

TV-audience participation panel on fallout shelters set Monday

The Chapel Hill - Durham Branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom will sponsor a panel discussion on the subject: "Fallout Shelters—Safety or Illusion?" from the WUNC-TV studio in Swain Hall on the UNC campus at 8:30 p. m. next Monday.

The studio will accommodate from 75 to 100 persons and audience participation is invited. Questions from the television audience will be received at telephone number 942-5056 Chapel Hill and will be used as time allows, and if a new thought is thereby introduced.

Mrs. Wayne A. Bowers, chairman of this meeting, will introduce the following panel: Moderator, Dr. Donald Irish, formerly on the faculty at Ohio Wesleyan, and now at UNC working on a three-year Research Grant in the Institute for Research in Social Science.

Panel speakers, the Rev. Vance Barron, pastor of the Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church, who has had a long-standing interest in this question; Dr. Warner Lee Wells, professor of surgery at Memorial Hospital, who served with the Atomic Energy Commission in Hiroshima, Japan, from January 1950 to June 1952, and who translated the book "Hiro-

Buckhorn couple cited at Grange convention

Arnold and Jean Kirk, Buckhorn Grange, received honorable mention as a young couple of the year last Wednesday night at the concluding session of the 33rd annual convention of the North Carolina State Grange in Boone.

The awards were made on the basis of the young couple's contribution to community and church activities.

Other recognition of Orange County in honorable mentions were Cane Creek Baptist Church, in the Rural Church of the Year program, and Buckhorn and Caldwell Granges in the Community Service Contest.

St. Mary's to have community supper

St. Mary's Home Demonstration Club will meet tonight at 6:30 at the Grange Hall for a picnic supper. The program beginning at 8 o'clock will be on "Inheritance Laws and Wills."

The St. Mary's Community, Grange, and Home Demonstration Club members are invited to attend and bring a picnic supper.

Mrs. Carl Walker, clothing leader gave the demonstration, "Modern Methods of Dressmaking," on Oct. 19. She demonstrated how to cover buttons, belts and tying Chinese knots. Mrs. Harry Walker gave a report on County Council Achievement Day which will be held Nov. 9. Mrs. Ormond Walker, president, presided and Miss Laura Watkins gave the devotional. Mrs. Clyde Roberts was hostess at the October meeting with 13 members present.

Recreational football program is started

A weekly instructional program in football for Chapel Hill boys in the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grades has been started under auspices of the public recreation department.

About 50 youngsters turned out last week for the session, which is held every Friday afternoon after school and until 4:30 at the Glenwood School. It was announced that a similar program would likely be started later at the Estes Hills School.

The program is being aided by a $50 donation from the Junior Service League.

Parents have been asked to sign a release form giving permission for their children to play, and also to furnish shoulder pads and helmets for the boys.
