

HILLSBORO HAPPENINGS

Social And Personal—Telephone 4191

GUILD MEETS

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Hillsboro Methodist Church met in the Church Monday night with Mrs. John Ballard hostess.

Mrs. Russell Rogers spoke to the group on the book of Genesis.

Members attending were: Mrs. Chandler Cates, Mrs. Foy Bartlett, Mrs. Vance Isenhour, Mrs. Harold Bivins, Mrs. Ted Smith, Mrs. Russell Rogers, Mrs. Anne Rhule, Mrs. Vance Martin, and Mrs. John Ballard.

VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burkhead spent Sunday in Greensboro visiting with his parents.

Driver injured when tractor falls on him

Leroy Miller, Hillsboro businessman, was painfully injured Tuesday afternoon when the tractor he was driving on his farm north of town flipped over and fell on him.

According to members of his family, Miller's leg was mashed to the bone and a rib was broken in the accident. He is hospitalized.

Reports of the accident indicated Miller was plowing a field with his tractor when its subsoiler attachment hit a stump and the tractor completely flipped over backwards. He was thrown from the seat, but his leg was caught. With the motor running and gasoline dripping over him, he was able to cut off the motor and drag himself from the tractor. Marvin Phelps, a neighbor, was working in a nearby field and heard his calls, to render help.

RETURNS

Miss Joy Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Paul Carr, returned home today from Skyland Camp, Clyde, N. C., where she has been on the staff for eight weeks. Joy is a rising senior at the University of North Carolina where she is majoring in Science Education.

HOME

Remus J. Smith Sr. returned to his home on W. Queen Street last Thursday after being a patient in Watts Hospital for several days.

BRIDGE

Mrs. K. C. Winecoff was hostess to the Women's Bridge Club yesterday.

The Couples Bridge Club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Strickland of the Fairview Community Saturday night.

HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahn and daughter, Leigh, of Michigan City, Indiana, are spending 10 days here with Mrs. Kahn's mother, Mrs. Bertha Crawford, of Occaneechee Street.

BUSICKS LEAVING

The Rev. and Mrs. Verlin Busick and family are moving Tuesday to Kildee in Randolph County where Mr. Busick has accepted a call to serve the Kildee Pilgrim Holiness Church. The Busicks have lived here in Hillsboro for six and a half years and in telling us of their leaving they wished to express their appreciation to the friendliness of the people of Hillsboro to them during their stay here.

HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haley and son, Frank Jr. and Mr. Haley's mother, Mrs. E. F. Haley, all of St. Petersburg, Fla., are here visiting with Mrs. Haley's (the former Annie Louise Smith) parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith.

There were approximately 23 members of the Smith family at dinner Sunday afternoon at their home on St. Mary's Road. All of the families were there except the Alfred Smiths of Columbia, S. C. They were planning to be here, but Mrs. Smith is a patient in a hospital there. Gordon Smith of Lumberton spent the weekend here with his family.

VISIT

Mrs. A. T. Lloyd, Miss Helen Lloyd and Miss Evelyn Lloyd spent Friday in Garner as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Bryan.

ATTEND SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lloyd and daughter, Evelyn, attended the Fifth Annual Justice Drug Holiday Gift Show in Greensboro Sunday evening. While there they were special guests of Bob Wells, Sales Representative for Justice Drug Co.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Harreil of Durham visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Williams Sunday.

LEAVE

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Conrad and son, Locke, have returned to their home in Wrightsville after spending last week here with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Williams and the Alton Williams family.

LEAVES

Sally Ann Allison of Burlington spent several days here last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Allison. Steve Allison of Charlotte visited with the Allisons in Kannapolis which he had joined last Thursday.

VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilmore and daughter, Jill, spent Sunday in Kannapolis visiting with Mrs. Gilmore's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Smith. It is reported that the Smiths are enjoying good health. The Rev. Mr. Smith, who was 85 years old Aug. 8, preached Sunday at the country church in

HOME

Mrs. Marion R. Cates returned to her home on Route One, last week after being a patient in Duke Hospital undergoing major surgery.

RETURNS

Mrs. E. R. Dowdy who was a patient at Duke Hospital has returned home and it is reported she is recuperating nicely.

for SHOES from SIS'S

Our Complete Line of SHOES for BACK-TO-SCHOOL for All Ages Is Your GUARANTEE of The STYLE, The QUALITY, and the PRICE You Want.

COME IN SOON AND SEE OUR NEW SHOES FOR FALL

STILL ON HAND—A FEW SUMMER CLOSEOUTS AT LOW, LOW PRICES

SIS'S SHOE STORE

HILLSBORO

FINAL SUMMER CLEARANCE

REDUCTIONS Up To 1/2 And More

- ★ DRESSES
- ★ LADIES BATHING SUITS
- ★ JAMAICA & BURMUDA SHORTS
- ★ BOYS & MEN'S SLACKS
- ★ BOYS LINED SPORT COATS

20% Off Men & Boys Sport Shirts	$1.00 HATS, BLOUSES, SKIRTS	$2.98 Each or 2 for $5 Girls Back-to-School DRESSES
--	---	--

SMITH'S READY-TO-WEAR

Hillsboro

FROM THE MINSTRELS FOR MUSIC—W. C. Mangum, Director of the Hillsboro Exchange Club's Ole Time Minstrels of 1961, presents a check for $1,100, proceeds from the Minstrel, to M. E. Allison (right), President of the Hillsboro Band Boosters Club. Looking on are Joe Hughes, President of the Hillsboro Exchange Club (left), and Bob Haas, Music Director of the Hillsboro Schools.

LATE SUMMER BARGAIN SALE STARTS TODAY

Shop Our Boxholder Tabloid For Outstanding Values