

AMONG THE STATE HIGH-way jobs being bruited about currently, the completion of the dual-lane Raleigh-Chapel Hill Boulevard via a new route through Research Triangle Park is rumored to have been moved up to a top priority. This job was envisioned in the Hodges administration's 15-year highway improvements plan as a three-stage job by 1970. Word is now that in light of the recent federal highway program speed-up it'll be taken up at the next meeting of the State Highway Commission.

FURTHERMORE IN THE realm of roadways, the complete encirclement of Chapel Hill by bypasses is now imminent, in light of the commitment last Thursday of Division Highway Commissioner MacLamroc to the new northside loop. It'll go from the Durham Boulevard near Eastgate all the way around to N.C. Highway 54 a mile west of Carrboro, according to MacLamroc's statement at a public hearing at Hillsboro last Thursday. He also agreed to "push" a link-up from Pleasant Drive north of Carrboro to the Estes Drive area to afford better access from the west to the new Chapel Hill Junior High School.

FIVE ORANGE COUNTY GOP stalwarts were on hand for the State Republican Executive Committee meeting in Greensboro last Saturday, at which Robert Gavin was unanimously chosen their Tar Heel party chieftain. They were Committee members Carrington Phillips of Chapel Hill, the new Orange County Chairman, Louis Sparrow, Claude Gray, and Edwin Tenney.

GEORGE SPRANSY, PRESI-dent of the Carrboro Chamber of Commerce, sends regrets he won't be able to attend tonight's covered dish picnic supper for the Chamber. He's convalescing satisfactorily in Memorial Hospital from a heart attack suffered last Thursday morning. George, a gourmet specializing in picnic lines, says he's coming along fine. But he intimated the mealtime fare at the Hospital was a bit on the skimpy side, though quite tasty.

A NUMBER OF CHAPEL Hill Jaycees will literally get the goat in coming months, subject to a membership contest just started. Under the brainchildery of Membership Chairman R. B. Fitch Jr., any current Jaycee who fails to corral a new member for the young men's civic group will be subject to custody of a goat until he produces the neophyte Jaycee, signed and paid up.

IT IS CONSERVATIVELY ESTI-mated that more than 25,000 postals were mailed by WCHL listeners in their quest for the "Hideaway House" treasure. It was uncovered after 20 days at the Erle Peacock Srs. on Tenney Circle last week by Mrs. Hubert Farrell, who won over $500 in cash and prizes for her success. See PEALINGS on Page 12

Pony-tailer's retreat...

CAMP CLOSING - Youngsters attending Camp Tiny Tar Heel in Chapel Hill will close out the second two-week session of the summer Girl Scout day camp this summer tomorrow. Above, looking past the pony tail of blonde moppet Tracy Tillman, the girls carry out the flag lowering rites of the day's end retreat ceremonies. The color guard is under the tutelage of counselor Lynn Turlington (second from left). Thirty-four girls have been attending the camp, under leadership of Girl Scouts Director Mrs. Ernestine Snell. The site at Camp Marian Hill is a wooded tract just to the south of Victory Village.
