

Orange Pealings

TWINS, A BOY AND A GIRL, were born recently to the Rev. and Mrs. A. Kimsey King Jr., of Raleigh; doing fine, names Arnold Kimsey King III and Julia Page King, the latter being named for her paternal great grandmother. The Kings have two other children — Leslie Diane, six, and Carol Jean, four. The Rev. Mr. King, son of Prof. and Mrs. King of Chapel Hill, was until two years ago the pastor of Aldersgate Methodist Church here and is now Associate Pastor of Edenton St. Methodist Church in Raleigh.

ONE BUBBLE REMAINING in the slow-boiling political pot may gain a bit more heat next Monday when Orange County Republicans appear before the County School Board to ask 'em to petition the General Assembly for enabling legislation to make this Board purely elective by the people — instead of by popular nomination to the General Assembly, as now. While the issue is not in Orange County one of burning partisan controversy, the fact is that a few months ago the Board, as a matter of record, expressed its satisfaction with the present system.

SIXTH DISTRICT CONGRESSMAN Horace Kornegay yesterday announced that a $2,000 loan had been given by the Public Housing Administration to the Chapel Hill Housing Authority to begin its preliminary program for its 60-unit low-rent housing project here.

THEIR FELLOW POLICEMEN made Sgt. W. F. Hester and Patrolman John Nesbitt of Chapel Hill's Finest duplicate gift-wrapped presents of bean-shooters during formal ceremonies last Saturday morning. The rites were in recognition of their firing range scores in practice with .38 calibre pistols.

Circulation Today

7,590

99 PCT. DISTRIBUTED IN ORANGE COUNTY

New Hillsboro access road 'postponed' pending action on eastern bypass link

—See story on Page 2

The News

of orange county

—Chapel Hill, Hillsboro, Carrboro—Between and Beyond—

VOL. 71, NO. 22

HILLSBORO AND CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1963

28 PAGES TODAY

Good 'squirt' ...

MEASURES UP—Patrick Murphy of the State Fire Insurance Rating Bureau in Raleigh meters the 1,000 gallons-a-minute water flow through a hose from Chapel Hill's new $20,500 pumper fire truck as the vehicle was successfully passed on a required underwriters' standards in tests held at University Lake last Thursday.

UNC getting its requests in the budget, states Phipps

—See story on Page 4

★ ★ ★ ★

Un-graded instruction is retained

—See story on Page 9

★ ★ ★ ★

Mayor's group maps four-point program against discrimination in business service

—See stories on Page 3

MARCH AGAINST DISCRIMINATION — More than 300 sign-carrying Negro and white persons staged an hour-long parade and demonstration through downtown Chapel Hill last Saturday noon in a stepped-up drive against racial discrimination in private business operations.