HAZEL WARD IS HONORED AT PARTY

Gifts were showered on Miss Hazel Ward at the party given in her honor recently by Miss Joy McAdams of Lexington and Mrs. Albert M. Reavis. They entertained at the Reavis home on N. Elm St., Greensboro.

Mrs. Reavis is aunt of both the honoree and her fiance, Jack W. Reavis, who are to marry April 7 in Hillsboro's Little River Presbyterian Church.

The hostess pair added silver and a linen tablecloth to the shower gifts and also gave the bride a corsage of pink camellias. The gifts were placed on a table covered with a white cloth and accented with a bride doll.

The dining table was covered with white lace over yellow taffeta and centered with yellow snapdragons and white pompons flanked by white candles in three-branched caldelaabra. Frozen dessert in yellow and white was served with coffee.

In the group were guests from Hillsboro, Chapel Hill, Burlington, Graham, Lexington, Winston-Salem and Raleigh. Among them were the bridal mothers, Mrs. Allen E. Ward of Route 2, Hillsboro, and Mrs. Robert J. Reavis of Burlington.

Miss Patsy Latta, Miss Carolyn Walker and Miss Janice Ward were over-night guests of the bride-to-be.
