

District Scout dinner is set next Thursday

The annual dinner for the Orange Boy Scout District will be held at 6:30 next Thursday night in the Chapel Hill High School Cafeteria.

Upwards of 300 parents of Scouts and Scouters are expected to attend the meeting, at which awards will be given and officers for the coming year installed. The affair is under the direction of Carlton Byrd, District Activities Chairman.

The 12 Boy Scouts who have attained the Eagle rank in Orange District during the past year will be recognized and given a letter of commendation from Gov. Sanford. Awards will be presented to the outstanding den mother, scoutmaster, and scout.

District executive Eddie Cothran will give a summary of scouting activity in the district during the past year. Master of Ceremonies for the occasion will be Dr. Robert Cadmus, District Chairman this year. He will be succeeded in office by W. N. Tyler, who has been District and Council Organization and Extension Chairman this year. Vice-Chairmen will be Orville Campbell, Carl Fisher, and Harry Waldo. George Scheer and Buck Knight will be installed as district commissioners. Appointments as new committee chairmen will be made by the District Chairman.

PETE SEEGER TO SING
The well-known folk singer Pete Seeger will give a concert next Wednesday, Dec. 5, at 8 p. m. in Memorial Hall under sponsorship of The New Left, university student discussion group. Admission will be $1.00. Profits from the concert will go to the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, it was announced.
