A SPECIAL CIVIL TERM OF Orange County Superior Court has been called for the week of Nov. 21-25. N. C. Chief Justice Wallace Winborne ordered the session for the hearing of motions on the log-jam in civil docket. Judge L. Richardson Preyer of Greensboro will preside.

THE COUNTY ABC BOARD asks that it be announced that the ABC stores must by law be closed all day tomorrow in observance of Veterans Day (formerly Armistice Day), Nov. 11.

THE COUNTY'S ABC OFFICERS nabbed a bootleg liquor maker at his rig hard by the town park in Hillsboro last week. Last Monday, as they adjourned their meeting in Hillsboro, the ABC Board members were interested to see the defendant walking out of Orange County Store No. One with his legally-made purchase tucked under arm.

THIS BOOTLEGGER, INCIDENTALLY, was nabbed on the basis of a tip for which the officers paid the informant 50 cents! The Board considers money it pays to informers—generally $15 to $20 per instance—to be the best money they spend for law enforcement. The sum of $500 has been allocated for this purpose.

POSTAL AUTHORITIES AND police in Chapel Hill recently arrested a traveling magazine salesman on charges of theft from mailboxes. The peddler checked in at the police department at 9:30 and got his permit to solicit magazine subscriptions. A half-hour later, in response to complaints along N. Columbia St., he was in jail under $1,000 bond for pilfering from mail boxes.

E. FRANKLIN ST. MERCHANTS in Chapel Hill met yesterday to discuss their project to have a metal marquee constructed over the sidewalk of the main business block. It appears the cost will be $30 to $40 a foot. They decided to call a formal meeting again in the near future to sign up merchants to install the sidewalk roofing.

MRS. SUSIE WEAVER OF Chapel Hill, is the winner of the annual Beauticians Popularity Contest sponsored by the Carolina Times, Durham Negro weekly, will get a free round-trip airplane flight to Hawaii.

A CONSIDERATE THIEF IN Raleigh made off with a Chapel Hill woman's pocketbook at the bus station there the other day, but left her a ticket to get home. Mrs. Louise Jenkins told capital city police that her pocketbook containing $9 and the ticket was taken while she was napping in the waiting room. Officers found the pocketbook in a trash can in the men's room — with the bus ticket still in it.

A CHECK OF CARRBORO'S voting record for the last 30 years does not disprove this maxim told to us by a local resident yesterday: Carrboro is always an accurate bell-wether in general elections. Or, as the saying runs, as Carrboro goes, so goes the nation. 'T' was true this week.
