County to participate in community contests for North Central area

By Don S. Matheson, County Agent Ed P. Barnes & Cyrus A Greene Assistants

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PRIZES ANNOUNCED

Orange County has definitely decided to compete in the North Central Area Development Community Development contest in 1962. There are three county prizes offered by the Association: First-$150; Second-$125; and Third-$100.

To supplement these prizes INCOME TAX MEETINGS within Orange County, the Bank TODAY of Chapel Hill and the Hillsboro Branch of the Central Carolina Bank and Trust Co. have added a second county prize of $75; third-$50; and fourth-$25.

The purpose of community development is to inspire competitive community action for better living, and the objectives are to encourage communities to organize and cooperate in achieving . . . First, increased per capita income; Second, to promote youth and projects; Third, to more fully develop and utilize leadership; Fourth, to encourage beautification of the home and community; Fifth, to encourage more home conveniences for comfort, sanitation and general liveability; Sixth, to develop social, economic, and religious activities; and Seventh, improve schools, churches, roads, etc. in the community.

A Steering Committee is being formed in each of the 10 organ-born of Mr. and Mrs. David Rudolph Stone of University Lake Road, Carrboro. Cheryl was born at 2:40 a.m. Jan. 1 in Memorial Hospital. She has one brother.

Continued from page 1

THE HILLSBORO LIONS CLUB has served as official sponsor for the local Boy Scout troop for two decades. Recently, the club had been unable to secure a scoutmaster, despite aggressive efforts and renewal of the troop charter, now weeks delayed, appeared in doubt. When ABC Enforcement Officer Burch Compton arose at Tuesday night's meeting and announced quietlythat he had never been a Scoutmaster or a Boy Scout, but was willing to try the job, he received a spontaneous standing ovation from his fellow Lions and a genuine hand-wringing from everyone present.

TAX LISTING AS IS ITS wont has been going slowly during the first 10 days of the month, only a little more so, according to Tax Supervisor Sam Gattis. He estimated that only about 15 per cent of the people had listed, with a third of the listing time already elapsed. The business tax lister at the courthouse, an innovation this year, has several times spent a half day without a customer.

ized communities, to make plans to carry on an active program in

ACP SIGN-UP UNDERWAY

Beginning Jan. 10 and continuing through Jan. 26, the County ASC Office will take requests for cost-sharing of soil conservation practices. All farmers are Board of Supervisors at the Diseligible to make application for trict's quarterly meeting last cost-sharing for seeding permanent pastures, liming cropland, building farm ponds, terracing, and improving their man. forests.

There will be two similar income tax meetings-one at 2 p. m. and the other at 7:30 p. m., at the County Courthouse, to-give instruction and answer questions relative to farmers' income tax problems.

Concert set Tuesday by 45-player ensemble

8 p. m. The public is invited. The ensemble is comprised of

Neuse soil unit elects Hogan

Henry S. Hogan, dairy farmer of Route Two Chapel Hill, was elected Chairman of the Neuse River Soil Conservation District Thursday.

ell, of Johnston County, as Chair- transcribe it for orchestra.

Plans were made for developing annual plans of operations in the five counties composing the District and for consolidating operations at the next regular meeting.

Attending the District meettension Farm Management De- County Supervisors Henry S. partment of State College, will Hogan, Charles W. Stanford, and Conservationist Quentin Patter-bert W. Fred will present a ed in the University band proconcert in Hill Hall Tuesday at gram which includes the Marching Tar Heels, the Concert Band, pep bands, and the Symphonic Wind Ensemble.

which has gained a state-wide reputation of excellence, has performed many contemporary works for winds, which, until these performances, had not been heard in this area.

This year's program includes another work, "Suite Française" by Darius Milhaud. This work met with such success that Mil-Hogan succeeds Rudolph How- haud was later prompted to > Another work of particular interest is the "William Byrd Suite" which consists of some selected pieces from the Fitzwilliam Virginal Book. These military bands.

Other works to be performed Associations.

The UNC Symphonic Wind a select group of 45 instrumen- are the Suite from "Royal Fire-Ensemble conducted by Dr. Her- talists from among those enroll- works Music" by Handel, Polka and Fugue from "Schwanda" by Weinberger, Pines of the Appian Way from the "The Pines of Rome" by Respighi, Sebastian Ballet by Menotti, and the over-This group of instrumentalists ture to "Candide" by Bernstein.

Carl Durham to head Orange Heart Council

Carl Durham of Chapel Hill has been appointed President of the Orange Heart Council, according to a letter from Dr. C. Glenn Sawyer of Winston-Salem, president of the North Carolina Heart Association.

Purpose of the Council is to inform the public of the facts about heart disease, to provide local physicians, nurses other professional people who deal with heart patients with them into a District plan of have been freely transcribed for the latest research discoveries in band by the English composer treating heart disease, and to Gordon Jacob. One of these conduct community programs pieces, "The Earle of Oxford's for the benefit of patients and Clyde Weathers, from the Ex- ing Thursday were Orange March, was commonly played their families. The Council will by military bands of the 17th also spearhead the annual drive century. These bands of 6 to 10 for funds to support local pro-Reid Roberts, and Work Unit were the forerunners of today's grams and those of the North Carolina and American Heart,

ANNOUNCEMENT:

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

Mr. & Mrs. Marshall Cates Jr. and F. Reid Roberts Are Pleased To Announce That Mr. & Mrs. Cates Are Now Sole Owners of C&R Furniture Co., Having Purchased The Interest of Mr. Roberts, Who Is Withdrawing From The Business.

Mr. Roberts And The New Owners Join In Thanking You For Your Patronage And Good Will In The Past, With The Hope The New Firm May Continue To Serve You In The Future.

SAME NAME-SAME PERSONNEL

THE FIRM WILL CONTINUE TO BE KNOWN AS C&R FURNITURE CO. AND THE SAME ACTIVE PERSONNEL WILL CONTINUE TO SERVE YOU.

EXPANDED SERVICE

While The Same Unexcelled Lines of Furniture & Appliances Will Be Continued, It Is Anticipated That Many New Items And Lines Of Home Furnishings Will Be Added To Make Shopping In Hillsboro Easier And More Complete. We Offer-

* Convenient Credit Facilities * Full Appliance Service

C&R FURNITURE CO.

E. KING ST.

HILLSBORO