

Orange Pealings

CHAPEL HILL TRAFFIC Clerk Anne Cogdell has quite a collection of mutilated and bogus coins that have come through the local parking meters during the four years they've been in use. There are about four dozen in all, including 10 cents in play money coin, bus tokens, and a handful from Germany, Mexico, France, Britain, Spain, Venezuela, Belgium, Austria, Switzerland, and Canada. The Canadian nickels are the most popular. In addition she has a 10 cruzeiro bill that one offender sent in from Chapel Hill for payment of one-dollar parking ticket, and which was not deemed acceptable; and two Canadian dollars, sent in for the same purpose, and which are acceptable.

MRS. MARY HOLLINGS-worth, secretary to John Cates of Chapel Hill Realty Co., was the seamstress for John Umstead's gaily-colored swim suit (photo on this page). She made the rig in cooperation with tailor Henry (Pop) Wishnov on the basis of their estimates of Mr. U's dimensions. Since he hasn't donned it yet, there has been no opportunity to check their accuracy.

CHAPEL HILL FIREMEN answered an alarm yesterday morning to the home of Mrs. Ida Lee at 117 S. Graham St. Two rooms in the home were badly burned in the blaze, which caught somehow while a repairman was at the home working on a gas-fired hot water heater.

B. W. LACOCK THIS WEEK became a State Highway Patrol Trooper in Chapel Hill, succeeding the late Tom Winborne. Mr. LaCock, a native of Durham, has been with the Patrol in Reidsville for the past two years. A 1955 graduate of Durham High School, he also served on the Durham police force. He is related to the LaCock families in both Chapel Hill and Durham.

THE COMPLETE ELIMINA-tion of legal segregation was brought about by the Chapel Hill School Board for this coming year on one level: the special education classes. Four such classes are to be organized, two in the Carrboro Elementary School and two at the Northside School. Each will be open to pupils from anywhere in the district until the enrollment is filled.

THREE YOUNG CHILDREN carted off more than $400 worth of merchandise from the W. T. Grant store in Eastgate on Hot Diggety Day last Friday—with the good wishes of the management. They were the winners in a drawing which gave them title to all they could pick up and cart off in 10 minutes. Becky Johnson netted better than a $200 haul, which included a portable TV, radio, ball, bunch of candy, stereo records, typewriter, and record player. Angela

'Long Johns' for a swim!...

'SUITS UMSTEAD FINE' — Richard E. Jamerson, representing the Exchange Swimming Pool organization, presents a specially-made brightly-colored swim suit to John Umstead (left) in appreciation of the latter's help in bringing about the construction of the new pool, formally opened in Chapel Hill last Sunday afternoon. Herb Holland (right), President of the corporation that built the pool, presided over the ceremonies.
