EVIDENCE FOR PENDING criminal trials in the Chapel Hill Recorder's Court, as catalogued in the local police department yesterday: (1) A rusted, pre-Civil War left-handed broad axe; and (2) a guitar with a big hole bashed in the back of the sounding box. —Both objects are officially designated as "deadly weapon in court warrants.

COST OF MONTHLY RENTAL on street lights proposed for erection in the newly-annexed sectors of town was the topic of discussion before the Carrboro commissioners on Tuesday night when suddenly—the lights went out. A transformer fuse controlling the Town Hall and the adjoining softball diamond lights had blown. With little ado or change of subject the Board adjourned to the police department office in the adjoining building, which was unaffected by the interruption.

A PROGRAM FLYER WITH A pretty gal's photo on the cover side announces that soprano Ethel Casey will give her second New York recital on Sunday evening, Oct. 1, in Carnegie Hall. Mrs. Casey, who is from Raleigh, was well-known to local theatre audiences in recent years, particularly for her part in the Playmakers' presentation of "Carousel." She was a voice pupil of Walter Golde's in Chapel Hill last year, and made her singing debut in New York's Town Hall last season.

WHATEVER QUESTION MAY be raised concerning the parking ticket situation in Chapel Hill (story on Page 12, this issue), cannot be said that the department is not doing an uncommonly efficient job. The official report for the month of August shows that traffic ticket collections exceeded the number of tickets issued by over $1,000. Total number of autos tagged for traffic violations: 2,229 at $1 each. Total collected during the month, likewise at $1 per ticket: $3,431. (How about that for a public P and L statement?!!)

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT of Public Schools Paul Carr and Mrs. Carr sustained minor injuries last Friday night when their auto was rammed from the rear as they were driving out of Raleigh on U. S. Highway 70, bound to see Mr. Carr's mother who lives down east. Their vehicle was knocked down an embankment, causing about $580 damage. The offending driver was charged with careless and reckless driving by investigating officers.

Lady-in-waiting becomes a queen...

FROM RUNNER-UP TO ROYALTY—Susan Kay Woodall, the newly-designated Miss North Carolina, began her climb to the state beauty title as first runner-up for the crown of Miss Chapel Hill while a UNC coed entrant in the local competition last spring. While Mary Ann Henderson won the Chapel Hill pageant, Susan went on to later win her hometown pageant in Roanoke Rapids, then capture first runner-up honors in the state eliminations to Miss America—Maria Beale Fletcher of Asheville. A Jaycee committee in Charlotte last night designated her to succeed to the state beauty title which Miss America automatically vacated. News Photo
