Go to GOP convention? Not this one, anyhow

Would the Carolina students like to attend the Republican Convention in Chicago, too? "Perhaps some other time," said one of them, "but right now I'm tired out. We stayed up late every night, and were up again early in the morning. We drove from Washington to Los Angeles and back again." The UNC political scientists were interns also in Wash-ington, D. C., in the Congress for five weeks prior to the con-vention. The Congressional in-ternship is an annual program arranged between the Univer-sity and members of the Con-gress, and financed by the Falk Foundation.

The five are Mike Childs of Wilson; Tom Efford of Gas-toria; Glenn Johnson of Frank-ort, Ky.; Bob Silliman of New-ton, Mass.; and Jeff Lawrence of Washington, D. C.
