

Carrboro News — Social & Personal

TELEPHONE MRS. IRA MANN — 942-1481

METHODIST REVIVAL

The Rev. Allison Simonton of Durham is assisting the Rev. A. S. Parker, pastor of the Carrboro Methodist Church, in a series of revival services each evening this week through Friday evening at the church here. On next Sunday evening March 26, the choir of the church will render a program of sacred Easter music at the regular evening worship period.

REVIVAL AT NEW HOPE

Revival Services will begin next Sunday evening at the New Hope Presbyterian Church several miles north of Chapel Hill. The Rev. Samuel Fudge, pastor extends a most cordial invitation to every one to attend these services. Services have been planned for each evening at 7:30.

W. M. S. IS MEETING

Members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Carrboro Baptist Church are in attendance this week at the Annual Associational Woman's Missionary Society being held in the Angier Ave. Baptist Church in Durham.

ALICE KAY ELLISOR

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ellisor of Lexington announce the birth of a daughter Alice Kay, on March 18, in a Lexington hospital. They have a son, Paul, who is eight. Mrs. Ellisor is the former Miss Pauline Roberts of Hillsboro and Mr. Ellisor is formerly of Carrboro.

WILLIAM MERRITT IS TWO

William Merritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Merritt of Route Three, was two years old last Sunday and a wonderful birthday party was given at the Merritt home for the occasion when all children present enjoyed ice cream, cup cakes, Easter Bunnies, Easter candies and lollipops. The following were pres-

Deaths

EDNA EARLE TROWBRIDGE

Funeral services for Mrs. Edna Earle Trowbridge, 86, of Chapel Hill were held in Anderson, S. C. yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Trowbridge died at her home in Chapel Hill Monday night after being in declining health for a year.

Surviving are one daughter, Miss Jessie Trowbridge of Chapel Hill; one son, Joe Earle Trowbridge of Gollisboro; two sisters, Mrs. Samuella E. Mayes of Anderson, S. C. and Mrs. Isabell Morgan of Chapel Hill; one brother, Lucius D. Webb of Anderson, S. C.; and two grandchildren.

HONOR FERGUSON—Clyde V. Ferguson, left, recently retired Soil Conservation Aid of Orange County, is presented an engraved silver bowl on behalf of Soil Conservation Service personnel by Work Unit Conservationist Quentin Paterson.

ent for the party: Betty Sue and Janice Cole, Betsy and Walter Womble, Sara Ruth and Ray Dunn, Connie, Debbie and Warren Womble, Debbie Clark, Tommy Merritt, Rachel Carver and Van Bennett.

BAPTIST REVIVAL SET

A series of Revival services will be held at the Carrboro Baptist Church April 16. The Rev. Don Cook, of Pamlico, S. C. will assist the pastor the Rev. Calvin Rains in these services.

GLEANERS AT MRS. WILLIAMS'

A most interesting meeting of The Gleaners Sunday School class of the Carrboro was held on Wednesday evening of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duke Williams.

CARRBORO PTA ELECTS

Mrs. Joy Neville has been elected President of the Carrboro PTA for the 1961-62 school year. Other officers chosen at the group's meeting last Thursday included Mrs. Fleta Mae Poole first vice-president; Mrs. Elgia Yates, second vice-president; and Mrs. Virginia Wilson, Secretary-Treasurer.

MEET AT FREELANDS'

Last Sunday morning the Adult Sunday School Class of the Orange Methodist Church and the teacher V. A. Hoyle, met for study at the home of Mrs. A. J. Freeland, a member of the class who has been ill and unable to attend. The class met at her home instead of the church. Needless to say this was a happy day for Mrs. Freeland.

PERSONALS

J. R. Evans has been a patient at Watts Hospital, Durham since last Saturday.

Mrs. Floyd Siler, mother of Mrs. Billy Merritt has been a patient in Watts Hospital Durham for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Campbell and Mrs. W. R. Campbell Sr. also Mrs. R. B. English of Carrboro were visitors at the weekend to relatives in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Hugh Farrell, brother of Mrs. L. R. Sturdivant of Carrboro is a patient in a Siler City hospital.

Misses Gale and Randy Sue Ellis of Spruce Pine were visitors at the weekend to their aunt Mrs. Sallie Shambley, on Hillcrest St. The two young ladies attended Open House on Saturday at Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. E. H. Valentine is improving at her home on High St., after an illness of the last two weeks. Visitors at the weekend to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mann and family included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchel Matthews and small daughter Sherry, all of near Clinton.

Raymond Brewer of the Antioch community has been a patient in Watts Hospital, Durham since last Sunday.

Jesse Neville of the University Lake Road who is in his eighties suffered a slight stroke at his home last Sunday. Mr. Neville has only recently returned home after being a patient for some time in Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill.

CARRBORO DRIVE SUCCESSFUL

The Carrboro campaign in behalf of the Chapel Hill Red Cross Chapter's annual finance drive has exceeded already the amount raised in any similar drive for the chapter in the past 10 years, according to General Chairman I. G. Greer. Mrs. Jesse West has been in charge of residential solicitation and Calvin Burch, businesses. The drive there to date brought in $464.

Newly-wed Brittons at home in Charlotte

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller Britton of Charlotte were married there on Feb. 25 in the Christ Episcopal Church.

The bride is the former Doris Ann King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Preston King of Orange Grove Rd., Chapel Hill. Mr.

PRESENT FOR THE LIVING — Carrboro School Principal Klay Box spades around one of the trees recently donated to beautify the school grounds. They were given by the sixth grade class, as a memorial to the late Mrs. R. B. Studebaker, first grade teacher, and by Mrs. Bill Page of the school cafeteria staff in honor of her daughter, a pupil at the school. Mrs. Page also donated to the library several facsimile copies of historic American documents as gifts for her daughter to share with the school.

Hicks-Moody vows said here Friday evening

In an evening ceremony last Friday at the home of Mrs. Eronda Tripp, Miss Evelyn Marina Hicks and Harold Dean Moody were united in marriage. The Rev. James Morton of Carrboro performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry N. Hicks of Pittsboro. Mr. Moody is the son of Harold E. Moody of Chapel Hill and Mrs. Lora Murray of Durham.

Britton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston Britton Jr., of Charlotte.

Mrs. Britton was given in marriage by her father.

The Rev. Thom Blair performed the double-ring ceremony.

A graduate of Lenoir Rhyne College, Mrs. Britton has been on the Charlotte Memorial Hospital nursing staff. Mr. Britton is in charge of Carolinas operations for the Emery Air Freight Corp.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin street-length dress and carried a white Bible topped with white carnations. Her sisters, Mrs. Myrna Richardson and Mrs. Phala Walters, both of Florida, were bridesmaids. Akers N. Manning of Chapel Hill served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's sister at her home. The couple will live in Florida.

ANNOUNCING THE NEW

HANCOCK HOMES

14 HOUSE PLANS FROM WHICH TO CHOOSE

from $1,295 to $5,000

100% FINANCING AT 6% IF YOU OWN YOUR LOT

- ★ COMPLETELY UNDERPINNED
- ★ Rough Plumbing For Kitchen And Bath
- ★ Block Flue With Liner
- ★ Finishing Materials Furnished, If Desired
- ★ No Life Insurance Required
- ★ Fire Insurance Included in Financing

CALL 942-4250

NIGHT: 942-1180
OR WRITE

HANCOCK HOMES, INC.
Box 585, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Name: _____

Address: _____