

County Farm Agent's Column

Swine and fat steer tours

Two events that should be of interest to swine producers of Orange County are scheduled for this month.

The first of these is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 12, in the Commissioners' Room at the Courthouse in Hillsboro at 2 o'clock. At that time Jack Kelley, one of the South's outstanding authorities from State College, will be on hand to discuss the latest research on how to make more money with hogs. This meeting should be a "must" for every swine producer in Orange or the surrounding counties.

The second event is an all day area tour scheduled by Jack Smith, Jr., Assistant County Agent in Person County, to visit the Caledonia Prison Farm at Tillery, and the Julian Edwards' farm near Jackson on Thursday, Feb. 14. All producers from Durham, Orange, and Person Counties are invited to attend this tour.

Each of these farms carry over 100 sows in their herd. This tour should offer an excellent opportunity to see how large hog operations are carried on. Plans are to meet at the County Agent's office in the Courthouse in Roxboro, to pool cars and leave Roxboro by 8 a. m. Orange County producers planning to go on this tour should advise their local County Agent's office a few days in advance.

4-H FAT STEER TOUR

The Four-H leaders of High Hope, Schley, and Caldwell Counties have planned a tour to see some of the Four-H fat steers. The tour will begin Saturday, Feb 9, at 1 p. m., at Flint Hamlin's Store. The steers of the following club members will be visited: Tommy Hamlin; John Mike Walter; Gattis and Nicky Walker; Earl T. McKee; Stephen James; Ben and Ray Nichols; Rachel and Joe Phelps; Lois, Paul and Mark Latta; Eddie Greene; Mike Tapp; and Peter and Bill Fudge.

Then the group will meet in the basement of the New Hope Presbyterian Church to see some Four-H exhibits and have refreshments.

Clark to head heart drive

Hillsboro Heart Funders will be headed by Marion M. Clark, according to Carl Durham, president of the Orange County Heart Council.

The month-long Heart Fund campaign in the county is part of the countywide effort to raise funds for the North Carolina and American Heart Associations and their broad programs of heart research, public health education, physician information and community service.

Clark, secretary-treasurer of the Hillsboro Savings and Loan Association, is a native of Orange County and has lived in Hillsboro for 15 years. He is married to the former Margaret Liner and the Clarks have three children enrolled in the Hillsboro schools.

The Hillsboro Heart Fund chairman was a leader in last year's Hillsboro drive which was headed by George Smith. He is superintendent of the Hillsboro Methodist Church Sunday School, and Cub Scoutmaster of the Hillsboro Pack No. 438.
