

Orange Pealings

A DEADLINE OF MARCH 1 (today) had been set for resumption of picketing the Carolina Theater in Chapel Hill unless complete desegregation were granted. However, at a meeting of the Committee for Open Movies scheduled after press time last night it was expected that the deadline would be moved up to March 9 in light of the possibility of some concrete action by that time. Meanwhile the Theater is already in practice almost totally desegregated via explicit exceptions granted to its white-only policy — Negro UNC students, their guests, Negro guests of white patrons, and Negro children accompanied by one adult.

TRAVELING TED DANZIGER called home Monday night from London. He reported a superb reception to the N. C. Travel Mission's initial contacts in that city, first stop-off on their 12-day blitz of Europe. —A dozen of Ted's Democratic party friends in Chapel Hill trekked to the Airport at 6:30 a.m. Sunday to give him a surprise send-off as the 43-member contingent left via charter plane. They loaded him down with all manner of propaganda, going-away presents, and trinkets for his intercontinental odyssey.

ACIE RIGGSBEE, CARRBORO youth, is reported to be recovering satisfactorily from a gunshot injury received about 3 a.m. last Friday. He told officers he was examining his brand new automatic 22 rifle while waiting to go out on his newspaper delivery job when the gun accidentally discharged and a bullet hit him in the side. He called an ambulance and was taken to the hospital for treatment.

WHAT EFFECT WILL THE RESIGNATION last week of N. C. Assistant Attorney General Horton Rountree have on the University's protracted defense of Manning Simons' anti-fluoridation lawsuit? The entire matter of handling the lawsuit is now with the Attorney General's office as both client and attorney. It was recently announced that Mr. Rountree would argue his demurrer motion in the 21-months-old case at a civil term of Orange County Superior Court this month. Meanwhile time—and tooth decay—march on.

FIRE DESTROYED 'MRS. CLEVELAND LINDSAY'S barn behind her house at 722 N. Greensboro St. on the northern edge of Carrboro about 6 p. m. Monday.

THE CHAPEL HILL ALDERMEN were discussing an amendment to the zoning ordinance to permit the charging of fees for various zone change applications during a public hearing Monday night. One petitioner, Ed Blankstein, seized the occasion to suggest that a proof-reading fee be charged for checking legal advertisements that must be published prior to the zone change hearings. —In his own case he had to re-institute his procedures in part because of a proof-reading error on the part of the newspaper that published the legal ad.

PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS over-ruled routine courtesy. This was the explanation of Faculty

More PEALINGS on Page 12

Circulation Today

7,267

99 PCT. DISTRIBUTED IN ORANGE COUNTY

4 new precincts set up in Chapel Hill township; new registration ordered

—Story on Page 2

The News

of orange county

—Chapel Hill, Hillsboro, Carrboro—Between and Beyond—

VOL. 70, NO. 9

HILLSBORO AND CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1962

24 PAGES

Mission: Better schools...

IN AYCOCK SPIRIT—Gov. Terry Sanford stands in his office at the capitol in Raleigh beneath portrait of the "father of North Carolina's public schools," the late Gov. Charles B. Aycock, with the two Orange County persons he recently named to the statewide Citizens Committee for Better Schools, Mrs. Jesse West of Carrboro and Donald McDade of Cedar Grove. Occasion for the meeting was the organizational session of the Committee in Raleigh last Thursday.

School board action sets cut in teachers, salaries

—See story on Page 3