MRS. VANCE ORRIN ISENHOUR III

Angela Green, Vance Isenhour pledge nuptial vows Saturday

Miss Angela Joan Green became the bride of Vance Orrin Isenhour III on Saturday afternoon in a double ring ritual at the Bragtown Baptist Church.

Rev. Samuel James officiated. Baritone soloist was Rev. Steve T. Kimbrough.

The daughter of Mrs. Stoner W. Klutz of Durham, the bride, was given in marriage by her uncle, Ralph S. Hobbs, of Hampton, Va. Her gown of silk organ-dy was fashioned with scooped neckline, full colonial skirt and trimmed with Chantilly Lace.

GENTRY REUNION

The B. J. Gentry family reunion will be held at the home of Clarence J. Gentry of Route 2, Hillsboro this Sunday. All family members are invited to attend and to bring picnic lunches to be served at 1 o'clock.

She wore a coronet of seed pearls which was attached to her veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of Bride's roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. C. Nolen Hudson of Durham, matron of honor, was dressed in pink shantung and carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridegroom, son of V. O. Isenhour, Jr. of Hillsboro, was attended by his father as best man. Ushers were Pat Clayton and John Midgette of Hillsboro.

The couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church before leaving for a wedding trip to the east coast. They were entertained the previous evening at a cake-cutting at the home of the bride, 3108 Kenan Rd.

The bride, a Northern High graduate attended Croft's Business College, Raleigh. The groom is a Hillsboro High School graduate, and is employed at Walker Funeral Home in Chapel Hill.
