UN Day head for Hillsboro is Matheson

A Hillsboro United Nations Day Committee to plan community activities has been appointed by Mayor Ben Johnson.

Don S. Matheson was named by the Mayor to head United Nations Day Committee. Serving with him on the committee will be Mrs. E. J. Hamlin, Grady Brown, Steve Kimbrough, and Ted Shoaf.

Mayor Johnson announced formation of the United Nations Day Committee in response to a request from the United States Committee for the United Nations which is delegated by the President of the United States each year to promote the nationwide observance of United Nations Day throughout the country.

October 24, 1945 was the day that the United Nations officially came into being. The theme for the 1960 celebration of United Nations Day is "The UN Meets New Needs."
