

MISS CAROL ANNE WELBORN

Engagement of Carol Welborn is announced Sidney Sims, Thomas Gattis pledge vows

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Burton Welborn of High Point announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Anne, to Mr. Norman Leon Andrews of High Point, son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Chester James Andrews of Mount Gilead. The Rev. Mr. Andrews is pastor of Mount Gilead Methodist Church.

Miss Welborn prepared for college at Saint Mary's Junior College in Raleigh and attended High Point College where she was a member of Kappa Delta Sorority.

Mr. Andrews received his education at North Carolina State College and High Point College where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He has been associated with High Point Savings and Trust Company in High Point since his release from active duty in the army in March, 1961.

Miss Welborn and Mr. Andrews will be married in a Chapel Ceremony at Wesley Methodist Church in High Point in late October.

Miss Sidney Ann Sims of Hillsboro and Thomas Howland Gattis of Durham were married at the Hillsboro Methodist Church on Saturday. Rev. Robert G. Harris Jr. was the officiating minister for the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by Mrs. Allen Lloyd, organist.

Mrs. Gattis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sims of Hillsboro. She is a graduate of the Watts Hospital School of Nursing. Mr. Gattis, son of Mrs. Esther Brown and the late George Gattis, was graduated from Durham High and is now a senior electrical engineering student at State College.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of peau de soie which had a scoop neckline and long sleeves ending in calla points. The neckline was accented by lace applique, seed pearls and sequins. The chapel train extended from a bow at the center back. Her tiered veil of French illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried bride's roses and fleur d'amour on a white Bible.

Hillsboro junior high football rally held

A football rally for the Junior High football team was held in the Hillsboro High School gymnasium Tuesday night, Aug. 29, at 7:30 o'clock with Scott Cates leader of the rally.

G. A. Brown, principal of Hillsboro High School, gave a summary of the origin of the junior high football program, its place in the school, and the benefit it is to the boys who participate.

Varsity backfield coach, Fred Claytor, talked briefly on how the junior high program was helping the varsity football program.

After Coach Claytor's remarks, Hugh Burch, Junior high coach, outline the entire football program to the group. It was brought out clearly that school work and the development of good attitudes should take precedence over the actual playing of the game.

A challenge was given to the group by Scott Cates to raise money to help the school bear the financial burden of supporting the Junior high football program.
