

Auman honored at athletic awards banquet; top player trophy presented to Craig Allison

Hillsboro High football coach Glenn Auman was presented a plaque in appreciation of his 2 years service as football coach during the annual athletic awards banquet sponsored by Hillsboro Exchange Club last Thursday night.

The award was presented by Hillsboro Mayor Fred Claytor—also the school basketball coach. And both coaches were presented gift certificates by members of the football team.

The outstanding athlete trophy was presented to Craig Allison, co-captain of the baseball and basketball teams and a star football end. This second annual award was presented by Ed Barnes.

The sportsmanship award, presented by Exchange Club President Bobby Knight went to Larry Roberts.

Over 150 persons attended the banquet and award festivities. Some of the featured guests on hand were Sidney Ray, who recently resigned as head coach at Northern to assume the principalship of Mangum Elementary; and Chapel Hill coaches Bob Cul-ton and Russ Perry.

Ray, informally making his departure from the sports scene, talked briefly about past episodes in coaching, highlighting the lighter sides of the games.

He then presented senior football awards to Jim Strayhorn, Joe Cates, Joe Griffin, Jack Knight, Gene Knight, Ed Terrell, Cecil Riley, Roberts, Mike Ray, Mike Brown and Mike Woods.

Co-captain awards went to Jack Knight and Roberts. Knight, John Shambley and Lowell Petty were honored for being selected to the All-District Three team.

Cul-ton, head football and basketball coach at Chapel Hill, made similar presentations to the basketball team.

Seniors receiving awards were Allison, Danny Copeland, Jim Hopper Frank Miller and Jim Haitcock. Copeland was presented an additional award for making the all-conference team and one for being co-captain.

Perry, who is leaving the coaching profession at Chapel Hill for a business opportunity, appropriately presented baseball awards.

J. R. Cole received the lone senior award. Cole was voted the most valuable player on the team by the local American Legion post.

Girls senior basketball awards, presented by Marion Allison, went to Phyllis Crutchfield, Paulette Crutchfield, Pat Walker, Edna Hall, Martha Ashley, Sue Lemon, Sandra Ray, Melvin Howard, Sandra Whittington, Mary Beth Todd, Judy Lloyd, Marie Wilder, Caroline Hart and Kay Grimsley.

Local businessman Clarence Jones, who played on Hillsboro's first football team and as Jones joked, "its worst," made a special presentation to Allison for being co-captain in two sports.

10,000 acres of crops are to be measured

Approximately 10,000 acres of tobacco, cotton, corn and grain sorghum will be measured within the next seven weeks in Orange County, says W. M. Snipes, Chairman of the Orange County ASCS County Committee.

A major part of the ASCS Production Adjustment Programs is the measuring of these acres after planting and prior to harvest. These measurements are accomplished in the flue cured tobacco, and cotton areas by visiting the farm and determining where allotment crops are planted and plotting the acreage through the use of aerial photographs.

Applications are now being accepted for the next school year, both, at home, and at Cameron Park School.

August rites set for Miss Rae, Mr. Carter

The engagement of Miss Barbara Alice Rae of Hillsboro to David Michael Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Kerman Carter of Henderson, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Porter Rae of Asheville.

Miss Rae, who is teaching in the Hillsboro schools, received her bachelor of arts degree from Randolph-Macon Woman's College in Lynchburg, Va., in 1961.

She is presently attending Duke University and working toward her master of arts in teaching degree.

Mr. Carter attended Duke University for two years before serving four years in the U. S. Air Force. He is now a rising senior at Duke. He is a past member of Sigma Nu fraternity and Duke University marching and concert bands.

At Randolph-Macon, Miss Rae was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Eta Sigma Phi, honorary classics fraternity.

Cameron Park School writing winners noted

Prize winners in the Cameron Park School writing contest, sponsored by the Hillsboro Exchange Club for fifth and sixth graders, were as follows:

Sixth grade — Hal Patterson, first place for a prize of $8.00; Bill Ward, second place, $4.00; Karl Cates, third place, $3.00; and Betsy Cates, honorable mention. Fifth grade — Frank Duncan, first place, $8.00; Faye Wells, second place, $4.00; Kay Parsons, third place, $3.00; and Worth Miller, honorable mention. The entrants chose their own topics and the five best entries in each class, as judged by the teachers, were submitted for final judging.

WHEAT PENALTY RATE SET

The marketing quota penalty rate for 1962 excess wheat will be $1.59 per bushel. According to W. M. Snipes, Chairman of the Orange County ASC Committee, this compares with the 1961-crop penalty rate of $1.08 per bushel. When wheat marketing quotas are in effect at they are for 1962-crop wheat, the law requires penalties on excess wheat production at the rate of 65 percent of parity as of May 1 of the crop year. The rate announced today reflects 65 percent of the May wheat parity price of $2.44 per bushel.
