PERMIT

mittee a request for rezoning to suburban commercial of a proposed mobile homes sales lot on the Durham bypass highway.

Recommended equalizing of rear and side yard set-back lines for accessory buildings, with a request that consideration be given to such requirements in fall-out shelter construction.

Referred to the subdivision committee a request from Frank Carlisle for subdivision approval of his Rolling Hills development off the Pittsboro highway.

KING

(Continued from Page 8) know that anyone coming here to summer school is in dead earnest, and we oblige him with a concentrated course of studies that often surpasses his regular fall semester load," King says.

This summer, UNC had a record of over 7,000 registrations for both six-week sessions, King said, but some of these were repeats. Actually about 5,000 students studied in Chapel Hill during the three months.

AVID READER—Janet Dar-lene Cates, Route Two, Hillsboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Cates, has been awarded first prize in the Confederate Memorial Library's summer reading contest for children.
