

Knapp gives $50,000 to cool Institute of Govt.

The Knapp Foundation, Inc. of New York City has given $50,000 to the University to be used in air-conditioning the Joseph Palmer Knapp Building here which houses the Institute of Government.

President of the Knapp Foundation and W. D. Carmichael Jr., Vice-President of the University jointly announced the gift.

The Knapp Foundation gave $500,000 in 1952 to match an equal amount from the state of North Carolina to build the structure named for Joseph P. Knapp, former business executive and publisher of Colliers Weekly, The American Magazine, the Woman's Home Companion and other magazines.

Mr. Knapp died in 1951, and the gift in memory of her husband was made by the widow, Mrs. Margaret Ruth Knapp. Both Mr. and Mrs. Knapp donated generously to educational and cultural projects in North Carolina, including programs in Currituck County where they maintained a home, the Institute of Fisheries Research at Morehead City, and the University at Chapel Hill.

An idea, to be suggestive, must come to the individual with the force of a revelation.
