

Hillsboro commencement plans announced

The baccalaureate sermon this Sunday evening is the opening event of the 1962 commencement program at Hillsboro High School.

Graduating exercises for 104 seniors are scheduled for Friday evening of next week. This will follow class night the previous evening. All programs are at 8 p. m.

Baccalaureate speaker will be the Rev. Robert Wallace of the Efland Methodist Church.

Members of the Senior Class are the participants in the Thursday evening Class Night program, when Awards, Medals and Scholarships will be given out.

Principal speakers for the Graduation program, following the procedure inaugurated last year, will be four honor students of the Senior Class, who will speak on variations of the theme, "Life Is Worth Living." They are: Kay Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Perry; Wilma Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Riley; Sandra Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson; and Betty Faulkner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Faulkner.

Robert Haas will sing, Wiley Perry, school PTA president, will present Bibles and Harry P. Breeze will present the diplomas.

Juniors who have been chosen as Marshals for the commencement week are: Andrea Ray, chief, Janice Carr, Carolyn Cole, Kay Barnes, Ellen Bacon, David

Office helper added and new members join Merchants Association

Miss Betty Gray has joined the office staff of the Hillsboro Merchants Association-Chamber of Commerce. It was announced this week by Association Secretary Mrs. William Dorsett.

Miss Gray is a senior at Hillsboro High School and will begin full-time duties after graduation next week.

New members of the Association are Southern Parts and Electric Co., Hillsboro Mills Inc., and the Family Stamp Redemption Store which will be open Thursday, Friday and Saturday beginning June 7.

Durham, Donnie Riley, David Coleman, Fletcher Holmes, and Donald Wright.

Wm. Rogers district winner in bus driving

William Larry Rogers, 18, of Route Three, Mebane, won the District School Bus Rodeo at Wilson, May 19.

Son of Mrs. Blanche S. Rogers and the late Linwood Rogers, he represented Aycock High School and Orange County. His score was 395 out of a possible 425.

Active in church, class, FFA Beta Club and the Student Council, he also plays basketball and baseball. He plans to attend N. C. State, majoring in Civil Engineering. Rogers was taught to drive by C. S. Waters, State School Bus Driver Trainer. He will compete in the State School Bus Rodeo in Raleigh, June 27

Hillsboro B.P.W. Club installs new officers

On Wednesday evening, at the Colonial Inn, the Hillsboro B. P. W. Club began its fiscal year with the installation of new officers.

Those installed were President, Mrs. Robert Copeland; Vice-President, Mrs. Robert Haas; Secretary, Miss Mary B. Forrest; Treasurer, Mrs. Bill Richmond.

These officers were installed by Mrs. Mabel Gordon, a charette member of the club.

The club members gave a rising vote of thanks to its outgoing President, Mrs. Louise Clayton.

MRS. ROBERT COPELAND

Exchange Club essay contest winners noted

Hal Patterson of the Sixth Grade and Frank Duncan of the Fifth Grade have been judged first place winners in an essay contest sponsored at Cameron Park School by the Hillsboro Exchange Club.

Rules specified the themes should be written in the classroom on topics of the children's own choosing, and that they should be original and fictitious.

$15 in prizes were distributed to first, second and third place winners in each grade and the winning papers were read in the classrooms and at the school assembly.

Second and third place winners respectively in Grade 6 were Bill Ward and Karl Cates; in Grade 5, Faye Walls and Kay Parsons.

CAMERON PARK ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS, left to right sitting, Kay Parsons, Frank Duncan and Fay Walls; standing, Hal Patterson, Billy Ward and Karl Cates.

THANK YOU

I am most grateful for the support given to me in last Saturday's Democratic primary by the voters of Orange County.

I will continue to try to merit your confidence with my best efforts in behalf of our county.

Donald McDade
Democratic Nominee
For County Commissioner

A MESSAGE OF APPRECIATION TO THE VOTERS OF ORANGE COUNTY

To each one who voted for me and to the friends, both old and new, who worked on my behalf, I wish to express my sincere appreciation.

—Carl M. Smith

$2.10
pint

$3.35
4/5
quart

86
proof

J. T. S. BROWN'S
SON COMPANY

Lawrenceburg,
Kentucky

Blended Whiskey
30% straight whiskey
5 years old
70% grain neutral spirits