Railway Express seeking new name

"What's in a name?" William Shakespeare once asked.

Railway Express Agency employees here and at other express offices throughout the nation currently have the chance to find out.

The Railway Express management is now actively looking for a new corporate name, it was announced here by L. A. Williams, Agent.

A nationwide contest among express employees, June 27 to July 26, has been launched to help find a suitable new name.

The express official said the company hopes to find one more befitting the modern-day express business and its diversified and far-flung domestic and international services by air, highway and sea as well as by rail.

Highway hearing set for next Wednesday

Residents of the five-county area comprising the Seventh Highway Division will have an opportunity to present road requests, petitions and problems to representatives of the Seventh Division at a public hearing here on Wednesday, July 20. Announcement of the hearing was made today by Division Engineer T. A. Barton.

City and county officials, along with the general public, are invited to attend the hearing if they have road requests which they feel should receive attention.

The hearing will be held on Wednesday, July 20, in the Audio Visual Room of the High Point Library, between the hours of 1:30 and 4 p.m.

This is one in a series of public hearings being held in the Seventh Division, which is composed of Rockingham, Caswell, Guilford, Alamance and Orange Counties.
