

Orange Peelings

'Flagship Chapel Hill'...

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE Chapel Hill Exchange Club looked on last Friday night as bedraggled players on the Chapel Hill football squad pushed off their stalled activity bus to get it started. The team had just been beaten by Graham 37-20. Upshot of the vignette was that the Exchangeites voted Tuesday night to buy a new bus for the team. Profits from their sale of "trick or treat" candy, now going on, will be put toward this goal. "After losing a ball game the boys shouldn't have to push their bus back to the locker room," commented one sympathetic civic clubber.

A BRONZE PLAQUE in MEMORY of Sawney Webb, the late head of Bell Buckle School in Tennessee and Senator from that state, will be dedicated Nov. 11 or 18 at his birthplace six miles east of Roxboro. Mr. Webb attended the old Bingham School in Orange County, where he later taught, and also attended the University at Chapel Hill. UNC President Friday will speak at the rites. The plaque is being given by the Daughters of Colonial Wars, of which Mrs. Charles Stanford of Orange County is State President.

MEMBERS OF THE PROGRESSIVE Labor Club on the University campus are reportedly riled at being called Communist in connection with the current American Legion appeal for an investigation. A Club spokesman called the Communist Party U. S. A. "a dogmatic and stagnant group of men living in the past." Larry Phelps is quoted in the Daily Tar Heel as saying the PL group is "more activist and further left."

ANENT THE ABOVE-MENtioned hoorah on the campus of late. The Daily Tar Heel yesterday chronicled that a WTVD news crew was interviewing passing students on the campus and asking 'em what they thought of the presence at UNC of the Progressive Labor and New Left Groups. The Tar Heel reporter asked 'em why they didn't interview student government leaders on the question. The TV newsman replied with a shrug that the student government leaders were "all liberal." One more incidental tidbit in this realm: The student newspaper also reports that the New Left group will sponsor a talk at UNC by teamsters union boss Jimmy Hoffa in the very near future. Anybody else confused?

THE CHAPEL HILL POLICE Department says its use of a radar speed clock to check on speeding autos is working out quite well. Of several dozen

See PEALINGS on Page 12

NAMESAKE OF 'THE HILL'—An F-102 jet interceptor in the fighter squadron at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro now bears the name of Chapel Hill—displayed on the landing gear flap of the plane. The 28 planes in the squadron were named for cities and towns in North Carolina and shown off to representatives of the respective municipalities recently. (See "Pealings," back page.)

The News

of orange county

—Chapel Hill, Hillsboro, Carrboro—Between and Beyond—

VOL. 70, NO. 41

HILLSBORO AND CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1962

24 PAGES

North - side road link OK today held likely

—Story on Page 5

Circulation Today
7,568
99 PCT. DISTRIBUTED IN
ORANGE COUNTY

Thanks to local industry...

"INDUSTRY OF YEAR"—Steve White, left, executive vice president of White Furniture Company, accepts the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association citation for outstanding contributions to the local economy at last week's annual meeting. Colonel George Levings made the presentation, expressed the community's appreciation to a long-time respected employer. H. Ted Smith, manager of the Hillsboro plant, is shown in center.

Showdown on zoning is Tuesday

—Story on Page 3

'Red' issue push: hope of Legion

—Story on Page 2