue lashing in thanks for her narrow escape. Police noted it's private property and they can't get. The Association folks told her they hoped the Town would take over the lot. Crystal ball tells her civil lawsuits may result from bad situation like this.

THE TENDER SENSES OF diners at the Duke banquet for the Press Institute last Friday night were protected by the hosts. Paul Young's "Triple Quartet," singing the show tune "Everything's Up To Date In Kansas City," repeated the second verse of the song twice rather than sing the risqué third stanza about "... They got a big the-ay-ter they call the burleycue; for fifty cents you can see a dandy show. ..."

IT MAY SURPRISE EVEN municipal officials, but the pending annexation to Chapel Hill of 92 acres in the Estes Hills area will outflank and encircle about half of Mt. Bolus.

TOWN MANAGER THOMAS D. Rose showed the benefits of long practice in such chores as he speedily zipped through the reading of a lengthy formal ordinance for a Chapel Hill bond sale night before last. But when Town Attorney Jack LeGrand took over to read another legal whopper, the nimble-tongued barrister put the Town Manager in the shade. On completion of his tobacco auctioneer-type reading one alderman moved adoption of the ordinance "as read." Another quipped, in correction, that they'd better adopt it "as written" instead.

GRAPHIC SIGN OF OUT-DAT-ed school construction as noted at the Northside area annexation hearing in Chapel Hill this week: (More PEALINGS on Page 12)

TO CONFER WITH PEACE PLANNERS — Merrill Gay of the Economic Affairs Division of the U. S. State Department will come to Chapel Hill next Wednesday to confer with the local group which is drawing up a plan it will urge this country to consider in the interests of world-wide peace.

—See story on Page 2

Outbreak of 'flu strikes Hillsboro

—See story on Page 9

★ ★ ★

Bond referendum set for March 8

—See story on Page 2

★ ★ ★

School board lets Glenwood contract

—See story on Page 9

★ ★ ★

New effort urged on de-segregation

—See story on Page 9

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS AT SCHOOL CAFETERIA — Lunching at the Hillsboro High School Cafeteria during their January meeting are members of the County School Board (left to right) Don Cleveland of Chapel Hill and Ross Porter and Charlie Walker of Hillsboro. Mrs. Mildred Kennedy of the lunch-room staff is serving them. News-Photo

Press Run This Issue

7,537

99 PCT. DISTRIBUTED IN ORANGE COUNTY