A PRE-TRIAL HEARING IS scheduled in federal court at Greensboro tomorrow in the Stanley Vickers public school desegregation case. The Chapel Hill School Board's attorney, J. Q. LeGrand, will argue the merits of the Board's motion to strike portions of the amended complaint filed recently in the NAACP-sponsored lawsuit.

AND A TWO-WEEK MIXED civil and criminal term of Orange County Superior Court has been tentatively scheduled this month, beginning three weeks from next Monday (Sept. 26). It's quite likely that the entire portion of the criminal term will be occupied with trial of the four defendants recently arrested in the Reverie Lingerie Mills arson case at Hillsboro. It occurred almost three years to the day from the potential trial—on Sept. 27, 1957.

COUNTY REPUBLICAN Chairman and Congressional candidate Col. Holland Robb went to Washington Tuesday for a two-day meeting of GOP Congressional candidates — the first such session ever sponsored by the national party. It's part of the Republicans' "intensive drive to recapture the House this fall," he said.

AND ON THE OTHER SIDE of the partisan fence, it's been announced from Raleigh that Chapel Hill's Bob Cox has been appointed to a group to get out the young people's vote for the Democratic Party in the general election.

THE CHAPEL HILL KIWANIS formally challenged the Rotarians to an all-day golf match at Pinehurst this weekend. The good Rotarians in brief privy council agreed they couldn't field as massive a squad of linksmen as their brother civic clubbers, but returned a counter proposal that an afternoon match of lesser proportions be arranged at Finley Golf Course.

FORMAL NOTICE OF THE anti-fluoridation lawsuit filed recently by Manning Simons was served on Consolidated University President William C. Friday last Monday. The University actually has 30 days from the date of the service to file its reply to the civil action, which seeks an injunction to prevent the University Service Plants from adding the fluoride treatment to the water filtration system.

BRYAN KEITH-LUCAS, BROTHER of Alan Keith-Lucas of the UNC social work faculty was a visitor in Chapel Hill last week from Oxford, England where he is a professor of local government at Oxford U. and incidentally, one of the 63 council members for the city. While most of the members of that body are

First day & grade-getting acquainted:

Among the almost 4,000 pupils who turned out for the opening of the fall term of classes in Orange County schools Tuesday were Mary Martha Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Sanders of Hillsboro. She's being introduced by teacher Miss Annie Cameron, to Johnny Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott of Route Two, Hillsboro. In the same first grade classroom at Cameron Park School Miss Cameron greets a happy new pupil (left), Peggy Lou Overaker, while a not-so-happy tot looks on tearfully.
